Heart Beats and High Fives Daniel Roberts, Tayler Eggspuehler, 2014-11-13 A haiku is the epitome of a verbal painting A seventeen syllable piece rendered to leave the reader in awe using just three simple lines with hopes of teasing the soul and engaging the heart Sunset, 1982 East West, 1979-07 Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 1988 Books In Print 2004-2005 Ed Bowker Staff, Staff Bowker, Ed, 2004 Between the Heart-beats Graham High, 2001 The Great Big Book of Haiku Kathleen Elizabeth Sumpton, 2020-05-30 THE GREAT BIG BOOK OF HAIKU 365 Haiku Poems is a poetry anthology for adult readers It is a satire on adulthood in that the older we get the less we live life in the moment The design of this text is such that there are 365 poems one for every day of the year Instead of writing a book of poems for children to read one each night at bedtime they are for adults to read one each morning of the year upon waking up Setting a vision for your day you are now conscious of each moment you are participating in A haiku poem is based on a single moment in time and that is what gives it personality This personality is what will inspire you to live more in the present The structure of a haiku poem is short only three lines containing 5 syllables then 7 and then 5 again This addition and then subtraction of an even number using a base of odd numbers also reflects the moral of this story in that balance is thought of as a binary but in life there are much more than only two sides Each poem was written by starting with a brainstorm on the most intense moment of the day Every day for one year I wrote down the most intense moment or moments I had Positive and negative I scrapbooked each card of moment s using keywords and images from magazines so that when I returned to them I would have a lot of inspiration Then the following year I turned them into haiku poems This collection took more than two years to create because after that I had to type them all up edit them and secure the rest of the book s structure This anthology is my gift to every adult who seeks solace in the art of poetry
