ICTES 2018 Robbi Rahim, Kadek Suranata, Ifdil Ifdil, Itsar Bolo Rangka, 2019-03-13 The technical program of The First ICTES 2018 consisted of 114 full papers. Aside from the high quality technical paper presentations we also held workshop and clinic manuscript that was carried out before the main track aims to strengthen the ability to write scientific publications. Coordination with the steering chairs Dr Kadek Suranata S Pd M Pd Kons and the members of organizing committee is essential for the success of the conference. We sincerely appreciate all the Advisory Boards for the constant support and guidance. It was also a great pleasure to work with such an excellent organizing committee team for their hard work in organizing and supporting the conference. In particular the Scientific Committee led by Cand Dr Robbi Rahim M Kom have completed the peer review process of technical papers and made a high quality technical program. We are also grateful to Students Conference chairs were leading by Ida Ayu Made Diah Paramiswari for their support and all the authors who submitted their papers to the First ICTES 2018. We strongly believe that ICTES conference provides a good forum for all academicians, researchers and practitioners to discuss all Educational science and technology aspects that are relevant to issues and challenge for sustainability in the 4th industrial revolution. We also expect that the future ICTES conference will be as successful and stimulating as indicated by the contributions presented in this volume. South African national Life by Algorithms Catherine Besteman, Hugh Gusterson, 2019-05-23 Essays on the downsides, dysfunctions and dangers of automated decision making. An excellent survey of the algorithmically managed life. Choice: The phone systems that businesses use to screen calls. The link between student standardized test scores and public schools' access to resources. The algorithms that regulate patient diagnoses and reimbursements to doctors. The impenetrable corporate bureaucracy that can drive customers in need of help up the wall or drive them to suicide. The storage, sorting and analysis of massive amounts of information have enabled the automation of decision making at an unprecedented level. Meanwhile, computers have offered a model of cognition that increasingly shapes our approach to the world. The proliferation of robo-processes is the result, as editors Catherine Besteman and Hugh Gusterson observe in this rich and wide-ranging volume which features contributions from a distinguished cast of scholars in anthropology, communications, international studies and political science. Though automatic processes are designed to be engines of rational systems the stories in Life by Algorithms reveal how they can in fact produce absurd inflexible or even dangerous outcomes Joining the call for algorithmic transparency the contributors bring exceptional sensitivity to everyday sociality into their critique to better understand how the perils of modern technology affect finance medicine education housing the workplace food production public space and emotions not as separate problems but as linked manifestations of a deeper defect in the fundamental ordering of our society The Machine Stops E M Forster's 1909 science fiction story tells the tale of a human society collapsing when the technology upon which it has become dependent fails Think of this volume as The Machine Starts a collection of unsettling ethnographic accounts of the rise of algorithmic governance A necessary and sobering call to arms Stefan Helmreich Massachusetts Institute of Technology Contributors include Catherine Besteman Alex Blanchette Robert W Gehl Hugh Gusterson Catherine Lutz Ann Lutz Fernandez Joseph Masco Sally Engle Merry Keesha M Middlemass Noelle Stout Susan J Terrio

Teaching Climate Change to Children Rebecca Woodard, Kristine M. Schutz, 2024 Replete with classroom examples this book demonstrates that young children pre K 6 are capable of learning about climate change that climate change and social justice are inextricable from each other and that literacy instruction is well suited to this work The authors take an emotionally affirming stance and examine the potential of incorporating arts based methods

Excellence Gaps in Education Jonathan A. Plucker, Scott J. Peters, 2020-01-15 2017 Texas Association for Gifted and Talented Legacy Scholar Book Award 2017 National Association of Gifted Children Scholar Book of the Year Award In Excellence Gaps in Education Jonathan A Plucker and Scott J Peters shine a spotlight on excellence gaps the achievement gaps among subgroups of students performing at the highest levels of achievement Much of the focus of recent education reform has been on closing gaps in achievement between students from different racial ethnic or socioeconomic backgrounds by bringing all students up to minimum levels of proficiency Yet issues related to excellence gaps have been largely absent from discussions about how to improve our schools and communities Plucker and Peters argue that these significant gaps reflect the existence of a persistent talent underclass in the United States among African American Hispanic Native American and poor students resulting in an incalculable loss of potential among our fastest growing populations Drawing on the latest research and a wide range of national and international data the authors outline the scope of the problem and make the case that excellence gaps should be targeted for elimination They identify promising interventions for talent development already underway in schools and provide a detailed review of potential strategies including universal screening flexible grouping targeted programs and psychosocial interventions Excellence Gaps in Education has the potential for changing our national conversation about equity and excellence and bringing fresh attention to the needs of high potential students from underrepresented backgrounds

Fix IT Harold Thimbleby, 2021-10-08 New technologies like AI medical apps and implants seem very exciting but they too often have bugs and are susceptible to cyberattacks Even well established technologies like infusion pumps pacemakers and radiotherapy aren't immune Until digital healthcare improves digital risk means that patients may be harmed unnecessarily and healthcare staff will continue to be blamed for problems when it's not their fault This book tells stories of widespread problems with digital healthcare The stories inspire and challenge anyone who wants to make hospitals and healthcare better The stories and their resolutions will empower patients clinical staff and digital developers to help transform digital healthcare to make it safer and more effective This book is not just about the bugs and cybersecurity threats that affect digital healthcare More importantly it's about the solutions that can make digital healthcare much safer Eco-design in Electrical Engineering Jean-Luc Bessède, 2017-08-20 This book addresses eco design a major tool for reducing the environmental impacts of products services and systems in the context of sustainable development It covers four key aspects of eco design applied to electrical engineering First it describes current and future methodologies and standards including regulations which apply to electrical engineering In turn the second chapter is devoted to energy systems and planning including constraints on the insertion of equipment into the grid Components such as transformers and cables their eco design characteristics and impacts and their potential to improve the environmental impacts of networks are described in the third chapter Lastly the fourth chapter deals with materials in terms of their performance and ecological impact In the case of electrical equipment the eco design approach is also connected to the development of renewable energies and energy efficiency New Educational Technologies and Their Impact on Students' Well-being and Inclusion Process is a type of transportation for which traditional biofuels such as bioethanol and biodiesel do not fulfill key fuel requirements. Therefore, different solutions to this situation are being researched and tested around the globe, which makes navigating this scenario particularly challenging. This book guides readers through this intricate subject, bringing them up to speed with its current status and future prospects, both from the academic and the industry point of view. Science and technology chapters delve into the technical aspects of the currently tested and the most promising technology in development, as well as their respective feedstocks and the use of additives as a way of adapting them to meet certain specifications. Conversion processes such as hydrotreatment, synthetic biology, pyrolysis, hydrothermal liquefaction, and Fisher-Tropsch are explored, and their results are assessed for current and future viability. Presents the current status of biofuels for the aviation sector, including technologies that are currently in use and the most promising future technologies, their production processes, and viability. Explains the requirements for certification and performance of aviation fuels and how that can be achieved by biofuels. Explores the economic and policy issues, as well as life cycle assessment, a comparative techno-economic analysis of promising technologies, and a roadmap to the future. Explores conversion processes such as hydrotreatment, synthetic biology, pyrolysis, hydrothermal liquefaction, and Fisher-Tropsch. Radio News, 1921.
