Garthion's Child Tamera Austin,2011-09-05 For Taressa Wardell life was nothing more than one huge ball of struggle chaos and confusion Born to an uncaring mother and raised on the streets her world revolved around drugs alcohol promiscuous sex and more drugs She completely lacked self confidence self esteem and self worth Life had reached a point of having no meaning for her For too many years now she had felt dead inside a hollowed husk doing nothing but going through the motions of what others expected from her However when an extraterrestrial being shows up at her front door announcing that her presence is required on another planet Taressa s mind is thrown into panic mode forcing her to look outside the scope of her blurred and hazy existence Had she hallucinated the little blue creature and its words of prophecy She wanted desperately to believe she had But her soul told her differently Her soul told her she was about to fall into the biggest vat of manure she had ever experienced Her mind told her she would never survive

Johann has never been a religious person but recently he has been drawn to read the Bible Climate change concerns him Revelations describes the end of times but it does not make sense Genesis is a very simple account of the beginning of human existence but it seems incomplete and inaccurate Of course the authors of The Bible did not know as much about Earth and life as we do now Scientific methods have given us a much more detailed understanding of this existence it is much more complex than religion portrays Johann embarks on a journey to convince people that science and religion should complement one another Johann believes God is the Master Scientist Designer and Engineer who created humans with a subset of the same intelligence as Himself He assigned humans to be stewards of the Earth he created and now we have the immense responsibility and challenge to clean up the mess we have made Will scientific discovery and technical advancement be embraced by religion and politics before Earth becomes uninhabitable by humans Can Johann help convince humans that God is not just religion
