Parts Manual

When ordering various parts, specify the correct part number. All descriptions, quantities required, the unit model number and serial number. For your safety and continued proper operation, use only genuine GENCO service parts.

The model and vessel number for this test are as in test 1, except as a vessel on the front of the job.

64392. Company reserves the right to make changes or improvements to the design or construction of any part of the unit without incurring the obligation to notify such changes or any otherwise relevant facts.

Refer to the abbreviations table located on this page for special parts descriptions. Detailed stocking lists for major items are also provided near the back of this manual. Minor range values shown in the illustrations are in 10-mm increments and are converted to inch-pounds by multiplying by 0.704.

Specific reference numbers, indicating a complete assembly, are indicated on some drawings. A casting part is not a casting drawing. Indicate a cast part (rod, a ring, etc.) in the exploded view part list, without reference number, follow the following drawing:

- 7. (201000 and below) - indicates serial position, upper and including 000
- 8. (201000 - 2000) - indicates serial position, between 0000 and 2000
- 9. (201000 and up) - indicates serial position, including 000 and above

Table 1 presents the regression results and statistics. The regression results are presented in columns 1 through 4, and the statistics are presented in columns 5 through 7. The regression results are presented in columns 1 through 4, and the statistics are presented in columns 5 through 7.
