Educational Assessment in a Time of Reform Coert

Loock, Vanessa Scherman, 2019-11-20 Educational Assessment in a Time of Reform provides background information on large scale examination systems more generally and the South African examination specifically It traces the reforms in the education system of South Africa since 1994 and provides a description of the advances in modern test theory that could be considered for future standard setting endeavours At the heart of the book is the debate on whether the current standard of education in Africa is good enough If not then how can it be improved The aim of this book is to provide a point of departure for discussions on standard setting quality assurance equating of examinations and assessment approaches From this point of departure recommendations for practices in general and the exit level Grade 12 examination results in particular can be made This book is ideal reading for principals teachers academics and researchers in the fields of educational assessment measurement and evaluation

Science Education and Curriculum in South Africa Oscar Koopman, 2016-11-01 This book explores the impact of the socio historical political and economic environment in South Africa both during and after

Apartheid During this time the South African education system demonstrated an interest in a specific type of knowledge which Koopman refers to as a science of government This science of government leaves the learners with a blurred understanding of science that is disconnected from external nature and human nature and is presented as a series of abstract concepts and definitions The book also investigates the dialectical tensions between the science curriculum and the role of the teacher as an active implementer of the curriculum The book draws on the work of various phenomenological scholars namely Edmund Husserl Martin Heidegger Merleau Ponty and Max van Manen to discuss these tensions
