(Re)Constructing Memory: Education, Identity, and Conflict Michelle J. Bellino,James H. Williams,2017-02-08 How do schools protect young people and call on the youngest citizens to respond to violent conflict and division operating outside and sometimes within school walls What kinds of curricular representations of conflict contribute to the construction of national identity and what kinds of encounters challenge presumed boundaries between us and them Through contemporary and historical case studies drawn from Cambodia Egypt Northern Ireland Peru and Rwanda among others this collection explores how societies experiencing armed conflict and its aftermath imagine education as a space for forging collective identity peace and stability and national citizenship In some contexts the erasure of conflict and the homogenization of difference are central to shaping national identities and attitudes In other cases collective memory of conflict functions as a central organizing frame through which citizenship and national identity are re constructed with embedded messages about who belongs and how social belonging is achieved The essays in this volume illuminate varied and complex inter relationships between education conflict and national identity while accounting for ways in which policymakers teachers youth and community members replicate resist and transform conflict through everyday interactions in educational spaces

The China Order Fei-Ling Wang,2017-08-07 Examines the rising power of China and Chinese foreign policy through a revisionist analysis of Chinese civilization What does the rise of China represent and how should the international community respond With a holistic rereading of Chinese longue dur e history Fei Ling Wang provides a simple but powerful framework for understanding the nature of persistent and rising Chinese power and its implications for the current global order He argues that the Chinese ideation and tradition of political governance and world order the China Order is based on an imperial state of Confucian Legalism as historically exemplified by the Qin Han polity Claiming a Mandate of Heaven to unify and govern the whole known world or tianxia all under heaven the China Order dominated Eastern Eurasia as a world empire for more than two millennia until the late nineteenth century Since 1949 the People s Republic of China has been a reincarnated Qin Han polity without the traditional China Order finding itself stuck in the endless struggle against the current world order and the ever changing Chinese society for its regime survival and security Wang also offers new discoveries and assessments about the true golden eras of Chinese civilization explains the great East West divergence between China and Europe and analyzes the China Dream that drives much of current Chinese foreign policy An original important well researched and powerfully argued exploration of the virtues and vices of the Chinese state from its ancient past to its likely future Edward Friedman University of Wisconsin Madison A masterpiece Wang provides a grand sweeping even epic review of two thousand years of Chinese history His argument is compelling and well documented the richness and variety of sources Chinese and English he cites is breathtaking The book is likely to end up on the reading list of every serious student of China s position in the world for many years to come Daniel C Lynch author of China s Futures PRC Elites Debate Economics Politics and Foreign Policy This imaginative and provocative grand tour of Chinese cosmological order and geopolitical strategy past and present is destined to become a classic Ming Xia author of The People s Congresses and Governance in China Toward a Network Mode of Governance The SAGE Handbook of Research on Teacher Education D.
