Transboundary Water Management Anton Earle, 2013 The management of water resources across boundaries whether sub national or international is one of the most difficult challenges facing water managers today The upstream exploitation or diversion of groundwater or rivers can have devastating consequences for those living downstream and transboundary rivers can provide a source of conflict between nations or states particularly where water resources are scarce Similarly water based pollution can spread across borders and create disputes and a need for sound governance This book is the first to bring together in a concise and accessible way all of the main topics to be considered when managing transboundary waters It will raise the awareness of practitioners of the various issues needed to be taken into account when making water management decisions and provide a practically based overview for advanced students The authors show clearly how vital it is to cooperate effectively over the management of shared waters to unlock their contribution to regional sustainable development The book is largely based on a long running and tested international training programme run by the Stockholm International Water Institute and Ramboll Natura and supported by the Swedish International Development Co operation Agency Sida where the respective authors have presented modules on the programmes It addresses issues not only of conflict but also of managing power asymmetries benefit sharing stakeholder participation international water law environmental water requirements and regional development It will be particularly useful for those with a background in hydrology or engineering who wish to broaden their management skills Armed Groups and Contemporary Conflicts

Keith Krause, 2013-09-13 Armed groups operating beyond the state have become the most important actors in most contemporary wars and violent conflicts from Iraq and Afghanistan to Colombia and Somalia They come in a dizzying array of forms some informally linked to the state and state power others in opposition to the state some pursuing classic political goals others primarily predatory and large scale criminal enterprises All groups however challenge the state s Weberian monopoly of the legitimate use of force yet their origins evolution violent dynamics and relations with state power are poorly understood This interdisciplinary collection includes both conceptual and empirical studies of contemporary armed groups examining cases in Latin America Asia and Africa It brings sociological political economy and ethnographic approaches to bear on larger questions including armed groups and the changing nature of warfare the economic dimensions of their activities and means of engagement with armed actors It both broadens and sharpens our understanding of how force and violence are used in today's contemporary armed conflicts This book was published as a special issue of Contemporary Security Policy

The Physical Geography of the Mediterranean Jamie C. Woodward, 2009-05-07 This volume explores the climates landscapes ecosystems and hazards that comprise the Mediterranean world It traces the development of the Mediterranean landscape over very long timescales and examines modern processes and key environmental issues in a wide range of settings The Mediterranean is the only region on Earth where three continents meet and this interaction has produced a very distinctive Physical Geography This book examines the landscapes and processes at the margins of these continents and the distinctive marine environment between them Catastrophic earthquakes explosive volcanic eruptions and devastating storms and floods are intimately bound up within the history and mythology of the Mediterranean world This is a key region for the study of natural hazards because it offers unrivalled access to long records of hazard occurrence and impact through documentary archaeological and geological archives The Mediterranean is also a biodiversity hotspot it has been a meeting place for plants animals and humans from three continents throughout much of its history The Quaternary records of these interactions are more varied and better preserved than in any other part of the world These records have provided important new insights into the tempo of climate landscape and ecosystem change in the Mediterranean region and beyond The region is unique because of the very early and widespread impact of humans in landscape and ecosystem change and the richness of the archaeological and geological archives that chronicle this impact This book examines this history and these interactions and places current environmental issues in long term context Contributors Ramadan Husain Abu Zied Harriet Allen Jacques Blondel Maria Carmen Llasat James Casford Marc Castellnou Andrew Goudie Andrew Harding Angela Hayes Tom Holt Babette Hoogakker Philip Hughes Jos Lelieveld John Lewin Francisco Lloret Francisco Lopez Bermudez Mark Macklin Jean Margat Anne Mather Frédéric Maudoulet Christophe Morhange Clive Oppenheimer Jean Palutikof Gerassimos Papadopoulos Josep Piol David Pyle Jane Reed Neil Roberts Eelco Rohling Iain Stewart Stathis Stiros John Thornes Chronis Tzedakis John Wainwright

Regional Worlds: Advancing the Geography of Regions Martin Jones, Anssi

Paasi, 2017-10-02 A key concern in the debate and empirical research on the geography of regions is the evolution of the conceptualizations and practical uses of the idea of region This idea prioritises both the intellectual and the practical development of regional studies This book drives the discussion further It stresses the complex forms of agency advocacy involved in the production and reproduction of regional spaces and space of regionalism as well as the importance of geohistory and context The book moves beyond the territorial relational divide that has characterized debates on regions and regional borders since the 1990s The contributors answer key questions from different conceptual and concrete contextual angles and to motivate readers to reflect on the perpetual significance of regional concepts and how they are mobilized by various actors to maintain or transform the contested spatialities of societal power relations This book was based on a special issue of Regional Studies

In the Studio Brian R. Jacobson, 2020-07-21 Studios are at once material environments and symbolic forms sites of artistic creation and physical labor and nodes in networks of resource circulation They are architectural places that generate virtual spaces worlds built to build worlds Yet despite being icons of corporate identity studios have faded into the background of critical discourse and into the margins of film and media history In response In the Studio demonstrates that when we foreground these worlds we gain new insights into moving image culture and the dynamics that quietly mark the worlds on our screens Spanning the twentieth century and moving globally this unique collection tells new stories about studio icons Pinewood Cinecitt Churubusco and CBS as well as about the experimental workplaces of filmmakers and artists from Aleksandr Medvedkin to Charles and Ray Eames and Hollis Frampton Subject Index to Periodicals , 2009

