The Oxford Textbook on Criminology Stephen Case, Steve Case, David Manlow, Philip Johnson, Kate Williams, Roger Smith, 2021 The Oxford Textbook on Criminology has been developed by a team of experts to equip you with the knowledge confidence skills and enthusiasm you need to achieve your full potential as a criminologist Back cover Extreme Punishment Keramet Reiter, Alexa Koenig, 2015-07-28 This ground breaking collection examines the erosion of the legal boundaries traditionally dividing civil detention from criminal punishment The contributors empirically demonstrate how the mentally ill non citizen immigrants and enemy combatants are treated like criminals in Canada the United Kingdom and the United States Collaborative Policing Peter C. Kratcoski, Maximilian Edelbacher, 2015-10-05 The chapters in this book reveal that police education training and practices are now closely tied to collaboration between police academics professional practitioners and community agencies and such collaboration is described and evaluated Dilip K Das PhD Founding President International Police Executive Symposium IPES and founding Decolonizing the Criminal Question Ana J. Aliverti, Ana Aliverti, Henrique Carvalho, Anastasia Chamberlen, Máximo Sozzo, 2023 This volume explores the uneasy relationship between crime crime control and colonialism foregrounding the relevance of the legacies of this relationship to criminological enquiries It invites and pursues a better understanding of the links between imperialism and colonialism on the one hand and nationalism and globalisation on the other Introduction to Corrections Robert D. Hanser, 2023-05-12 Introduction to Corrections provides students with a comprehensive foundation of corrections that is practitioner driven and grounded in modern research and theoretical origins Experienced correctional practitioner scholar and author Robert D Hanser shows students how the corrections system works from classification security and treatment to demonstrating how and why correctional practices are implemented The Fourth Edition includes a special emphasis on the role of technology in each chapter new topics on medical care in jail female drug offenders and controversies around the death penalty and the impact of the COVID 19 pandemic on correctional practices Data and examples drawn from federal government documents along with exercises that reinforce concepts in the text further aid student learning Handbook on Risk and Need Assessment Faye Taxman, 2016-11-10 The Handbook on Risk and Need Assessment Theory and Practice covers risk assessments for individuals being considered for parole or probation Evidence based approaches to such decisions help take the emotion and politics out of community corrections As the United States begins to back away from ineffective expensive policies of mass incarceration this handbook will provide the resources needed to help ensure both public safety and the effective rehabilitation of offenders The ASC Division on Corrections Sentencing Handbook Series will publish volumes on topics ranging from violence risk assessment to specialty courts for drug users veterans or the mentally ill Each thematic volume focuses on a single topical issue that intersects with corrections and sentencing research Smugglers and States Max Gallien, 2024-02-27 Winner 2025 Theodore J Lowi First Book Award International Political Science Association American

Political Science Association Smuggling is typically thought of as furtive and hidden taking place under the radar and beyond the reach of the state But in many cases governments tacitly permit illicit cross border commerce or even devise informal arrangements to regulate it Drawing on extensive fieldwork in the borderlands of Tunisia and Morocco Max Gallien explains why states have long tolerated illegal trade across their borders and develops new ways to understand the political economy of smuggling This book examines the rules and agreements that govern smuggling in North Africa tracing the involvement of states in these practices and their consequences for borderland communities Gallien demonstrates that contrary to common assumptions about the effects of informal economies smuggling can promote both state and social stability States not only turn a blind eye to smuggling they rely on it to secure political acquiescence and maintain order because it provides income for otherwise neglected border communities More recently however the securitization of borders wars political change and the pandemic have put these arrangements under pressure Gallien explores the renegotiation of the role of smuggling showing how stability turns into vulnerability and why some groups have been able to thrive while others have been pushed further to the margins With both rich empirical detail and novel theoretical contributions Smugglers and States offers important insights into security and stability in North Africa and the prospects for economic inclusion in a context where many livelihoods exist outside of the law

Ebook: Sociology: A Brief Introduction Schaefer,2014-10-16 Ebook
Sociology A Brief Introduction 50 Facts Everyone Should Know About Crime and Punishment in Britain Adam Lynes,James Treadwell,2019-03-27 Are you the kind of person who watches crime drama and real life crime documentaries on television Are you fascinated by the twists and turns of justice and the law But how much do you really know about key issues in crime crime control policing and punishment in the UK This exciting dynamic and accessible book written by leading experts presents 50 key facts related to crime and criminal justice policy in Britain Did you know that contrary to public belief in the UK a life sentence does actually last for life And that capital punishment in the UK was abolished for murder in 1965 but the Death Penalty was a legally defined punishment as late as 1998 Offering thought provoking insights into the study of crime this fascinating go to book is packed with facts and figures revealing the myths and realities of crime in contemporary Britain

