Dobson,John M. Sander,Judith Woodfield,2001 Meets the requirements of the Revised National Curriculum Integrated and continuous assessment Re capping and reinforcement throughout Homework and Assessment books that accompany the series contain guidance notes for assessments and provide photocopiable worksheets Support for differentiation Up to date information     Regional Worlds: Advancing the Geography of Regions Martin Jones,Ansari Paasi,2017-10-02 A key concern in the debate and empirical research on the geography of regions is the evolution of the conceptualizations and practical uses of the idea of region This idea prioritises both the intellectual and the practical development of regional studies This book drives the discussion further It stresses the complex forms of agency advocacy involved in the production and reproduction of regional spaces and space of regionalism as well as the importance of geohistory and context The book moves beyond the territorial relational divide that has characterized debates on regions and regional borders since the 1990s The contributors answer key questions from different conceptual and concrete contextual angles and to motivate readers to reflect on the perpetual significance of regional concepts and how they are mobilized by various actors to maintain or transform the contested spatialities of societal power relations This book was based on a special issue of Regional Studies

An analysis of microscale segregation and socio-economic sorting in Gauteng Christian Hamann,2024-04-30 This Occasional Paper analyses racial segregation and socio economic sorting in Gauteng at the microscale The three inquiries highlight continued segregation but also nuances in the nature of desegregation in the Gauteng province at various macro and microscales The analysis reveals barriers and opportunities for future spatial transformation and highlights the potential role of public and private housing expansion in shaping equality of opportunity The political economy of the Gauteng

City-Region Stephen Greenberg,2010-07-30 The Gauteng city region GCR is a relatively new concept for South Africa although the model has been growing in other parts of the world for over a decade This paper considers some of the global debates about the importance of city regions in the current economic and political context It provides an overview of the concept and the context within which it has been deployed Debates about the role of cities in the global economy are regarded Some critical reflections on the city region both conceptually and in practice are made along economic social ecological and governance dimensions This forms the backdrop for an analysis of the growth of the GCR again both conceptually and practically along the same dimensions with an emphasis on two key drivers of the city region transportation and housing settlement Interpellations, Questions and Replies of the National Assembly South Africa. Parliament

(1994- ). National Assembly,1997 Geography and the Human Experience ,2004 An Overview of Urban and Regional Planning Yasar Ergen,2018-12-19 Urban and regional planning is a spatial design practice that brings limitations to the intervention in natural areas to ensure a balance between population growth housing and employment in residential areas It includes spatial design that enables living creatures to live while planning the interventions to ensure suitability to ecology geology climate and land structure since intervention in nature should be balanced In this context the profession generally includes regional spatial and urban planning urban transformation that involves the urban decline areas in the city urban renewal and protection urban transportation and urban management Therefore it is believed that this book will be useful for those who work in this area on a practical or academic basis and follow the innovations in the profession

