Decolonising Geography? Disciplinary Histories and the End of the British Empire in Africa, 1948-1998 Ruth Craggs, Hannah Neate, 2023-10-16 DECOLONISING GEOGRAPHY This book presents an extraordinarily sensitive account of geography's histories in five African countries subjected to British colonial rule. Craggs and Neate draw together political and imaginative processes of decolonisation through an innovative biographical approach that humanizes and enlivens the story of our academic discipline. It will be an invaluable resource for those seeking a deeper understanding of decolonisation, its recent trajectories and far-reaching implications on the African continent. Shari Daya Affiliate Associate Professor in Environmental and Geographical Science, University of Cape Town. By placing the experiences, ideas and practices of African geographers in the center of their analyses, Craggs and Neate provide an unprecedented account of historical and contemporary decolonizing struggles within Geography and the academy. This book should be required reading for all those looking to decolonize the discipline and dislodge it from its Global North histories, institutions and ideologies. Mona Domosh, Professor of Geography, The Joan P and Edward J Foley Jr 1933 Professor, Dartmouth College. This meticulous work explores how colonialism, decolonization and postcolonialism shaped African geography and geographers. It sheds light on efforts to Africanize the discipline, a process which I was both witness to and a participant in. Stanley Okafor, Professor of Geography, Retired, University of Ibadan. How did a generation of academic geographers engage with constitutional decolonisation during the end of the British empire in Africa? In Decolonising Geography: Disciplinary Histories and the End of the British Empire in Africa 1948-1998, Ruth Craggs and Hannah Neate explore how the teaching, research, administration and activism of geographers in Africa shaped the discipline and the post-colonial geopolitics of the continent. The authors follow the professional lives of individual geographers to provide fresh insights into decolonisation in the former British Empire in Africa, drawing from extensive archival research and more than 40 oral history interviews with geographers in Ghana, Nigeria, South Africa, Tanzania and the UK. Decolonising Geography is a must-read for any reader in the UK and Africa with an interest in the relationships between geography and decolonisation.

The Drone Debate Avery Plaw, Matthew S. Fricker, Carlos Colon, 2015-12-24 The Drone Debate offers a thorough investigation of the where, why, how and when of the US's use of UAVs. Beginning with a historical overview of the use of drones in warfare, it then addresses whether targeted killing operations are strategically wise, whether they are permissible under international law and the related ethical issues. It also looks at the political factors behind the use of drones, including domestic and global attitudes toward their use and potential issues of proliferation and escalation. Finally, the use of drones by other countries such as Israel and China is examined. Each chapter features a case study that highlights particular incidents and patterns of operation in specific regions, including Yemen, Somalia, Pakistan and Libya, and strike types: signature strikes, personality strikes, etc.

Cyberwarfare Mike Chapple, David Seidl, 2014-07-31 This book reviews the role that cyberwarfare plays in modern military operations.

in which it has become almost impossible to separate cyberwarfare from traditional warfare Key features include incorporation of hands on activities relevant examples and realistic exercises to prepare readers for their future careers examination of the importance of information as a military asset from the days of Sun Tzu and Julius Caesar to the present discussion of cyberwarfare in light of the law of war and international conventions and the new questions it is raising a review of the various methods of attack used in recent years by both nation state and nonstate actors outlines of strategies for defending endpoints networks and data offering of predictions on the future of cyberwarfare and its interaction with military doctrine provision of fresh capabilities due to information drawn from the Snowden NSA leaks Structural

Transformation and Economic Development Banji Oyelaran-Oyeyinka,Kaushalesh Lal,2016-09-13 This book examines long term structural changes and the broad impact on economic development in regional comparative perspectives The book analyzes data across Africa Asia and Latin America It looks at key variables of productivity growth industrialization poverty urbanization and employment This book is concerned with understanding structural change dynamics and how it affects job creation living standards and the efficiency of productive cities through manufacturing productivity growth that benefits majority of citizens With empirical evidence from a selected number of developing countries including China India Brazil Nigeria and South Africa the book attempts to present the considerable structural changes of these countries over the last few decades It highlights that growth without the expected job creation is one of the distinct features of growth in emerging and developing countries It suggests that countries may well record economic growth whether through within sector productivity increase or through structural change but this may not necessarily lead to employment an important concern for long term development Deepening Neoliberalism, Austerity, and Crisis Julien Mercille,Enda Murphy,2015-07-07

