Grade Economics 2014 Scope:

The Economics of Equity in K-12 Education Goldy Brown III, Christos A. Makridis, 2023-02-07 Despite decades of increased state and federal funding for education student outcomes have largely deteriorated according to the 2022 NAEP exam results reading and math capabilities hit a thirty year low The emerging workforce is less prepared to handle the increasingly complex demands of the future which is likely to accelerate income inequality and stifle our nation's economic and social competitiveness Presenting the latest research on the economics of K 12 education this book makes recommendations about specific educational programming that have shown potential in increasing student outcomes for all learners focusing on human capital and practical recommendations for state and local policy makers and educational leaders

Socioeconomics of Food Daria Loginova, Stefan Mann, 2024-11-26 This textbook provides an introduction to the socioeconomics of food Aimed mostly at students of economics and related social sciences it explains how food markets function and what social and cultural factors influence the processes of food production and consumption It also discusses the role of food producers intermediaries and consumers and examines the dynamics of prices trade and externalities The book also highlights cultural and demographic processes and moral behaviors that shape production and consumption practices Furthermore it discusses issues of food quality ethics and politics Readers are also introduced to food databases and methods of data processing

Managing Financial Risks Amid China's Economic Slowdown Yang Li, 2019-10-01 The book is based on the research concerning China's National Balance Sheet NBS which is conducted by NIFD the unique research groups in China focusing on NBS The relative data have been quoted by the IMF Chinese government sectors influential investment banks at home and abroad This book offers readers a unique edited work that systematically presents solutions to manage financial risk in the context of the current situation in China

2014 International Conference on Advanced Education and Management (ICAEM2014), 2014-02-13 The ICAEM2014 aims to bring together researchers educators and students from around the world in both industry and academia for sharing the state of art research results and applications for exploring new areas of research and development and for discussing emerging issues on education and management fields We received a total of 312 submissions from various parts of the world The Technical Program Committee worked very hard to have all papers reviewed before the review deadline The final technical program consists of 92 papers There are one keynote speech and 2 invited sessions The proceedings were published by DEStech Publications Inc and will be submitted to Ei Compendex databases for indexing We would like to mention that due to the limitation of the conference venue capacity we are not able to include many fine papers in the technical program Our apology goes to those authors

Swine Production and Management John Abraham, 2020-02-28 This book elaborately covers all topics of swine management like breeding feeding housing health management and pork production technology The book is well supported by a large number of illustrations and tables which makes the understanding of the text very simple and easy It will be very useful for all students as well as professionals Note T F does not sell or distribute the Hardback in India Pakistan Nepal Bhutan Bangladesh and Sri Lanka

Economic Foundations of Education Álvaro Choi, 2023-03-23 This volume introduces the economics as a foundational discipline in education It provides economists and non economists with an accessible grounding in the key concepts and recent developments in the field The book deals with such themes as human capital theory and its alternatives the monetary and non monetary benefits of education the education production function equity in education and the evaluation of education policies In this volume students researchers and policymakers will find an entry point into the way economists think about educational questions and readers will deepen their understanding of the field with state of the art reviews of the main topics that are at the heart of the economist of education today About the Educational Foundations series Education as an academic field taught at universities around the world emerged from a range of older foundational disciplines The Educational Foundations series comprises six volumes each covering one of the foundational disciplines of philosophy history sociology policy studies economics and law This is the first reference work to provide an authoritative and up to date account of all six disciplines showing how each field s ideas methods theories and approaches can contribute to research and practice in education today The six volumes cover the same set of key topics within education which also form the chapter titles Mapping the Field Purposes of Education Curriculum Schools and Education Systems Learning and Human Development Teaching and Teacher Education Assessment and Evaluation This structure allows readers to study the volumes in isolation by discipline or laterally by topic and facilitates a comparative thematic reading of chapters across the volumes Throughout the series attention is paid to how the disciplines comprising the educational foundations speak to social justice concerns such as gender and racial equality

Behavioral Science & Policy: Volume 2, Issue 1 Craig Fox, Sim B. Sitkin, 2016-11-22 The success of nearly all public and private sector policies hinges on the behavior of individuals groups and organizations Today such behaviors are better understood than ever thanks to a growing body of practical behavioral science research However policymakers often are unaware of behavioral science findings that may help them craft and execute more effective and efficient policies The pages of this new journal will become a meeting ground a place where scientists and non scientists can encounter clearly described behavioral research that can be put into action By design the scope of BSP is broad with topics spanning health care financial decisionmaking energy and the environment education and culture justice and ethics and work place practices Contributions will be made by researchers with expertise in psychology sociology law behavioral economics organization science decision science and marketing The journal is a key offering of the Behavioral Science Policy Association in partnership with the Brookings Institution The mission of BSPA is to foster dialog between social scientists policymakers and other practitioners in order to promote the application of rigorous empirical behavioral science in ways that serve the public interest BSPA does not advance a particular agenda or political perspective The first issue s contents follow Behavioral Science Policy vol 2 no 1 Table of Contents Editors
