The Downfall and Rise of a Genius Series Dr. Evans Oniha, 2023-01-31 Every society promulgates culture to represent its shared values traditions and customs which define the way of life of her people In some practices cultural norms might be used to repress and intimidate certain members of society Such was the culture of the Okale kingdom where women s rights were suppressed and infringed on Women and girls were seen only as marriage materials Thus education for girls was barely nonexistent Ekiose a brilliant daughter and fearless thinker of Okale rose from ashes to challenge the cultural practices she claimed were used to rob women of their fundamental human rights and freedom of expression In one of her outreach forums she met a human rights advocate lawyer called Prince Ugo a native of Abbar kingdom They soon fell in love and planned to spend their lives together However their plan was cut short when Prince Idaghe a native and crown prince of the Okale people also desired to marry her This controversy led to meetings between both families to resolve their differences The purpose was to avert war which was acceptable as a last resort for resolving such conflict whereby the winner marries the woman But Prince Ugo refused to back down citing that he was unfairly treated because he was an outsider When war became inevitable the king s counselors through divination advised the crown prince to hunt down a lion with his bare hand as a necessity for his victory They fought and the battle ended in Prince Idaghe s favor Prince Ugo who was at the pinnacle of success in his legal profession was severely maimed and lost it all for the sake of a woman He allowed pride to rule his life and to dictate his decision making process Pride is a disease of the heart that if not controlled could lead someone to an early grave or some severe life consequences Such was Prince Ugo s case which objected to every meaningful measure to avert the fight that almost killed him This book approaches the life storm by using the life experiences of Prince Ugo to illustrate how adversity could devastate anyone if pride and lack of contentment are not dealt with While everyone desires to live a fruitful stress free life crises might hit at any time It might come about due to poor choices or circumstances simply beyond the person s control A beacon of hope is always at the end of the tunnel if the victim doesn t allow his condition to hinder his foresight When Prince Ugo came to his senses he swallowed his pride and started over again Through the power of perseverance and innovative ideas he rose from rags and ashes to uplift his head above the waters that almost swallowed him alive to revolutionize his kingdom for the benefit of his people