From bank bailouts to austerity Europe s and Ireland s response to the economic crisis has been engineered specifically to shift the burden of paying for the crisis onto ordinary citizens while investors financiers bankers and the privileged are protected The authors expose the class based nature of Ireland s crisis resolution Post-Soviet Power Susanne A. Wengle,2015-02-05 Post Soviet Power tells the story of the Russian electricity system and examines the politics of its transformation from a ministry to a market Susanne A Wengle shifts our focus away from what has been at the center of post Soviet political economy corruption and the lack of structural reforms to draw attention to political struggles to establish a state with the ability to govern the economy She highlights the importance of hands on economic planning by authorities post Soviet developmentalism and details the market mechanisms that have been created This book argues that these observations urge us to think of economies and political authority as mutually constitutive in Russia and beyond Whereas political science often thinks of market arrangements resulting from political institutions Russia s marketization demonstrates that political status is also produced by the market arrangements that actors create Taking this reflexivity seriously suggests a view of economies and markets as constructed and contingent entities Examining the Intersection of Circular Economy, Forestry, and International Trade Gopalakrishnan, Badri Narayanan, Duggal, Taranjeet, Tewary, Tavishi, 2021-01-22 Sustainable development has always been a contested concept and has been extensively debated over the last 30 years with new classifications arising since then There was a previous push for the radical transformations of the market economy to downscale production and consumption that would increase human well being and enhance ecological conditions Because of this conflict there was a need for a new model that challenges and could be the alternative for the linear economy this new model is called the circular economy A circular economy aimed at eliminating waste and the continual use of resources It gained its ground in the era of disruptive technological advancement and a dynamic global value chain By supporting resource efficient industrial models the circular economy preserves and improves natural capital optimizes the value of resources and abolishes negative environmental externalities such as pollution Examining the Intersection of Circular Economy Forestry and International Trade explores the link between the circular economy and various aspects of the business and environment to understand the usage and viability of adapting the circular economy from a business perspective The chapters highlight the transition to the circular economy its implementation across society its intersection with forestry and international trade and the solutions and challenges of the circular economy This book is aimed at researchers in the field of business management economics and environmental studies along with practitioners stakeholders researchers academicians and students looking for more information on the various fields impacting the circular economy as well as the implementation usage and viability of a widespread adoption of a circular economy Red, White, and Black Robert L. Woodson, Sr., 2021-05-11 In the rush to redefine the place of black Americans in contemporary society many radical activists and academics have mounted a campaign to destroy traditional American history and replace it with a politicized version that few would recognize According to the new radical orthodoxy the United States was founded as a racist nation and everything that has happened throughout our history must be viewed through the lens of the systemic oppression of black people Rejecting this false narrative a collection of the most prominent and respected black scholars and thinkers has come together to correct the record and tell the true story of black Americans in all its complexity diversity of experience and poignancy Collectively they paint a vivid picture of black people living the grand American experience however bumpy the road may be along the way But rather than a people apart blacks are woven into the united whole that makes this nation unique in history Featuring Essays by John Sibley Butler Jason D Hill Coleman Cruz Hughes John McWhorter Clarence Page Wilfred Reilly Shelby Steele Carol M Swain Dean Nelson Charles Love Rev Corey Brook Stephen L Harris Harold A Black Stephanie Deutsch Yaya J Fanusie Ian Rowe John Wood Jr Joshua Mitchell Robert Cherry Rev DeForest Black Soaries Jr The State of African Cities, 2014 United Nations Human Settlements Programme, 2013 Nairobi UN Habitat c2014 9789211325980 When the President Calls Simon W. The State of African Cities, 2014 United Nations Publications, 2015-09-10 The African continent is currently in the midst of simultaneously unfolding and highly significant demographic economic technological environmental urban and socio political transitions Africa s economic performance is promising with booming cities supporting growing middle classes and creating sizable consumer markets Despite significant overall growth the continent continues to suffer under very rapid urban growth accompanied by massive urban poverty and many other social problems These seem to indicate that the development trajectories followed by African nations since post independence may not be able to deliver on the aspirations of broad based human development and prosperity for all This report therefore argues for a bold re imagining of prevailing models in order to steer the ongoing transitions towards greater sustainability based on a thorough review of all available options That is especially the case since the already daunting urban challenges in Africa are now being exacerbated by the new vulnerabilities and threats associated with climate and environmental change

Deterrence, Coercion, and Appeasement David French,2022 A compelling and original survey of British grand strategy in the inter war period underlining the inexorable relationships between foreign policy grand strategy military force intelligence finance and not least domestic politics and public opinion

America's Moment: Creating Opportunity in the Connected Age Rework America,2015-06-15 It is time for a new conversation Amid the biggest economic transformation in a century the challenge of our time is to make sure that all Americans benefit from the wave of digital revolutions around the world that have permeated and upended modern life Yet today s economic arguments seem stuck We need a new vision of a hopeful future and a new action agenda So many Americans are uncertain about the future How can there be so many paths to opportunity with so few people traveling them As a nation we have to understand what is required to help Americans succeed now and how to prepare our country for what comes next We have been here before A hundred years ago America experienced the greatest economic transformation and technological revolution in its history The transformation of the past twenty years as the world has moved through the information era into the digital age has turned our life and work upside down once again It is a time of tremendous change but also of tremendous possibility Rework America is a group of American leaders who know from experience the challenges we face and the potential solutions In America s Moment they suggest a practical agenda for an exciting future It is illustrated by people who are already showing the way and includes actions Americans can take today in their own communities preparing people to succeed using the reach of the Internet and data to innovate jobs and to reach new markets all over the world using technology to match employers and workers and transitioning to a no collar working world neither blue collar nor white collar Set against the history of how Americans succeeded once before in remaking their country America s Moment is about the future It describes how the same forces of change technology and a networked world can become tools that can open opportunity to everyone

