Perspective Hannah Buxbaum,2025-01-20 Extraterritoriality is often understood as an exceptional sometimes even illegitimate form of state lawmaking yet it is pervasive in contemporary practice Countries around the world rely on extraterritorial regulation to protect local markets in areas including competition law and data privacy It is also recognized as a useful strategy to promote international human rights and to address shared challenges as diverse as transnational crime tax base erosion and climate change The normalization of extraterritoriality as a legal technique however has by no means resolved longstanding debates about its place in the international legal order Containing in depth studies of fifteen legal systems this volume provides a critical comparative perspective on those debates The School World ,1901

Bondage of Boundaries and Identity Politics in Postcolonial Africa Ndlovu-Gatsheni, Sabelo J., Mhlanga, Brilliant, 2013-10-20 What has confounded African efforts to create cohesive prosperous and just states in postcolonial Africa What has been the long term impact of the Berlin Conference of 1884 5 on African unity and African statehood Why is postcolonial Africa haunted by various ethno national conflicts Is secession and irredentism the solution Can we talk of ethno futures for Africa These are the kinds of fundamental questions that this important book addresses Sabelo J Ndlovu Gatsheni and Brilliant Mhlanga s book introduces the metaphor of the northern problem to dramatise the fact that there is no major African postcolonial state that does not enclose within its borders a disgruntled minority that is complaining of marginalization domination and suppression The irony is that in 1963 at the formation of the OAU postcolonial African leaders embraced the boundaries arbitrarily drawn by European colonialists and institutionalised the principle of inviolability of bondage of boundaries thereby contributing to the problem of ethno national conflicts The successful struggle for independence of the Eritrean people and the secession of South Sudan in 2011 have encouraged other dominated and marginalised groups throughout Africa to view secession as an option Ndlovu Gatsheni and Mhlanga successfully assembled competent African scholars to deal exhaustively with various empirical cases of ethno national conflicts throughout the African continent as well as engaging with such pertinent issues as Pan Africanism as a panacea to these problems This important book delves deeper into complex issues of space languages conflict security nation building war on terror secession migration citizenship militias liberation violence and Pan Africanism

Curriculum Practice Martyn Hammersley, Andy Hargreaves, 2012-05-04 When first published this book was one of the first collections of empirical research in the area of the knowledge transmitted in schools and the responses of students to it It includes studies of the histories of particular school subjects and of how the knowledge they embody is presented in the classroom Attention is also given to the effects of gender stereotypes among teachers and pupils both on pupils selection of courses to study and on their reactions to particular subjects in the classroom The other major topic in this collection is the way external examinations shape the nature of the school curriculum and how it is taught There are studies of how pupils and teachers adapt to the exam system and of how that system and its role in the accountability of schools have changed in recent years The articles collected here throw into relief important aspects of what is taught in schools and they do this on the basis of a solid foundation of empirical research Journal of the Society of Arts Royal Society of Arts (Great Britain),1890 Proceedings of the High School Conference of November 1910-November 1931 ,1910
