Behind the Pitch Eden Butler, 2021-07-24 Note: This is a novella told from Declan Fraser's point of view based on events that take place in Chasing Serenity. This is a companion piece to that novel, and as such, the author recommends reading Chasing Serenity before Behind the Pitch. This is NOT a rehash of Chasing Serenity. Expat Irish rugby player Declan Fraser only wanted to play the sport he loves. He didn't want to be stuck in this middle-of-nowhere town at this all-too-quaint university. He didn't want his team captain to be an entitled jackass who switched Declan's position on the squad just to make himself look good. And he sure as hell didn't want to fall in love with graduate student Autumn McShane. Autumn is stubborn but gorgeous; she bristles at any hint of dependency on anyone or anything, but she's also a survivor. She's everything Declan didn't know he wanted. When Autumn finds herself in the middle of a challenging bet with her ex-boyfriend who just happens to be the arrogant team captain that Declan hates, he feels honor-bound to help her out. But he didn't expect to fall for her in the process. Behind the Pitch reveals the most twisted and erotic thoughts in Declan's head as he navigates through his on-again-off-again frustrating and deeply erotic relationship with Autumn McShane. And lordy, does he have a filthy mind.