The Death Penalty Roger Hood,Carolyn Hoyle,2015 The fifth edition of this highly praised study charts and explains the progress that continues to be made towards the goal of worldwide abolition of the death penalty The majority of nations have now abolished the death penalty and the number of executions has dropped in almost all countries where abolition has not yet taken place Emphasizing the impact of international human rights principles and evidence of abuse the authors examine how this has fueled challenges to the death penalty and they analyze and appraise the likely obstacles political and cultural to further abolition They discuss the cruel realities of the death penalty and the failure of international standards always to ensure fair trials and to avoid arbitrariness discrimination and conviction of the innocent all violations of the right to life They provide further evidence of the lack of a general deterrent effect shed new light on the influence and limits of public opinion and argue that substituting for the death penalty life imprisonment without parole raises many similar human rights concerns This edition provides a strong intellectual and evidential basis for regarding capital punishment as undeniably cruel inhuman and degrading Widely relied upon and fully updated to reflect the current state of affairs worldwide this is an invaluable resource for all those who study the death penalty and work towards its removal as an international goal From Chasing Violations to Managing Risks Florentin Blanc, 2018-09-28 Florentin Blanc focuses specifically on regulatory inspections and enforcement their historical development contrasted approaches and methods and their relative effectiveness in achieving regulatory objectives Inspections aimed at verifying compliance with regulations are one of the most significant activities of modern states in terms of the number of staff employed or of people affected and one of the most visible ones but have long remained relatively under researched or at least not considered as such Tourism and the Night Andrew Smith, Adam Eldridge, 2021-05-18 Over recent decades municipal authorities have promoted their cities as places boasting desirable night time activities Light festivals museum late night clubbing and night markets extend the typical tourist experience into the night and have become a key part of the way some cities are branded This anthology draws together research addressing the relationship between tourism and the night facilitating a better understanding of nocturnal city destinations Tourism and the Night Rethinking Nocturnal Destinations covers an array of different tourist activities taking place at night and a range of European cities The challenges facing late night workers the relationship between tourists and residents and the effects of local policies on the expansion of late night entertainment are examined in the first part of the book The latter part focuses on the significance of night time events addressing the rising popularity of light art festivals and established religious rituals Ultimately this ground breaking collection of papers examines how the night has become an important setting for city tourism This trend means there is a need to rethink the management of urban districts and destinations but there are also important implications for our understanding and experiences of the urban night The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue in the Journal of Policy Research in Tourism Leisure and Events Forensic Psychology James McGuire, Simon Duff, 2018-04-18 This brand new textbook provides a complete course in forensic psychology covering the criminal justice system law and legislation and treatments and outcomes for offenders It offers rigorous coverage of the major topics from theoretical concepts and research methods to explaining criminal acts and patterns of crime The authors both from leading institutions and well known in the field guide readers through the interlocking systems of criminal justice mental health and social service provision providing a deeper critical appreciation of what motivates crime and how criminal behaviour can be understood assessed and treated This text will be core reading for upper level undergraduates and postgraduates studying forensic psychology either as a module on a BSc Psychology degree or on an MSc for trainee Forensic Psychologists It will also be ideal for early career practitioners Research Methods for Law Mike McConville, Wing Hong (Eric) Chui, 2024-12-31 This third edition of Research Methods for Law offers students in a range of disciplines law sociology psychology criminology forensic science social legal studies and social welfare an advanced introduction to research methods in an accessible and grounded way As well as covering theoretical comparative and interdisciplinary methods the book breaks new ground by offering a focus on topics of contemporary and developing concerns in areas such as Artificial Intelligence BRICS Continental Legal Systems Islamic Law Gender Race and the Virtual World The expert contributors draw on their vast experience in teaching and research to encourage students and provide sure pathways for their own enterprises with technical competence and adherence to ethical standards

Alternative Criminologies Pat Carlen, Leandro Ayres França, 2017-08-10 Alternative Criminologies celebrates a kaleidoscopic process of permanent critique and a diversity of social and scientific knowledges It examines complex and global crime issues in light of the many alternative scientific artistic empathetic campaigning and otherwise imaginative criminologies that attempt to understand and or fundamentally change why crime and justice take the forms they do From cutting edge topics such as crimes against humanity the criminology of mobility terrorism cybercrime corporate crime and green criminology to gendered perspectives on violence against women sexualities and feminist and queer criminologies to key issues in penology such as mass incarceration the death penalty desistance from crime risk and the political economy of punishment Alternative Criminologies demonstrates the breadth the variety and the vibrancy of contemporary perspectives on crime criminalization and punishment Bringing together 34 leading experts from around the world this international collection unites fresh and insightful theoretical positions with innovative empirical research and marks an important juncture for criminologies and their imagined futures Alternative Criminologies is essential reading for students of crime and criminal justice

