

Belinda, the lowly maid remained silent as she tended to 'miss' Philip's bonnet. Philip could barely contain his shame as he held his chin high. "Thank you Belinda." he gulped, before timidly dropping a curtsy.

She smiled and told him that he needn't curtsy for a mere servant. "...only your equals and betters Miss Philip." she informed him.

It's been a month since Philip shamed his wealthy family by running up a huge gambling debt and trying to fraudulently raise the funds to repay it. It's been a fortnight since his mother, Lady Walton, punished the nineteen year old in the most humbling and humiliating way she knew... crushing his pride in a corset and encasing his shame in fine fabrics and bright colours. Having become accustomed to walking elegantly in heels, the time has come for him to pay penance to those he wronged and publicly present his debreeched self to those whose respect he betrayed.
