How Shall I Tell The Dog And Other Final Musings:

How Shall I Tell the Dog? Miles Kington, 2009-06-16 In this hilarious and moving book popular English humorist Miles Kington faces cancer and death with his sparkling trademark wit musing on everything from board games and yodeling to the prospect of being outlived by his dog When some people are told they have only a few months to live they might travel around the world or write their memoirs or put their affairs in order When it happened at the age of 66 to Miles Kington one of England's best loved humorists he did what he did best offering sharp wry laugh out loud observations and ideas about his situation Following his diagnosis of pancreatic cancer Kington proposes crazier and crazier ideas for his next book what he calls cashing in on cancer in a series of letters to his literary agent Gill And what sort of things capture Kington's attention in his waning months The sudden grimness of those 1 000 Places to See Before You Die books for example What about 100 Things to Do Before You Die Without Leaving Home he suggests Instead of bungee jumping and whitewater rafting learn to whistle with two fingers in your mouth yodel or steam open envelopes The irony that his dog Berry will probably outlive him or the semi outrageous idea of creating a funeral video The answer is quite simple Make a video in advance of my farewell speech to be shown on a monitor from the pulpit or on a screen behind the stage or wherever the best place would be I have already visualised the opening shot It is of me smiling ruefully and saying to camera Hello I'm sorry I couldn't be here in person with you today Mischievous and utterly original Miles Kington's words in the face of death are memorable and surprisingly uplifting It Gives One Pause, A Thoughtful Dog's Musings In Verse Quilliam Horace Flint, 2012-11-28
