Encyclopedia of Radio 3-Volume Set Christopher H. Sterling,2004-03-01 Produced in association with the Museum of Broadcast Communications in Chicago the Encyclopedia of Radio includes more than 600 entries covering major countries and regions of the world as well as specific programs and people networks and organizations regulation and policies audience research and radio's technology This encyclopedic work will be the first broadly conceived reference source on a medium that is now nearly eighty years old with essays that provide essential information on the subject as well as comment on the significance of the particular person organization or topic being examined      Doctor Who-Guide 1/3 compiled from Wikipedia pages and published by Dr Googelberg,2012-08-07 Almost everything about the good doctor his companions and travels his enemies and friends Additionally the actors etc Part three contains all summaries of all TV episodes Compiled from Wikipedia pages and published by Dr Googelberg      Fan Fiction and Fan Communities in the Age of the Internet Karen Hellekson,Kristina Busse,2014-09-17 Fans have been responding to literary works since the days of Homer's Odyssey and Euripedes Medea More recently a number of science fiction fantasy media and game works have found devoted fan followings The advent of the Internet has brought these groups from relatively limited face to face enterprises to easily accessible global communities within which fan texts proliferate and are widely read and even more widely commented upon. New interactions between readers and writers of fan texts are possible in these new virtual communities. From Star Trek to Harry Potter the essays in this volume explore the world of fan fiction its purposes how it is created how the fan experiences it. Grouped by subject matter essays cover topics such as genre intersection sexual relationships between characters character construction through narrative and the role of the beta reader in online communities. The work also discusses the terminology used by creators of fan artifacts and comments on the effects of technological advancements on fan communities. Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here Locating Science Fiction Andrew Milner, 2012. A major groundbreaking intervention into contemporary theoretical debates about SF. It effects a series of vital shifts in SF theory and criticism away from prescriptively abstract dialectics of cognition and estrangement and towards the empirically grounded understanding of an amalgam of texts practices and artefacts. Paratexts James Gunn, 2013-04-18. In the mid 1980s Easton Press began publishing a series of leather bound collector editions called Masterpieces of Science Fiction and Masterpieces of Fantasy which featured some of the most important works in these genres. James Gunn was commissioned to write introductions to these works which allowed him to pay tribute to many authors who inspired and influenced his own work. In Paratexts: Introductions to Science Fiction and Fantasy Gunn has collected the most significant essays produced for the Easton series along with prefaces he wrote for reprints of his own novels. Cited here are some of the most significant works of 19th and 20th century science fiction and fantasy such as The Island of Dr Moreau 1984 Stranger in a Strange Land A Clockwork Orange Speaker for the Dead The Postman Do Androids Dream of Electric Sheep The Hitchhiker's Guide to the Universe The Dead Zone The Mists of Avalon Dragon's Eye Nine Princes in Amber Blue Mars The Last Unicorn and The Lord of the Rings. Drawing upon Gunn's lifetime of work in the field these introductions include analyses of the individual works and the fields in which they were written. Gunn also briefly discusses each novel's significance in the science fiction canon. Collected here for the first time these prefaces and introductions provide readers with insight into more than seventy novels making Paratexts a must read for science fiction and fantasy aficionados.