Constructing Nationalism in Iran Meir Litvak,2017-04-21 Nationalism has played an important role in the cultural and intellectual discourse of modernity that emerged in Iran from the late nineteenth century to the present promoting new formulations of collective identity and advocating a new and more active role for the broad strata of the public in politics The essays in this volume seek to shed light on the construction of nationalism in Iran in its many manifestations cultural social political and ideological by exploring on going debates on this important and progressive topic supported by established welfare state institutions In this timely book Maurizio Ferrera Joan Mir and Stefano Ronchi propose critical social and institutional policy reform in response to the nation state's inability to maintain a balanced ecosystem between democracy the market economy welfare and the rule of law Integrating Food into Urban Planning Yves

Cabannes, Cecilia Marocchino, 2018-11-22 The integration of food into urban planning is a crucial and emerging topic Urban planners alongside the local and regional authorities that have traditionally been less engaged in food related issues are now asked to take a central and active part in understanding how food is produced processed packaged transported marketed consumed disposed of and recycled in our cities While there is a growing body of literature on the topic the issue of planning cities in such a way they will increase food security and nutrition not only for the affluent sections of society but primarily for the poor is much less discussed and much less informed by practices This volume a collaboration between the Bartlett Development Planning Unit at UCL and the Food Agricultural Organisation aims to fill this gap by putting more than 20 city based experiences in perspective including studies from Toronto New York City Portland and Providence in North America Milan in Europe and Cape Town in Africa Belo Horizonte and Lima in South America and in Asia Bangkok and Tokyo By studying and comparing cities of different sizes from both the Global North and South in developed and developing regions the contributors collectively argue for the importance and circulation of global knowledge rooted in local food planning practices programmes and policies A Global Idea Mayssoun Sukarieh, 2023-08-15 A Global Idea outlines how youth as shown by the Arab Spring uprisings and subsequent state responses became a prominent social and political category during the first two decades of the twenty first century in the Middle East Drawing on ethnographic fieldwork interview data and textual analysis Mayssoun Sukarieh explains that the spread of youth as an important category is linked to the operation of a global youth development complex a diverse transnational network of state private sector civil society and international development aid organizations that worked through key urban areas such as Washington DC Amman and Dubai In its analysis of the arrival extension and embedding of the youth development complex in the Middle East during this period A Global Idea addresses a broader question that is of global and not just regional concern How are certain ideas that are central to the working and reproduction of global capitalism able to travel the world so that they are found virtually everywhere Histories of Technology, the Environment and Modern Britain Jon Agar, Jacob Ward, 2018-04-09 Histories of Technology the Environment and Modern Britain brings together historians with a wide range of interests to take a uniquely wide lens view of how technology and the environment have been intimately and irreversibly entangled in Britain over the last 300 years It combines for the first time two perspectives with much to say about Britain since the industrial revolution the history of technology and environmental history Technologies are modified environments just as nature is to varying extents engineered Furthermore technologies and our living and non living environment are both predominant material forms of organisation and self organisation that surround and make us Both have changed over time in intersecting ways

Technologies discussed in the collection include bulldozers submarine cables automobiles flood barriers medical devices museum displays and biotechnologies Environments investigated include bogs cities farms places of natural beauty and pollution land and sea The book explores this diversity but also offers an integrated framework for understanding these intersections

Western Kentucky University Lowell H. Harrison, 2014-10-17 Most Hilltoppers believe that Western Kentucky University is unique They take pride in its lovely campus its friendly spirit the loyalty of its alumni and its academic and athletic achievements But Western's development also illustrates a major trend in American higher education during the past century Scores of other institutions have followed the Western pattern growing from private normal school to state normal school to teachers college to general college finally emerging as an important state university Historian Lowell Harrison traces the Western story from the school's origin in 1875 to the January 1986 election of its seventh president For much of its history Western has been led by paternalistic presidents whose major battles have been with other state schools and parsimonious legislatures In recent years the presidents have been challenged by students and faculty who have demanded more active roles in university governance and by a Board of Regents and the Council on Higher Education which have raised challenging new issues Harrison's account of the institution's development is laced with anecdotes and vignettes of some of the school's interesting personalities President Henry Hardin Cherry whose chapel talks convinced countless students that the Spirit Makes the Master Uncle Ed Diddle whose flying towel and winning teams earned national basketball fame Daddy Burton who could catch flies while lecturing Miss Gabie Robertson who held students into the next class period the lone Japanese student who was on campus during World War II Harrison also recalls steamboat excursions the Great Depression and the Second World War the astounding boom in enrollment and buildings in the 1960s the period of student unrest and the numerous fiscal crises that have beset the school This is the story of an institution proud of its past and seeking to chart its course into the twenty first century