Adversarial Justice and Victims' Rights Mary Iliadis, 2020-04-30 Adversarial Justice and Victims Rights explores the extent to which reforms that offer victims enhanced rights to information and participation across England and Wales Ireland and South Australia can address sexual assault victims procedural and substantive justice concerns The rights status and treatment of sexual assault victims has emerged as a significant 21st century concern occupying the forefront of legal commentary on international policy agendas Informed by the voices of 26 high level criminal justice professionals legal stakeholders and victim support workers and a quantitative dataset this book considers whether legal representation can address some of the problems of the prosecution process for sexual assault victims in Victoria and indeed in other adversarial jurisdictions that employ similar legislative frameworks While acknowledging the value of victim focused reforms the book contends that cultural changes to the ways in which sexual assault victims are perceived and treated are necessary in order to improve victims experiences of the legal process Reconceptualising the role of sexual assault victims from witnesses to participants will also increase the likelihood that victims rights and interests will be considered alongside those of the state and the accused Situating its findings within broader debates about the role rights and treatment of sexual assault victims in adversarial justice systems the book outlines prospects for the transfer of policy and practice between jurisdictions Adversarial Justice and Victims Rights will be of great interest to academic and policy stakeholders engaged in criminology law and socio legal studies as well as students researching sexual violence and victims access to justice

Violence, Law and the Impossibility of Transitional Justice Catherine Turner, 2016-07-07 The field of transitional justice has expanded rapidly since the term first emerged in the late 1990s Its intellectual development has however tended to follow practice rather than drive it Addressing this gap Violence Law and the Impossibility of Transitional Justice pursues a comprehensive theoretical inquiry into the foundation and evolution of transitional justice Presenting a detailed deconstruction of the role of law in transition the book explores the reasons for resistance to transitional justice It explores the ways in which law itself is complicit in perpetuating conflict and asks whether a narrow vision of transitional justice underpinned by a strictly normative or doctrinal concept of law can undermine the promise of justice Drawing on case material as well as on perspectives from a range of disciplines including law political science anthropology and philosophy this book will be of considerable interest to those concerned with the theory and practice of transitional justice

Understanding Violence and Abuse Heather Fraser, Kate Seymour, 2020-07-10T00:00:00Z In Understanding Violence and Abuse Heather Fraser and Kate Seymour examine violence and abuse from an anti oppressive practice perspective and make connections between interpersonal violence and structural institutional and cultural violence Using case studies from Canada the U K the U S Australia Bangladesh India and elsewhere the authors discuss topics ranging from class oppression street violence white privilege war shame Islamophobia and abuse in intimate relationships as well as introduce the core tenets of anti oppressive social work practice They encourage readers to reflect upon hierarchies of identity and difference in relation to the ways in which violence and abuse are defined understood and addressed Further they discuss several responses to violence using an anti oppressive framework

The Routledge Handbook of Technology, Crime and Justice M. R. McGuire, Thomas Holt, 2017-02-24 Technology has become increasingly important to both the function and our understanding of the justice process Many forms of criminal behaviour are highly dependent upon technology and crime control has become a predominantly technologically driven process one where traditional technological aids such as fingerprinting or blood sample analysis are supplemented by a dizzying array of tools and techniques including surveillance devices and DNA profiling This book offers the first comprehensive and holistic overview of global research on technology crime and justice It is divided into five parts each corresponding with the key stages of the offending and justice process Part I addresses the current conceptual understanding of technology within academia and the criminal justice system Part II gives a comprehensive overview of the current relations between technology and criminal behaviour Part III explores the current technologies within crime control and the ways in which technology underpins contemporary formal and informal social control Part IV sets out some of the fundamental impacts technology is now having upon the judicial process Part V reveals the emerging technologies for crime control and justice and considers the extent to which new technology can be effectively regulated This landmark collection will be essential reading for academics students and theorists within criminology sociology law engineering and technology and computer science as well as practitioners and professionals working within and around the criminal justice system Ideology, Ethics and Policy Development in Public Service Interpreting and Translation Carmen Valero-Garcés, Rebecca Tipton, 2017-03-08 This edited collection brings together new research on public service interpreting and translation PSIT with a focus on ideology ethics and policy development The contributions provide fresh theoretical and empirical perspectives on the inconsistencies in translation and interpreting provision observed in different geonational contexts and the often reported tensions between prescribed approaches to ethics and practitioner experience The discussions are set against the backdrop of developments in rights based discourses on language support services and the professionalisation of the field drawing attention to how stakeholders and interpreting practitioners navigate the realities of service in the context of shifting ideological landscapes Particular innovations in the collection include theorisations about policy and practice that draw on political science applied ethics and paradigms of trauma informed care The volume also presents research on settings that have received limited attention to date such as prison and charitable services for survivors of violence and trauma
