Geography Memo 2014 Paper 1:

Red, White, and Black Robert L. Woodson, Sr., 2021-05-11 In the rush to redefine the place of black Americans in contemporary society many radical activists and academics have mounted a campaign to destroy traditional American history and replace it with a politicized version that few would recognize According to the new radical orthodoxy the United States was founded as a racist nation and everything that has happened throughout our history must be viewed through the lens of the systemic oppression of black people Rejecting this false narrative a collection of the most prominent and respected black scholars and thinkers has come together to correct the record and tell the true story of black Americans in all its complexity diversity of experience and poignancy Collectively they paint a vivid picture of black people living the grand American experience however bumpy the road may be along the way But rather than a people apart blacks are woven into the united whole that makes this nation unique in history Featuring Essays by John Sibley Butler Jason D Hill Coleman Cruz Hughes John McWhorter Clarence Page Wilfred Reilly Shelby Steele Carol M Swain Dean Nelson Charles Love Rev Corey Brook Stephen L Harris Harold A Black Stephanie Deutsch Yaya J Fanusie Ian Rowe John Wood Jr Joshua Mitchell Robert Cherry Rev DeForest Black Soaries Jr Origination Andy Pike, 2015-06-02 Origination The Geographies of Brands and Branding offers innovative theoretical and conceptual frameworks relating to the ways that actors create meaning and value in commodity brands and branding through processes of geographical association Provides innovative conceptualization and theorization to facilitate an understanding of the geographical dimensions of brands and branding Challenges current interpretations of brands as vehicles of homogenization in globalization Establishes the theoretical and conceptual foundations of a more geographically sensitive approach through rigorous empirical examination of the under researched geographical differentiation of commodity brands and branding Presents innovative new research and analysis of the socio spatial biographies of the Newcastle Brown Ale Burberry and Apple brands Forges strong new connections between political and cultural economy approaches within geography Provides a distinctive and incisive conceptual and theoretical framework capable of engaging other branded commodities and their branding in other times and places The Drone Memos Jameel Jaffer, 2010-01-12 A trenchant summation and analysis of the legal rationales behind the US drone policy of targeted killing of suspected terrorists including US citizens Publishers Weekly starred review In the long response to 9 11 the US government initiated a deeply controversial policy of targeted killing the extrajudicial execution of suspected terrorists and militants typically via drones A remarkable effort was made to legitimize this practice one that most human rights experts agree is illegal and that the United States has historically condemned In The Drone Memos civil rights lawyer Jameel Jaffer presents and assesses the legal memos and policy documents that enabled the Obama administration to put this program into action In a lucid and provocative introduction Jaffer who led the ACLU legal team that secured the release of many of the documents evaluates the drone memos in light of domestic and international law He connects the documents legal abstractions to the real world violence they allow and makes the case that we are trading core principles of democracy and human rights for the illusion of security A careful study of a secretive counterterrorism infrastructure capable of sustaining endless orderless war this book is profoundly necessary Katrina vanden Heuvel editor and publisher of The Nation

Asymmetric Crisis in Europe and Possible Futures Johannes Jäger, Elisabeth Springler, 2015-04-10 The crisis in Europe is often discussed as a crisis of European integration or a crisis of national economies within Europe Both the methodological Europeanism and methodological nationalism miss out the important links between economic and political processes at different spatial scales within Europe and therefore asymmetries and phenomena of uneven development In addition a discussion of possible scenarios which systematically addresses the implications of anti crisis policies is missing This volume seeks to close this gap by systematically integrating the analysis of economic policy or technical solutions to the crisis within a broader framework of political economy It argues that combining critical political economy approaches and post Keynesian perspectives allows for a systematic understanding of the economic and political dimensions of the crisis Although both approaches have the capacity to deal with asymmetries and uneven development the heterogeneity in Europe has been an often largely neglected dimension of analysis However this recent crisis has shown that this is an essential dimension which has to be addressed in order to better understand the dynamics of European development and integration Hence this book aims to deal with asymmetries in Europe and to bridge the gap between the two perspectives This work will initiate an integrative debate that is crucial for a deeper understanding of the current crisis and is an important resource for all students and scholars of IPE European political economy and European politics

Economic Aspects of Genocides, Other Mass Atrocities, and Their Prevention Charles H. Anderton, Jurgen Brauer, 2016-05-09 Alongside other types of mass atrocities genocide has received extensive scholarly policy and practitioner attention Missing however is the contribution of economists to better understand and prevent such crimes This edited collection by 41 accomplished scholars examines economic aspects of genocides other mass atrocities and their prevention Chapters include numerous case studies e g California s Yana people Australia s Aborigines peoples Stalin s killing of Ukrainians Belarus the Holocaust Rwanda DR Congo Indonesia Pakistan Colombia Mexico s drug wars and the targeting of suspects during the Vietnam war probing literature reviews and completely novel work based on extraordinary country specific datasets Also included are chapters on the demographic gendered and economic class nature of genocide Replete with research and policy relevant findings new insights are derived from behavioral economics law and economics political economy macroeconomic modeling microeconomics development economics industrial organization identity economics and other fields Analytical approaches include constrained optimization theory game theory and sophisticated statistical work in data mining econometrics and forecasting A foremost finding of the book concerns atrocity architects purposeful strategic use of violence often manipulating nonrational proclivities among ordinary people to sway their participation in mass murder Relatively understudied in the literature the book also analyzes the options of victims before during and after mass violence Further the book shows how well intended prevention efforts can backfire and increase violence how wrong post genocide design can entrench vested interests to reinforce exclusion of vulnerable peoples and how businesses can become complicit in genocide In addition to the necessity of healthy opportunities in employment education and key sectors in prevention work the book shows why new genocide prevention laws and institutions must be based on reformulated incentives that consider insights from law and economics behavioral economics and collective action economics