Report on Progress and Integrity of Senior Certificate Examination, 1996 South Africa. Office of the Public Protector,1997 The map of Gauteng: evolution of a city-region in concept and plan Allan Mabin,2013-07-26 The mission of the Gauteng City Region Observatory GCRO is to help illuminate trends and dynamics shaping the region of towns and cities in and around Gauteng and also enhance understanding of the idea of the Gauteng City Region GCR as a project a different way of thinking about and governing this space While much of the data collection and analysis work of the GCRO is focused on the present we also consider the city region s past and its possible futures A 2030 National Development Plan crafted by the National Planning Commission has recently been adopted In addition the Gauteng Provincial Government working with municipal partners and business civil society and labour stakeholders is drafting a G2055 long term development plan As our society looks forward to what sort of country and region we need to become it is also important to look backward Understanding the past gives us insights into how we have come to be where we are now and so in turn what paths we should tread into the future This Occasional Paper is one of two that GCRO has commissioned specifically to deepen our understanding of the past of the GCR Both focus on aspects of the region s spatial past and ought to be read together This paper by Alan Mabin explores how the idea of a city region found expression in various statutory planning frameworks over the course of the last century and how embryonic cityregion concepts influenced spatial decisions and developments The companion paper by Brian Mubiwa and Harold Annegarn considers the different but related issue of the actual historical spatial evolution of the GCR It examines key spatial changes that have shaped the region over a century and provides a remarkable picture based on satellite imagery of regional spatial growth in the last two decades South African national bibliography ,1997 Classified list with author and title index Unruly Cities? Chris Brook,Gerry Mooney,Steve Pile,2006-02 The text argues that cities are open to many forms of order and disorder both from within the city and outside They represent cities potentials as well as their problems It challenges the assumption that cities are threatened by disorder from below and that they might be ruled by order imposed from above The Condition of Primary and Secondary Education in Gauteng (1995/1996) Adél Hartley,1998 Debates of the National Assembly (Hansard) South Africa. Parliament (1994- ). National Assembly,1997 Human Settlement Development - Volume I Saskia Sassen,2009-09-30 Human Settlement Development is a component of Encyclopedia of Institutional and Infrastructural Resources in the global Encyclopedia of Life Support Systems EOLSS which is an integrated compendium of twenty one Encyclopedias The Theme on Human Settlement Development deals in nine parts and four volumes with a myriad of issues of great relevance to our world such as Urban Sustainability and the Regional City System in the Asia Pacific Peri Urbanization Zones of Rural Urban Transition Urban Sustainability Theoretical Perspectives on Integrating Economic Development and the Environment Rural Sustainability Using Foreign Direct Investment to Improve Urban Environmental Infrastructure and Services The Case of Hanoi Vietnam The Long Road Towards Sustainable Cities The Dutch case Urban Dimensions of Sustainable Development Rural Development Participation and Diversity for Sustainability The Cities the State and the Markets In Search of Sustainability These four volumes are aimed at the following five major target audiences University and College students Educators Professional practitioners Research personnel and Policy analysts managers and decision makers and NGOs Drum ,2006 Johannesburg and its epidemics Philip Harrison,2020-11-30 This historical account of the epidemics that have struck Johannesburg during its 134 year history is written with the burden of the present On 31 December 2019 the World Health Organization WHO reported a cluster of pneumonia cases in Wuhan China and shortly afterwards confirmed that a previously unknown coronavirus was the cause The disease was labelled Coronavirus Disease 2019 Covid 19 and spread globally in the early months of 2020 Just faith Stephan de Beer,2018-12-01 The purpose of this scholarly book is to expand the body of knowledge available on urban theology It introduces readers to the concept of planetary urbanisation with the view of deepening an understanding of urbanisation and its all pervasive impact on the planet people and places from a theological perspective A critical theological reading of the urban is also provided deliberating on bridging the divide between voices from the Global South and the Global North In doing so this book simultaneously seeks out robust and dynamic faith constructs expressed in various forms and embodiments of justice The methodology chosen transcended narrow disciplinary boundaries situating reflections between and across disciplines in the interface between scholarly reflection and an activist faith as well as between local rootedness and global connectedness This was facilitated by the collected gathering of authors spanning all continents various Christian faith traditions and multiple disciplines as well as a range of methodological approaches The book endeavours to contribute to knowledge production in a number of ways Firstly it suggests the inadequacy of most dominant faith expressions in the face of all pervasive forces of urbanisation and it also provides clues as to the possibility of fostering potent alternative imaginaries Secondly it explores a decolonial faith that is expressed in various forms of justice It is an attempt to offer concrete embodiments of what such a faith could look like in the context of planetary urbanisation Thirdly the book does not focus on one specific urban challenge or mode of ministry but rather introduces the concept of planetary urbanisation and then offers critical lenses with which to interrogate its consequences and challenges It considers concrete and liberating faith constructs in areas ranging from gender race economic inequality a solidarity economics and housing to urban violence indigeneity and urbanisation the interface between economic and environmental sustainability and grass roots theological education
