

My Autobiography - Example

5 pages | 1099 words

I am Gene Geralde Gonzales, I was born on May 2, 1971 in Baguio City, Philippines. We are seven siblings in the family. I am the seventh child. My mother's name is Fe Geralde Gonzales, she is from Cebu City and my father's name is Mario Dy Gonzales, he is from Legaspi, Albay. I took my elementary education as well as my secondary education at Saint Louis School of Campo Filipino located at Naguillian Road Baguio City. I had a happy childhood living with my parents and my siblings. During weekends, we usually spend our day in the park. We helped each other in our daily activities. My family was a happy and a loving family.

During my high school days, I usually spend my free time in the library together with my friends. Reading has been an important part in my life. I have always loved reading since reading entertains, educates and informs. Reading interesting novels such as fiction books has been part of the entertainment aspect of my reading history. I love the way stories are told in books and as I read, I often get overwhelmed and enter the scene being explained in the story. At times I feel I am watching live scenes. This entertains me!

Our school was exclusively for girls and because of that I find it hard to communicate with the opposite sex. We usually spend our summer vacation in the hometown of my mother, which is located in Minglanilla Cebu City. My hobbies are reading books, biking, watching movies and also cross stitching. I also spend my free time hanging out with my friends.

My dream was to become a nurse. I was able to pass the entrance examination at Saint Louis University and I had my first year as a nursing student. I wasn't able to pass one of the major subjects so I had to transfer to another school. I had to take a summer class for my back subject at Pines City Educational Center and from that time I continued my studies and graduated in the year 1992 with a Bachelor of Science in Nursing. After graduation, I had my self review and took the exam for Civil Service Professional Level, wherein I was able to pass the exam. By the year 1993, together with my college friends, we went to Manila to have our review and took our board exam for nursing. While waiting for the result of the board exam, I worked as a volunteer nurse at Antamok Mines.

My interpersonal skills and nursing skills were developed during my stay at Antamok Mines Hospital. After I passed the Board Exam for Nurses, by the year 1994, I worked as a private duty nurse employed by Miss Cheen Tan, wherein I took care of her father, who was 82 years of age and with Parkinson's disease. I assisted him with his daily activities, bathed and fed him, and also made sure he took all his medications on time. My salary as a private duty nurse was not enough...

Reading Arab Women's Autobiographies Nawar Al-Hassan Golley, 2010-01-01 Authors of autobiographies are always engaged in creating a self to present to their readers This process of self creation raises a number of intriguing questions why and how does anyone choose to present herself or himself in an autobiography Do women and men represent themselves in different ways and if so why How do differences in culture affect the writing of autobiography in various parts of the world This book tackles these questions through a close examination of Arab women's autobiographical writings Nawar Al Hassan Golley applies a variety of western critical theories including

Marxism colonial discourse feminism and narrative theory to the autobiographies of Huda Shaarawi Fadwa Tuqan Nawal el Saadawi and others to demonstrate what these critical methodologies can reveal about Arab women's writing At the same time she also interrogates these theories against the chosen texts to see how adequate or appropriate these models are for analyzing texts from other cultures This two fold investigation sheds important new light on how the writers or editors of Arab women's autobiographies have written documented presented and organized their texts The Development of the Self-Image in Black Autobiographical Writing (Frederick Douglass, W.E.B. Du Bois and Malcolm X) Moritz Oehl, 2007-07-28 Thesis M A from the year 2006 in the subject American Studies Literature grade 2 7 University of Bamberg Professur f r Amerikanistik 58 entries in the bibliography language English abstract In this thesis paper each of the three black autobiographical writings will be discussed in chronological order The paper begins with Frederick Douglass's Narrative from 1845 continues with W E B Du Bois's Darkwater from 1920 and finishes with The Autobiography of Malcolm X from 1965 The purpose of this chronological organization is to better trace the development of black autobiographical writing over the period of 120 years Each autobiography's discussion is divided up into three distinguishable components A summary of each memoir provides a background against which the further stylistic and thematic discussions can be attempted Secondly the historical circumstances basic structure and narrative techniques of the respective eras of black autobiographical writing and of the specific works will be discussed The purpose is to closely look at typical features or in the case of The Autobiography of Malcolm X genres of black autobiographical writings in each period and then in a second step analyze each work's specific stylistic and narrative peculiarities The third and last component of each autobiography's discussion is a close textual interpretation It shall analyze the development of the self image of each author as presented in his autobiographical work These observations will be synthesized in the Conclusion of this thesis paper The eventual aim of this study is to prove the three thesis elements First of all it shall be demonstrated that African Americans have written autobiographies to comment on the unjust societies they have been living in since slavery Secondly it shall be proven that the three distinguishable stages of black autobiographical writing are best represented by this selection of books And finally one will see that th Twenty Years at Hull-House Jane Addams, 2022-08-15 A bedrock text of American progressivism Twenty Years at Hull House tells the dramatic story of how social reformer Jane Addams cofounded and developed the Chicago settlement house into a community center dedicated to serving the city's immigrants and poor Addams provides an eyewitness account of urban life in her lifetime while explaining the ideas and experiences that motivated her to dedicate her life to helping these Chicagoans By arguing that Americans should respect immigrants traditions Addams created a successful template for integrating newcomers into society and empowering them to seek out what they needed from government business and other institutions Addams philosophy and tireless pursuit of social justice influenced people and movements around the world One of the best known public figures of her time Addams won the Nobel Peace Prize and a century later remains an inspirational