Assembling Bus Rapid Transit in the Global South

Malve Jacobsen,2020-12-13 This book explores the mobile ethnography of Dar es Salaam where consultants and politicians have planned and implemented a bus rapid transit BRT system for two decades It analyses the dual processes of assembling BRT in the Tanzanian metropolis and establishing BRT as a policy model of and for the Global South The book elucidates how policy models are constructed and circulated around the globe and depicts the processes by which they are translated between and materialise within specific contexts It presents the case of BRT to demonstrate how technocrats shape these processes through persuasive work aimed at disseminating and stabilising this transport model and how local actors influence its adaptation in Dar es Salaam The book adopts a double mobility approach to show how this ethnography follows travelling consultants circulating policies and moving buses to explore the fluidity of the BRT model Linking key debates in policy mobility studies and Science and Technology Studies enriched with postcolonial perspectives and geographies of transport and infrastructure it offers new insights into the technopolitics of planning and implementing infrastructure systems This book will appeal to academics and students of human geography transport studies science and technology studies and African and development studies interested in the technopolitics of transport planning

Taken For A Ride

Matteo Rizzo,2017-05-19 How does public transport work in an African city under neoliberalism Who owns what in it Who has the power to influence its shape and changes in it over time What does it mean to be a precarious and informal worker in the private minibuses that provide public transport in Dar es Salaam These are the main questions that inform this in depth case study of Dar es Salaam s public transport system over more than forty years The growth of cities and informal economies are two central manifestations of globalization in the developing world Taken for a Ride addresses both drawing on long term fieldwork in Dar es Salaam Tanzania and charting its public transport system s journey from public to private provision This new addition to the Critical Frontiers of Theory Research and Practice in International Development Studies series investigates this shift alongside the increasing deregulation of the sector and the resulting chaotic modality of public transport It reviews state attempts to regain control over public transport and documents how informal wage relations prevailed in the sector The changing political attitude of workers towards employers and the state is investigated from an initial incapacity to respond to exploitation to the political organisation and unionisation which won workers concessions on labour rights A longitudinal study of workers throws light on patterns of occupational mobility in the sector and the political and economic interests that shaped the introduction of Bus Rapid Transit in Dar es Salaam and local resistance to it are analysed Taken for a Ride reveals the political economy of public transport exposing the limitations of market fundamentalist and post colonial scholarship on economic informality the urban experience in developing countries and the failure to locate the agency of the urban poor within their economic and political structures It is both a contribution and a call for the contextualised study of actually existing neoliberalism Routledge Handbook of Asian Demography Zhongwei Zhao, Adrian C. Hayes, 2017-12-14 Home to close to 60 per cent of the world's population Asia is the largest and by far the most populous continent It is also extremely diverse physically and culturally Asian countries and regions have their own distinctive histories cultural traditions religious beliefs and political systems and they have often pursued different routes to development Asian populations also present a striking array of demographic characteristics and stages of demographic transition This handbook is the first to provide a comprehensive study of population change across the whole of Asia Comprising 28 chapters by more than 40 international experts this handbook examines demographic transitions on the continent their considerable variations their causes and consequences and their relationships with a wide range of social economic political and cultural processes Major topics covered include population studies and sources of demographic data historical demography family planning and fertility decline sex preferences mortality changes causes of death HIV AIDS population distribution and migration urbanization marriage and family human capital and labour force population ageing demographic dividends political demography population and environment and Asia's demographic future This handbook provides an authoritative and comprehensive reference for researchers policymakers academics students and anyone who is interested in population change in Asia and the world Clusters, Digital Transformation and Regional Development in Germany Marta Götz, 2021-04-11 The information age is reshaping current socio economic structures and processes and this book touches upon the nature of clusters in the fourth industrial revolution Industry 4.0 It focuses on the spatial perspective of digital business transformation and explores in natural context the interrelations between cluster and Industry 4.0 It investigates the role of knowledge business relations and policy in making cluster relevant for Industry 4.0 and uses the case study method and literature review to develop a conceptual framework outlining the functioning of Industry 4.0 cluster This book argues that locally embedded knowledge accompanied by strong presence of industry and assisted by proper governance management facilitate the implementation of Industry 4.0 The idiosyncrasies of Industry 4.0 impact also the functioning of cluster as they require more interdisciplinary integrative approach with the provision of industrial commons and development of related varieties Natural processes of stretching of the cluster cannot be prevented but should be harnessed for upgrading the core competences of cluster This book can enrich existing literature on economic geography and regional studies by discussing the spatial aspects of digital transformation It shows the cluster transformation as induced by the digital transformation and will be of interest to researchers academics policymakers and students who explore the regional and local development competitiveness or managerial aspects of fourth industrial revolution
