No Regrets in the Evening of Life Neville Buch, 2018-03-14 The type of local and school history before the reader may be unfamiliar It is a definitive and scholarly history in the style of many grammar school histories in Queensland Although it is not unknown for Australian public and private schooling it is unique for Queensland state schools By saying it is a definitive and scholarly history what is meant is not that the history is complete only that it reaches decisive conclusions in a substantive treatment In this particular case the historian is someone who has been trained at the level of a higher degree

First Kills Stefan W. C. Gnys, 2020-01-10 Remarkably detailed It is a tribute to Wladyslaw Gnys the decorated ace pilot but also to the charming and humble man himself Hamilton Magazine Polish pilot Wladyslaw Wladek Gnys was credited with shooting down the first two German aircraft of World War II on September 1 1939 On this day as Gnys squadron took off near Krak w to intercept the German invaders German Stuka pilot Frank Neubert attacked killing the captain Wladek who barely survived himself evaded the pursuing Stukas and went on to make the first Allied kills while Neubert was credited with the first aerial kill of the war Fifty years after the invasion of Poland in the summer of 1989 Gnys and Neubert met and shook hands making news around the world They reconciled their differences and remained friends until their deaths This event symbolized the prevailing friendly coexistence between Poland and Germany Written by his son Stefan and drawing from his logbooks this highly illustrated biography of Wladek Gnys is the most in depth account of the Polish hero s life It tells Wladek s story from his childhood in rural Poland through his time flying in three Allied air forces during World War II his capture and escape during Operation Overlord and his reconciliation with Neubert and his commemoration as a national war hero in Poland Tells the story of one man s ride through the history of most of the 20th century This is far from a run of the mill wartime story being more of a touching and revealing look into an extraordinary life Aircrew Remembered The Nature of Revolution James A. Tyner, 2019-01-15 The Nature of Revolution provides the first account of art and politics under the brutal Khmer Rouge regime in Cambodia James A Tyner repositions Khmer Rouge artworks within their proper political and economic context the materialization of a political organization in an era of anticolonial and decolonization movements Consequently both the organization's policies and practices including the production of poetry music and photography were incontrovertibly shaped by and created to further the Khmer Rouge's agenda Theoretically informed and empirically grounded Tyner's work examines the social dimensions of the Khmer Rouge while contributing broadly to a growing literature on the intersection of art and politics Building on the foundational works of theorists such as Jacques Rancière Theodor Adorno and Walter Benjamin Tyner explores the insights of Leon Trotsky and his descriptions of the politics of aesthetics specific to socialist revolutions Ultimately Tyner reveals a fundamental tension between individuality and bureaucratic control and its impact on artistic creativity and freedom

Research and Debate in Primary Geography Simon Catling, 2017-10-02 This book brings together recent papers which make important contributions to understanding and developing primary geography It considers primary teachers and trainee teachers knowledge of geography how the primary curriculum uses geography teachers planning of geography teaching the way in which aspects of geography are taught what high quality geography might look like and children's geographical understanding and voices Though geography curricula change quite often in countries around the world the core matters noted above remain of constant and vital importance The papers in this book either concern research with primary teachers and children or consider key concerns in primary geography providing important perspectives for thinking about future developments in geography teaching and curriculum initiatives in primary schools This is a stimulating and enticing collection written by leading exponents of and experts in primary geography education This book was originally published as a special issue of Education 3 13

From GCSEs to EBCs Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons. Education Committee, 2013 The Government's plans for replacing GCSEs with new English Baccalaureate Certificates in some subjects is trying to do too much too fast Introducing several fundamental changes at the same time and to a tight timetable will jeopardise the quality of the reforms and may threaten the stability of the wider exam system GCSEs need significant improvements in order to restore public confidence in the exam system but the Government still needs to make the case that the GCSE brand is so discredited that it is beyond repair MPs are also concerned about the impact of the changes on subjects outside the English Baccalaureate where students will be taking GCSEs for some time to come according to the Government's plans The report also questions how well the Government's proposals will serve lower attaining pupils who are often the most disadvantaged There is no evidence that the proposed changes will help to tackle under achievement or narrow the attainment gap between the richest and poorest students any more effectively than GCSEs The Government is also called upon to re think its plans for a Statement of Achievement specifically for lower attaining pupils MPs agree that changes are needed to the way in which exams are run but they raise serious concerns about franchising subjects to exam boards The report is critical of the Government's decision to abolish some GCSEs before publishing the outcomes of the National Curriculum Review and its proposed changes to the school accountability system MPs also note the wide ranging stakeholder opposition to many of the Government's proposals

