It is important to note that the observed uniformity of responses in the more homogeneous groups is the result of a combination of many factors, including the structure of the time allocation, the structure of the work itself, and the high level of communication among the group members. The experimental design is not intended to be a model for other studies, but it is a good starting point for further research.

[illegible]

5. Interpretation: Analysis conducted before the data presented in this manuscript and additional tests found the same pattern in the hypothetical experimental situation. In other words, the same theoretical model explains the data consistently obtained in the experimental and hypothetical situations. The authors will emphasize this point.

On September 11, 2001, the World Trade Center towers in New York City were destroyed by two hijacked commercial airplanes. The towers were the tallest buildings in the world at the time, and their destruction was a major event in the history of the United States. The towers were built by the World Trade Center, a joint venture of the Port Authority of New York and New Jersey and the World Trade Center Corporation. The towers were designed by the architect Daniel Libeskind and were built by the construction firm Skidmore, Owings & Merrill. The towers were destroyed by two hijacked commercial airplanes, one from the World Trade Center and one from the Pentagon.
