Smart Futures, Challenges of Urbanisation, and Social Sustainability Mohammad Dastbaz,Wim Naudé,Jamileh Manoochchhri,2018-04-10 This book tackles the challenges posed by accelerating urbanization and demystifies Social Sustainability the least understood of all the different areas of sustainable development The volume s twin focus on these profoundly intertwined topics creates a nuanced and vitally important resource Large migrations from rural areas to cities without appropriate planning and infrastructure improvements including housing education and health care optimization have created significant challenges across the globe The authors suggest technology rich strategies to meet these challenges by careful application of data on population growth and movement to the planning design and construction of operational infrastructures that can sustainably support our increasingly rapid population growth State Intimacies Eva

Fiks,2024-04-01 The public healthcare system in rural India is chronically under resourced It embodies and often perpetuates the wider politics of the Indian state towards its rural communities with provisions of care that are deeply entangled with violence and disgust For rural women such care deepens reproductive chronicity while providing temporary relief Grounded in women s everyday realities and experiences in sterilization camps and other healthcare settings in rural Rajasthan State Intimacies examines the mundane workings ambiguities and fragilities of care in post colonial rural North India We Belong Here Shani Adia Evans,2025-01-16 A landmark study that shows how Black residents experience and respond to the rapid transformation of historically Black places Although Portland Oregon is sometimes called America's whitest city Black residents who grew up in the neighborhoods of northeast Portland have made it their own The district of Albina also called Northeast was their haven and a hub of Black community life But between 1990 and 2010 Albina changed dramatically it became majority white In We Belong Here sociologist Shani Adia Evans offers an intimate look at gentrification from the inside documenting the reactions of the residents of Albina as the racial demographics of their neighborhood shift As white culture becomes centered in Northeast Black residents recount their experiences with what Evans refers to as white watching the questioning look on the faces of white people they encounter which conveys an exclusionary message What are you doing here This Evans shows is a prime example of what she calls white spacemaking the establishment of white space spaces in which whiteness is assumed to be the norm in formerly non white neighborhoods While gentrification typically describes socioeconomic changes that may have racial implications white spacemaking allows us to understand racism as a primary mechanism of neighborhood change We Belong Here illuminates why gentrification and white spacemaking should be examined as intersecting but not interchangeable processes of neighborhood change Mzala Nxumalo, Leftist

Thought and Contemporary South Africa Robert J. Balfour, 2024-10-04 Written as a tribute to the revolutionary intellectual and leader Mzala Nxumalo this book discusses the significance of his work in the context of contemporary South African left politics It explores the history and struggle of the apartheid era that preceded the advent of democracy to analyze a crucial aspect of the national question that is the quest for the establishment of a united South Africa to overcome racist and sexist policies that create and nurture divisions among black people The subjects in this book deal with a wide range of topics including the new social economic and political challenges facing democratic South Africa the need to reexamine the critique of capitalism in the 21st century the relationship between race class and community struggles and the ecological challenges under capitalism Print edition not for sale in Sub Saharan Africa
