Reading Programs for Young Adults Martha Seif Simpson,2015-11-16 School and public libraries often provide programs and activities for children in preschool through the sixth grade but there is little available to young adults For them libraries become a place for work the place to research an assignment or find a book for a report but the thought of the library as a place for enjoyment is lost So how do librarians recapture the interest of teenagers This just might be the answer Here you will find theme based units such as Cartoon Cavalcade Log On at the Library Go in Style Cruising the Mall Space Shots Teens on TV and 44 others that are designed for young adults Each includes a display idea suggestions for local sponsorship of prizes a program game to encourage participation 10 theme related activities curriculum tie in activities sample questions for use in trivia games or scavenger hunts ideas for activity sheets a bibliography of related works and a list of theme related films The units are highly flexible allowing any public or school library to adapt them to their particular needs Caroline Cooney Pamela S.

Carroll,2001-09 Cooney's large body of work for adolescents defies easy classification She has written award winning adventure suspense romance family mystery and historical fiction as well as action driven horror stories and a time travel trilogy Her purpose in some books most notably horror like The Perfume is just to encourage reluctant readers to enjoy literature However in her most serious and artistic books Cooney relies on a source that is likely to surprise her readers biblical stories and parables For example readers can find the seed of the idea that eventually became Whatever Happened to Janie in the story of King Solomon's wisdom when he was asked to decide which of two women both of whom claimed to be mother of an infant should be recognized as the true mother The parable of the Good Samaritan provides a backdrop in several of Cooney's most successful novels Cooney's understated use of biblical stories and the way her Christian faith subtly informs her fiction are explored in the book The organization of the text reflects Cooney's major fiction categories the Janie mysteries romances catastrophe novels horror and suspense novels the time travel trilogy and her historical fiction

Representative books are discussed in detail within each chapter Although most of the text is devoted to critical analysis of her literary work and of the intersection of fiction and faith in her novels Cooney s biography is also presented within the frame of her life as a single mother of grown children The influences of her talents as an organist who played regularly for her church the lessons she has learned from her children when they were teenagers and life experiences that have led her to consider issues of race and gender are examples of issues that are discussed For children s and YA libraries and students of children s literature Multidisciplinary Units for Grades 6-8 Susan Pauline O'Hara, Maureen McMahon, 2003 Contains multidisciplinary units featuring the use of computer and other educational technologies and based on the National Educational Technology Standards for Students devised by ISTE Kliatt Young Adult Paperback Book Guide , 1994
