Perspectives on Transitions in Schooling and Instructional Practice Susan E. Elliott-Johns, Daniel H. Jarvis, 2013-12-06
Perspectives on Transitions in Schooling and Instructional Practice examines student transitions between major levels of schooling teacher transitions in instructional practice and the intersection of these two significant themes in education research Twenty six leading international experts offer meaningful insights on current pedagogical practices obstacles to effective transitions and proven strategies for stakeholders involved in supporting students in transition The book is divided into four sections representing the four main transitions in formal schooling Early Years Home Pre school and Kindergarten to Early Elementary Grades 1 3 Early Elementary to Late Elementary Grades 4 8 Late Elementary to Secondary Grades 9 12 and Secondary to Post Secondary College and University A coda draws together over arching themes from throughout the text to provide recommendations and a visual model that captures their interactions Combining theoretical approaches with practical examples of school based initiatives this book will appeal to those involved in supporting either the student experience both academically and emotionally or teacher professional learning and growth Handbook of Research on Leadership Experience for Academic Direction (LEAD) Programs for Student Success Salinitri, Geri, 2020-02-28
Leadership Experience for Academic Directions LEAD is a program that was developed as a service learning program for teacher candidates in preparation for the teaching career As youth populations continue to diversify and as the issues impacting youth continue to surface it is the responsibility of educators administrators and the governments to provide all the opportunities for youth to succeed academically socially and personally Teachers especially are instrumental in making this happen therefore it is imperative that teachers come into the profession with the cognitive and non cognitive skills to motivate youth to succeed The Handbook of Research on Leadership Experience for Academic Direction LEAD Programs for Student Success s a critical scholarly book that explores the many facets of the teaching profession as they relate to working with at risk youth and helping them reach their full potential This book provides the groundwork for programs that will succeed at the K 12 education level and at the teacher education level Featuring a range of topics such as human capital mental health and social learning theory this book is essential for academicians teaching professionals administrators professional development educators policymakers researchers and students Between Caring & Counting Lindsay Kerr, 2006-12-15 One of the key planks of conservative Ontario premier Mike Harris s 1990s platform was education reform Amid a sea of official reports policy documents and expert opinions on education however the voices of actual classroom teachers were difficult to find This omission is redressed in Lindsay Kerr s Between Caring Counting Through a focus group of present day secondary school teachers in Toronto Kerr delivers a passionate account of the unassailably negative changes affecting secondary education and teachers work From a critical feminist perspective and using institutional ethnography Kerr situates the problem in education squarely as a conflict between an accounting logic and an ethic of care at the centre of education practice She exposes paradoxes inherent in education reform such as the increase of government control at the same time that government funding for education decreases She also connects educational restructuring to changes in the power relations of gender class and race across the public education system These local changes she finds do not reflect sound pedagogy but the imperatives of neoliberal globalization Counteracting despair with hope Kerr explores self reflexive suggestions for teacher educators to exercise agency in their lives and to continue to work toward a just and equitable public education system

Decolonizing Educational Assessment Ardavan Eizadirad,2019-09-06 This book examines the history of standardized testing in Ontario leading to the current context and its impact on racialized identities particularly on Grade 3 students parents and educators Using a theoretical argument supplemented with statistical trends the author illuminates how EQAO tests are culturally and racially biased and promote a Eurocentric curriculum and way of life privileging white students and those from higher socio economic status This book spurs readers to further question the use of EQAO standardized testing and challenges us to consider alternative models which serve the needs of all students
