The Sense of the Sacred in the Early Novels of Quebec
Lisa M. Gasbarrone, 2024-10-15 Quebec s early novels are full of sacred themes and motifs devotional objects and practices parables and scripture priests and nuns transcendence divinity and eternity Yet the critical gaze of the past fifty years has seldom engaged the idea of the sacred in a sustained way Indeed the presence of the sacred has alienated modern and postmodern readers who ignore or downplay its significance leading to misguided assessments of these works as mediocre and even unreadable for contemporary audiences The Sense of the Sacred in the Early Novels of Quebec reexamines seven classic novels at the foundations of Quebec's national literature Patrice Lacombe's La Terre paternelle 1846 P J O Chauveau's Charles Gu rin 1853 Antoine G rin Lajoie's Jean Rivard 1874 Philippe Aubert de Gasp's Les Anciens Canadiens 1863 Laure Conan's Ang line de Montbrun 1884 Louis H mon's Maria Chapdelaine 1916 and F lix Antoine Savard's Menaud ma tre draveur 1937 Through chapters that focus on sacred themes character analysis narrative temporalities and the hermeneutics of the sacred Lisa Gasbarrone demonstrates that these novels are more nuanced and innovative than their reputation has allowed The Sense of the Sacred in the Early Novels of Quebec reintroduces readers to classic works of French Canadian literature that ironically and provocatively cast their quarrel with modernity in that essentially modern form the novel

To Know Our Many Selves Dirk Hoerder, 2010 To Know Our Many Selves profiles the history of Canadian studies which began as early as the 1840s with the Study of Canada Indiscussing this comprehensive examination of culture Hoerder highlights its unique interdisciplinary approach which included both sociological and political angles Years later as the study of other ethnicities was added to the cultural story of Canada a solid foundation was formed for the nation's master narrative Against this background To Know Our Many Selves focuses on why Canadian studies can be used as a sound model for the study of other societies in a framework of transcultural societal studies

Moments of Crisis Ian A. Morrison, 2019-09-01 In the past two decades Quebec has been racked by a series of controversies in which the religiosity of migrants and other minorities has been represented as a threat to the province's once staunchly Catholic and now resolutely secular identity In Moments of Crisis Ian Morrison locates these controversies and debates within a long history of crises within and transformations of Quebecois identity from the Conquest of New France in 1760 to contemporary times He argues that national identity like all identities is unstable and prone to moments of crisis It is in these moments that the nation is articulated and rearticulated reinforced and ultimately reproduced Morrison also argues that rather than seeking to overcome current controversies by reconsolidating national identity Quebec should look on moments of crisis as opportunities to forge alternative conceptions of community identity and belonging

Literature and Painting in Quebec William J. Berg, 2013-02-04 This unique study explores how Quebec's landscapes have been represented in both literature and visual art throughout the centuries from the writing of early explorers such as Cartier and Champlain to work by prominent contemporary authors and artists from the province William J Berg traces recurrent images and themes within these creations through the most significant periods in the development of a Quebecois identity that was threatened initially by the wilderness and indigenous populations and later by the dominance of British and American influences Focusing on the interplay between nature and culture in landscape representation Literature and Painting in Quebec contends that both have reflected and fashioned the meaning of French Canadian nationhood As such Literature and Painting in Quebec presents a new perspective to approach the notion of national identity a quest that few groups have engaged in more persistently than the Quebecois

Power from the North Caroline Desbiens, 2013-05-15 In the 1970s Hydro Quebec declared We Are Hydro

Qu b cois The slogan symbolized the intimate ties that had emerged between hydroelectric development in the North and French Canadian aspirations in the South Caroline Desbiens focuses on the first phase of the James Bay hydroelectric project to explore how this culture of hydroelectricity hastened the erasure of Aboriginal homelands and the manipulation of Northern Quebec s material landscape She concludes that truly sustainable resource development will depend on all actors bringing an awareness of their cultural histories and visions of nature North and nation to the negotiating table Between the New Country and the Old World Erin E. Edgington, 2025-09-12 Poet and provocateur William Chapman 1850 1917 wrote patriotic verse recounting the history of New France envisioning a glorious future for its descendants Despite his many literary achievements he was a two time laureate of the Acad mie fran aise and a nominee for the Nobel Prize in Literature Chapman is more often remembered for his explosive feud with Louis Fr chette a rivalry that pitted the two national poets against one another and played out in vicious invective across the pages of Quebec newspapers Chapman s lifelong quest to glorify French Canada and accumulate literary prestige in North America and Europe positioned him squarely between the new country and the old world Over the course of his forty year career Chapman published five collections of poetry Les Qu becquoises 1876 Les Feuilles d rable 1890 Les Aspirations 1904 Les Rayons du Nord 1909 and Les Fleurs de givre 1912 whose very titles underscore his devotion to French Canadian identity as well as his literary ambition Integrating close readings of Chapman s verse with archival material related to his writing life Erin Edgington revisits his full oeuvre on its own terms and in context discerning the particular ways Chapman expressed the ideas of literary value and national literature that motivated him from a young age from juvenilia like Les Mines d or de la Beauce 1881 to his polemical essays and his unfinished magnum opus L pop e canadienne Between the New Country and the Old World challenges the prevailing narrative that has labelled Chapman a second rate forgettable poet showing how his life and work reveal important insights into literary fame poetics in a transitional moment at the turn of the century and the history of French literature in North America
