Solomon's Knot Robert D. Cooter, Hans-Bernd Schäfer, 2011-12-27 Why law is critical to innovation and economic growth Sustained growth depends on innovation whether it s cutting edge software from Silicon Valley an improved assembly line in Sichuan or a new export market for Swaziland s leather Developing a new idea requires money which poses a problem of trust The innovator must trust the investor with his idea and the investor must trust the innovator with her money Robert Cooter and Hans Bernd Sch fer call this the double trust dilemma of development Nowhere is this problem more acute than in poorer nations where the failure to solve it results in stagnant economies In Solomon s Knot Cooter and Sch fer propose a legal theory of economic growth that details how effective property contract and business laws help to unite capital and ideas They also demonstrate why ineffective private and business laws are the root cause of the poverty of nations in today s world Without the legal institutions that allow innovation and entrepreneurship to thrive other attempts to spur economic growth are destined to fail

Women in Biotechnology Francesca Molino, Flavia Zucco, 2008-08-05 Johannes Klumbers Biotechnologies such as genetic engineering cloning and biodiversity raise many legal and ethical concerns so it is important that people understand these issues and feel able to express their opinions This is why the European Commission has been for a number of years supporting actions to improve communication among scientists in these diverse areas The project Women in Biotechnology WONBIT financed under the 6th Framework programme of the European Commission is an excellent example of what can be done to target opinion formers such as scientists economists and lawyers in bottom up activities and to encourage a debate on gender issues triggered by developments in the life sciences WONBIT gave rise to a successful international conference highlighting the importance of adopting good practices and ethical considerations in parallel with the rapid pace of progress in biotechnology from a woman's point of view. In particular, the conference addressed women in decision-making positions in biotechnology with specific reference to scientific excellence, social competencies and management qualities as well as issues relating to environment, society and the younger generation. But it did not stop there; a key part of the conference was dedicated to stimulating public debate among non-specialists, which has led to a number of recommendations to policy makers on better communication in biotechnology, on taking better account of the gender aspects of research and on involving more women in the decision-making process that surrounds developments in biotechnology.

The Sage Handbook of Decolonial Theory Jairo I. Fúnez-Flores, Ana Carolina Díaz Beltrán, Sabelo J. Ndlovu-Gatsheni, Sandeep Bakshi, Augustin

Lao-Montes, Flavia Rios, 2025-07-25. The Sage Handbook of Decolonial Theory is a groundbreaking transdisciplinary resource that expands the epistemological and geographical horizons of decolonial thought. This handbook prioritizes the Global South, fostering South-North and South-South inter-epistemic dialogues and situating decolonial thought in sites of struggle. It builds on decolonial thought and praxis from Latin America and the Caribbean, Africa, Asia, and Palestine among other regions and countries. Addressing the erasure of knowledge production from the Global South in dominant academic spaces, this handbook brings together decolonial scholars and activist intellectuals from the Global South and engages with politically committed scholars in the Global North. It emphasizes the geopolitics and ethics of knowledge production and the importance of situating one's work in historically excluded regions and communities. Organized into five parts, the handbook includes conceptual essays and empirical studies on decolonial thought and praxis. It covers a range of topics from decoloniality, geopolitics and transdisciplinarity to decolonial feminisms, gender and sexuality studies, and racial capitalism. The chapters convey a sense of urgency and a committed political voice, demonstrating how decolonial theory can interrogate and intervene in the modern colonial, racial capitalist, heteropatriarchal world. The Sage Handbook of Decolonial Theory is not just for academics; it is written for anyone interested in radical thought and praxis. It recognizes decolonial theory as a plural and dynamic field concerned with power, hierarchies, historiography, and epistemological critiques of Eurocentrism. Ultimately, it teaches us how to think with and act alongside struggles for liberation.

Part I: Key Debates in Decolonial Theory
Part II: Geopolitics and Geographies
Part III: Transdisciplinarity
Part IV: Feminisms, Genders, Sexualities
Part V: Racial Capitalism

Jacob M. Appel, winner of the Dundee International Book Award and the Hudson Prize. Honour, Consciousness, Religion and Gender Flavia Bellieni Zimmermann, 2024-11-18 The book explains how honour, consciousness shapes the lives of Brazilian and Pakistani women in their countries of origin and the relationship between honour, religion and gender, highlighting the question: is honour, consciousness experienced differently by men and women? In this book, I explore how lived experiences of honour, consciousness and religion in Brazil and Pakistan are hybridised and operate on a spectrum and are manifested through gender power relations and demonstrated through moderate and extreme notions of honour consciousness and how these are transmitted to Australia These concepts give a new epistemological perspective to the use of Hegel and Foucault within gender studies The Art of Medieval Spain, A.D. 500-1200 Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.),1993
