Inspiration in the Age of Enlightenment Sarah Eron, 2014-03-20 Inspiration in the Age of Enlightenment reconsiders theories of apostrophe and poetic authority to argue that the Augustan age created a new form of inspiration one that not only changed the relationship of literary production to authority in the modern period but also crucially contributes to defining the movement of secularization in literature from the Renaissance to Romanticism Seeking to redefine what we mean by secularization in the early stages of modernity Eron argues that secularization's link to enthusiasm or inspiration often associated with Romanticism begins in the imaginative literature of the early eighteenth century If Romantic enthusiasm has been described through the rhetoric of transport or unworlding then Augustan invocation appears more akin to a process of worlding in its central aim to appeal to the social other as a function of the eighteenth century belief in a literary public sphere By reformulating the passive structure of ancient invocation and subjecting it to the more dialogical methods of modern apostrophe and address authors such as the Third Earl of Shaftesbury Alexander Pope Henry Fielding and Anna Laetitia Barbauld formally revise inspiration in a way that generates a new and distinctive representation of the author In this context inspiration becomes a social gesture an apostrophe to a friend or judging spectator or an allusion to the mental or aesthetic faculties of the author himself his genius Articulating this struggle toward modernity at its inception this book examines modern authority at the moment of its extraordinariness when it was still tied to the creative energies of inspiration to the revelatory powers that marked the awakening of a new age an era and an ethos of Enlightenment

Grunt Peter Michael Cox, 2012-06-11 There is another four letter word associated with work life Beyond providing us with a means to live and survive it can be a key as Freud noted to self esteem self identity and how we value life Now Dr Siggie nor I believe that work can only be satisfying if you make a ton of money or become famous and powerful Rather what Herr Doktor was getting at I believe was do you love what you do to earn a living If so then you ve achieved one of the key components of wellbeing But this philosophical tenet raises a basic question If you love your work is it really work An equally troubling question Conversely for those people who dislike their jobs are they justified in disliking life and themselves
