

2011 Instructions for Form 4562

Department of the Treasury
Internal Revenue Service

Depreciation and Amortization (Including Information on Listed Property)

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

What's New

- For tax years beginning in 2011, the maximum section 179 expense deduction is $500,000 ($535,000 for qualified enterprise zone property). This limit is reduced by the amount by which the cost of section 179 property placed in service during the tax year exceeds $2 million. See the instructions for Part I for more information.
- For tax years beginning after 2011, the definition of section 179 property will no longer include certain qualified real property. See Special rules for qualified section 179 real property for more information.
- For tax years beginning after 2011, the increased section 179 expense deduction limit and threshold amount before reduction in limitation will no longer apply.
- The higher section 179 expense deduction will not apply to qualified empowerment zone property placed in service after December 31, 2011. See the instructions for line 1 for more information.
- The 100% special depreciation allowance will not apply to most property placed in service after December 31, 2011. See the instructions for line 14 (for listed property, see the instructions for line 25) for more information.
- Specified GO Zone extension property placed in service after December 31, 2011, will no longer be treated as qualified property for the 50% special depreciation allowance. See the instructions for line 14 for more information.
- Qualified motorsports entertainment complex property placed in service after December 31, 2011, will not be treated as 7-year property under MACRS.
- Qualified leasehold improvement property, qualified restaurant property, and qualified retail improvement property placed in service after December 31, 2011, will not be treated as 15-year property under MACRS.

- The accelerated depreciation of property on an Indian reservation will not apply to property placed in service after December 31, 2011.

Future developments. The IRS has created a page on IRS.gov for information about Form 4562 and its instructions at www.irs.gov/form4562. Information about any future developments affecting Form 4562 (such as legislation enacted after we release it) will be posted on that page.

General Instructions

Purpose of Form

Use Form 4562 to:

- Claim your deduction for depreciation and amortization.
- Make the election under section 179 to expense certain property, and
- Provide information on the business/investment use of automobiles and other listed property.

Who Must File

Except as otherwise noted, complete and file Form 4562 if you are claiming any of the following.

- Depreciation for property placed in service during the 2011 tax year.
- A section 179 expense deduction (which may include a carryover from a previous year).
- Depreciation on any vehicle or other listed property (regardless of when it was placed in service).
- A deduction for any vehicle reported on a form other than Schedule C (Form 1040), Profit or Loss From Business, or Schedule C-EZ (Form 1040), Net Profit From Business.
- Any depreciation on a corporate income tax return (other than Form 1120S).
- Amortization of costs that begins during the 2011 tax year.

If you are an employee deducting job-related vehicle expenses using either the standard mileage rate or actual expenses, use Form 2106, Employee Business Expenses, or Form 2106-EZ, Unreimbursed

Employee Business Expenses, for this purpose.

File a separate Form 4562 for each business or activity on your return for which Form 4562 is required. If you need more space, attach additional sheets. However, complete only one Part I in its entirety when computing your section 179 expense deduction. See the instructions for line 12, later.

Definitions

Depreciation

Depreciation is the annual deduction that allows you to recover the cost or other basis of your business or investment property over a certain number of years. Depreciation starts when you first use the property in your business or for the production of income. It ends when you either take the property out of service, deduct all your depreciable cost or basis, or no longer use the property in your business or for the production of income.

Generally, you can depreciate:

- Tangible property such as buildings, machinery, vehicles, furniture, and equipment; and
- Intangible property such as patents, copyrights, and computer software.

Exception. You cannot depreciate land.

Section 179 Property

Section 179 property is property that you acquire by purchase for use in the active conduct of your trade or business, and is one of the following.