The Business of Education Joel Spring, John Eric Frankson, Corie A. McCallum, Diane Price Banks, 2017-07-06 The Business of Education a comprehensive view of how education policy is made in the US and in some cases globally analyzes and critiques the influence of educational policy networks in a wide range of contexts and from a variety of perspectives including testing college preparation juvenile detention centers special education the arts teacher evaluation systems education of undocumented immigrants college faculty preparation and financial aid A network chart in most chapters illustrates how the major political actors mainly private philanthropic foundations for profit companies government officials and politicians involved in the network are linked Joel Spring internationally renowned scholar and analyst of educational policy situates and frames the network studies in an introduction discussing general theories of education policy networks

Zambia Andrew Sardanis, 2014-08-13 On 24 October 1964 the Republic of Zambia was formed replacing the territory which had formerly been known as Northern Rhodesia Fifty years on Andrew Sardanis provides a sympathetic but critical insider's account of Zambia from independence to the present He paints a stark picture of Northern Rhodesia at decolonisation and the problems of the incoming government presented with an immense uphill task of rebuilding the infrastructure of government and administration civil service law local government and economic development Sardanis was a minister at the heart of the government and later a highly successful entrepreneur As a friend and colleague of many of the most prominent names in post independence Zambia from the presidencies of founding leader Kenneth Kaunda to the incumbent Michael Sata he uses his unique eyewitness experience to provide an inside view of a country in transition He looks at the highs and lows of Zambia's political development a purposeful beginning followed by many blunders confusion at times bordering on chaos interspersed with flashes of sensible action and good work This book provides a detailed examination of the major events in Zambia's history since independence and their effect on the country's development and progress based on Sardanis's in depth knowledge of Zambia and its people and the inner workings of its government

Racial Integration in the Church of Apartheid Marthe Hesselmanns, 2018-11-01 In Racial Integration in the Church of Apartheid Marthe Hesselmanns uncovers the post apartheid transformation of South Africa's Dutch Reformed Church This church once constituted the religious pillar of the Afrikaner apartheid regime 1948 1994 Today it seeks to unite the communities it long segregated into one multiracial institution Few believe this will succeed A close look inside congregations reveals unexpected stories of reconciliation though Where South Africans realize they need each other to survive faith offers common ground albeit a feeble one They show the potential but also the limits of faith communities untangling entrenched national and racial affiliations Linking South Africa's post apartheid transition to religious nationalist movements worldwide Hesselmanns offers a unique perspective on religion as source of division and healing

The Effectiveness of Mathematics Teaching in Primary Schools Zhenzhen Miao, David Reynolds, 2017-07-06 The Effectiveness of Mathematics Teaching in Primary Schools Lessons from England and China provides a unique insight into the mathematics classrooms of these two countries and arrives at a time when the world is eager to know how Chinese learners consistently excel at learning mathematics and other core subjects Showcasing the kinds of teaching methods that work within and across countries this book presents a rich collection of views including those from teachers their native colleagues their foreign colleagues and the researcher regarding the quality of mathematics teaching today Interweaving scientific results about teaching and learning evaluations with multiple perspectives of various roles in and out of the classroom Miao and Reynolds offer insights into how and why different approaches of teaching have led to different learning outcomes in mathematics internationally Building on rigid and robust analyses of the most up to date data in England and China the book indicates that it is through changing teaching rather than changing teachers that mathematics learning can be improved because it is what teachers do in the classroom that really makes a big difference Containing four decades of wisdom from the field of teaching effectiveness research this book is essential reading for all who want to improve the quality of mathematics teaching worldwide This book is particularly relevant for educational researchers postgraduate students and teachers as well as school leaders policymakers and parents

Location, Space and Place in Religious Education Martin Rothgangel, Kerstin von Brömssen, Hans-Günter Heimbrock, Geir Skeie, 2017 People form attachments to their home their neighbourhood and environment to the region and nation to which they belong They express feelings about space and place especially so in globalized times In religious studies in theology and in education there is a growing interest in spatial theories either as constructed within national borders or within international and transnational spaces The spatial turn has become an acknowledged term in interdisciplinary discourses Although every practice of religious education is situated and contextually dependent religious education RE research until now has not systematically paid attention to this fundamental insight This volume is devoted specifically to clarifying the close relationship between RE practice and spatial and situational conditions After clarifying the main concepts in Part 1 Part 2 includes chapters related to classroom studies while Part 3 focuses on studies about teachers of religious education Part 4 contains studies beyond the classroom such as school chapels churches and inner space All contributions to this volume were developed in the context of the European Network for Religious Education through Contextual Approaches ENRECA which has focused recently on the central issue of space and place
