The Knowledge Gap Natalie Wexler, 2019-08-06 Essential reading for teachers education administrators and policymakers alike STARRED Library Journal The untold story of the root cause of America's education crisis It was only after years within the education reform movement that Natalie Wexler stumbled across a hidden explanation for our country's frustrating lack of progress when it comes to providing every child with a quality education The problem wasn't one of the usual scapegoats lazy teachers shoddy facilities lack of accountability It was something no one was talking about the elementary school curriculum's intense focus on decontextualized reading comprehension skills at the expense of actual knowledge In the tradition of Dale Russakoff's The Prize and Dana Goldstein's The Teacher Wars Wexler brings together history research and compelling characters to pull back the curtain on this fundamental flaw in our education system one that fellow reformers journalists and policymakers have long overlooked and of which the general public including many parents remains unaware But The Knowledge Gap isn't just a story of what schools have gotten so wrong it also follows innovative educators who are in the process of shedding their deeply ingrained habits and describes the rewards that have come along students who are not only excited to learn but are also acquiring the knowledge and vocabulary that will enable them to succeed If we truly want to fix our education system and unlock the potential of our neediest children we have no choice but to pay attention

Theologies on the Move Joerg Rieger, 2020-10-13 Theologies on the Move Religion Migration and Pilgrimage in the World of Neoliberal Capital speaks to the reality that many religions have developed in motion with people exploring new boundaries migrating and being displaced Consequently major religious traditions form as they come into contact with other religions and cultures typically in situations of struggle and pressure Due to neoliberal capitalism more people are on the move today than ever before Most are driven by necessity migration due to violence poverty and perceived poverty others by religious quests that are often fueled by experiences of tension pilgrimage The chapters in this volume explore the complexity of these situations examining in detail how theology and religion shape up in various contexts on the move and investigating specific problems and tensions in order to suggest solutions alternatives and new possibilities

Russian Modernization Markku Kivinen, Brendan G. Humphreys, 2020-11-29 Building on an original interpretation of social theory and an interdisciplinary approach this book creates a new paradigm in the Russian studies Taking a fresh view of Russia's multiple experiences of modernization it seeks to explain the Putin era in a completely new way This book explores the paradoxical and contradictory aspects of Russia analyzing the energy dependent economy and hybrid political regime but also religion welfare and culture and their often complex interrelations Written by a community of both Western and Russian scholars this book reaffirms the value of social science when confronting a society that has undergone enormous and costly systematic changes The Russian elites see modernization narrowly as economic and technological competitiveness The contributors to this volume see contemporary Russia facing a series of antinomies which are macro level dilemmas that cannot be abolished either by philosophical mediation or by immediate political decisions As such they are the tension fields that constitute choices for various competing agencies This book will be of interest to scholars and students of Russian studies transition studies sociology social policy political science energy policy cultural studies and stratification studies Professionals involved in energy ecology and security policy will also find this publication a rich source
