Abstract: Staphylococcus aureus is a leading cause of nosocomial infection. The purpose of this study was to determine the prevalence of S. aureus in the hospital environment and to identify risk factors for colonization. A total of 100 samples were collected from various hospital locations. The results showed that 60% of the samples were positive for S. aureus. The highest prevalence was found in the intensive care unit (ICU) and the operating room. Risk factors for colonization included contact with medical equipment, contact with healthcare workers, and contact with other patients. The study highlights the importance of infection control measures in the hospital environment.

Roles of Financial Institutions and Credit Guarantees in Regional Revitalization in Japan Nobuyoshi Yamori, Yoshihiro Asai, Masao Ojima, Kei Tomimura, Koji Yoneda, 2019-08-10 This book is about the roles that financial institutions are expected to play for revitalizing regional economies in Japan which face several serious problems such as a rapidly aging population as well as a sharp decline in population The Japanese government expects regional financial institutions to contribute to that revitalization Actually Japanese regional financial institutions have made various efforts to support small and medium sized enterprises SMEs to increase their profitability and sustainability However the efforts have not yet produced adequate outcomes To help clarify the reasons for the failures and to offer policy recommendations the authors used four questionnaires to conduct surveys They sent the questionnaires to the headquarters of regional financial institutions for Chapter 1 and to the staffs of regional financial institutions for Chapter 2 The government revised the Credit Guarantee System Reform Act in 2017 to promote financial institutions and credit guarantee corporations in order to proactively support SMEs so in Chapter 3 the aims of the revised act are explained Chapter 4 is based on a survey of startups that used the public credit guarantee Finally Chapter 5 is based on another different questionnaire that was sent to SMEs to find out why they failed to improve their risk management and how financial institutions can help them to prepare for disasters To the best of the authors knowledge these questionnaire studies on regional revitalization have not been carried out elsewhere making this book unique

Financial Institutions

Management Anthony Saunders, Hugh Alun Lloyd Thomas, 2001 This text focuses on the risks faced by managers of financial institutions and the methods and markets through which these risks are managed The context is the Canadian financial services industry The text begins with thumbnail sketches of the industry its member companies their structures and the regulatory environment It looks not only at banks but also at insurance companies trust companies credit unions investment banks and finance companies providing a holistic view of the challenges of liquidity risk interest rate risk market risk credit and other risks in the global environment This highly regarded text continues to take the same innovative approach as the first edition focusing on managing return and risk The book s central theme is that the risks faced by financial institution managers and the methods and markets through which these risks are managed are essentially the same whether the institution is a commercial bank an investment bank a credit union an insurance company or a finance company A second theme that emerges in this edition is that the risks booked by the financial institution use risk capital and generate an expected return that should justify that use The authors explain the latest techniques of risk measurement against the backdrop of the convergence of worldwide securities investment credit and insurance industries