Averting Crisis in Ukraine Steven Pifer, 2009 This Council Special Report commissioned by CFR s Center for Preventive Action takes all these issues into account and examines the many challenges facing Ukraine The report comprehensively analyzes the country s difficulties related to both domestic conditions for example fractious politics and deeply divided public opinion and foreign policy for example issues related to the Black Sea Fleet and Ukrainian and European dependence on Russia s natural gas The report then recommends ways for the United States to encourage Ukraine on a path of stability and integration with the West It proposes measures to bolster high level dialogue between Washington and Kiev foster effective governance in Ukraine and reduce Ukraine s susceptibility to Russian pressure On the crucial NATO question the report urges the United States to support continued Ukrainian integration with the alliance though it recommends waiting to back concrete steps toward membership until Kiev achieves consensus on this point One need not agree with this judgment to find Pifer s analysis of value Averting Crisis in Ukraine takes a clear eyed look at the issues that could cause instability or worse in Ukraine But it also recommends practical steps that could increase the prospect that Ukraine will enjoy a prosperous democratic and independent future

Globalization and Common Responsibilities of States Koen De Feyter, 2017-05-15 There is a growing awareness that international law insufficiently protects common global interests and that States and non State actors need to work together to protect global aims The focus of this book is on the different fields of international law where there is a need for global cooperation to achieve common aims for example the law of the sea protection of world cultural heritage sustainable development biological diversity and climate change human rights and international crimes The volume also identifies the legal developments which have taken place for example treaties which use the language of common heritage of mankind or common concern of humanity thereby identifying global concerns and reflecting a global set of values and interests independent of the interests of States

Governing Global Production J. Wilson, 2013-02-04 Northeast Asian steel industries have developed global production networks but by spanning multiple national spaces these networks unite many national economies while belonging exclusively to none Who therefore is in control Jeffrey D Wilson examines how states and firms coordinate their activities to govern global production

International Maritime Transport Costs Gordon Wilmsmeier, 2016-04-22 Based on in depth empirical research this book develops our understanding of maritime transport costs the maritime industry and the competitiveness of regions in a global market environment through a geographical lens Further the book uses a unique set of data that gives an extensive insight into Latin American international maritime transport costs and its determinants This is a clear call for policy makers and port authorities to strengthen transnational cooperation in order to improve the development of the whole system of maritime transport focusing on the causes that put regions at risk of becoming peripheral and uncompetitive

HIV/AIDS and the South African State Annamarie Bindenagel Šehovi?, 2016-04-22 For three decades post apartheid the HIV AIDS epidemic from first acknowledgement to its management as a chronic disease demanded unparalleled attention This was nowhere more evident than in South Africa This book explores how the state responded to its responsibilities to defend and protect human security Linking this to the role of the state as sovereign protector and provider of security it applies the findings to the broader re interpretation of sovereign responsibility in the 21st Century This book does not seek to absolve the South African state of its responsibility to respond Moreover it argues that although the state the government before during and after the transition to democracy was aware of and acknowledged the threat political economic and social posed by the epidemic it nonetheless chose not to make the epidemic a priority policy issue As a result it argues that the South African HIV AIDS case illustrates the tension inherent between a state s ultimate sovereign responsibility to respond and its tactical dependence on external contributors to meet the demands of all of its constituents

Presidential Elections Nelson W. Polsby, Aaron Wildavsky, Steven E. Schier, David A. Hopkins, 2011-08-16 Brimming with data and examples from the historic 2008 election and laced with previews of 2012 the thirteenth edition of this classic text offers a complete overview of the presidential election process from the earliest straw polls and fundraisers to final voter turnout and exit interviews The newest edition s comprehensive coverage includes campaign strategy with overviews of the changes in campaign finance and the growing role of the Internet. Also the thirteenth edition explores the effect of the forward creeping presidential nomination process and the sequence of electoral events. All of these aspects and the issues themselves are discussed by a wide array of actors in the electoral process: voters, interest groups, political parties, the media, and the candidates themselves. In the final pages, the authors take a broader view of the American political system and ongoing pressure to reform its institutions in order to address perceived imperfections in the electoral process. The thirteenth edition is a timely update to this essential text on American elections.

Urban and Regional Planning and Development Rajiv R. Thakur, Ashok K. Dutt, Sudhir K. Thakur, George M. Pomeroy, 2020-02-10 This book discusses urban planning and regional development practices in the twentieth century and ways in which they are currently being transformed. It addresses questions such as: What are the factors affecting planning dynamics at local, regional, national, and global scales? With the push to adopt a market paradigm in land development and infrastructure, the relationship between resource management, sustainable development, and the role of governance has been transformed. Centralized planning is giving way to privatization, not only in the traditional regions but also in newly emerging regions of Asia, Africa, and Latin America. Further attempts are being made to bring planning-related decision making closer to the people who are most affected by it. Presenting a collection of studies from scholars around the world and highlighting recent advances in the field, the book is a valuable reference guide for those engaged in urban transformations, whether as graduate students, researchers, practitioners, or policymakers.
