Geographical Reasoning and Learning Sonia Maria Vanzella Castellar, Marcelo Garrido-Pereira, Nubia Moreno Lache, 2021-09-15 This book presents the distinctive theoretical and methodological approaches in geography education in South America and more specifically in Brazil Chile and Colombia It highlights cartography and maps as essential tools and provides a meaningful approach to learning in geographical education thereby giving children and young people the opportunity to better understand their situations contexts and social conditions The book describes how South American countries organize their scholar curriculum and the ways in which they deal with geography vocabulary and developing fundamental concepts methodologies epistemological comprehension on categories keywords and themes in geography It also describes its use in teachers practices and learning progressions the use of spatial representations as a potent mean to visualize and solve questions and harnesses spatial thinking and geographical reasoning development The book helps to improve teaching and learning practices in primary and secondary education and as such it provides an interesting read for researchers students and teachers of geography and social studies Resources in Education ,1999 Maths ,

Geographic Thought George L. Henderson, Marvin Waterstone, 2009 This unabridged reader offers a fresh approach to learning about Geographic Thought by showing through concrete examples and detailed editorial essays how the discipline has been forever altered by the rise of progressive social struggles of the last 30 years Research in Education ,1974

Educational Innovation in Developing Countries Keith M. Lewin, Janet S. Stuart, 2016-01-01 Because of the insights offered the book under review should be compulsory reading for Ministers of Education and educational planners as well as for students of educational reform They would find it readable informative and disturbing This could well become a classic account of why innovations fail Keith Watson Department of Education Studies and Management University of Reading Educational investment is now back at the top of the development agenda The World Conference on Education for All confirmed the commitment of national governments and donors to provide opportunities for all children to enrol in school and reach minimum levels of achievement This book takes a new look at the problems that confront politicians planners curriculum developers and teachers in implementing educational innovations in developing countries The insights into theory and practice that emerge provide the intellectual yeast for the development of effective innovation strategies for the next decade Teaching Humanities & Social Sciences Rob Gilbert, Libby Tudball, Peter Brett, 2019-10-17 Teaching Humanities and Social Sciences 7e prepares teachers to develop and implement programs in the humanities and social sciences learning area from F 10 It successfully blends theory with practical approaches to provide a basis for teaching that is engaging inquiry based and relevant to students lives Using Version 8 1 of the Australian Curriculum the text discusses the new structure of the humanities and social sciences learning area Chapters on history geography civics and citizenship and economics and business discuss the nature of these subjects and how to teach them to achieve the greatest benefit for students both as sub strands within the Year F 6 7 HASS subject and as distinct Year 7 10 subjects Throughout the book maintains its highly respected philosophical and practical orientation including a commitment to deep learning in a context of critical inquiry With the aid of this valuable text teachers can assist primary middle and secondary students to become active and informed citizens who contribute to a just democratic and sustainable future Education in Singapore Yew-Jin Lee, 2022-04-06 This edited book is a comprehensive resource for understanding the history as well as the current status of educational practices in Singapore It is a one stop reference guide to education and educational issues concerns here There are three sections Part 1 provides a sectorial overview of how education has been organized in this country such as preschool special needs primary and secondary and adult education divisions In Part 2 contributors critically delve into issues and policies that are pertinent to understanding education here such as underachievement leadership language education assessment and meritocracy to question what Part 1 might have taken for granted Part 3 contains the largest number of contributors because it offers a scholarly examination into specific subject histories This section stands out because of the comparative rarity of its subject matter history of Physical Education Art Music Geography Education etc in Singapore Practical Design Patterns for Teaching and Learning with Technology Yishay Mor, Harvey Mellor, Steven Warburton, Niall Winters, 2014-05-08 These are challenging times in which to be an educator The constant flow of innovation offers new opportunities to support learners in an environment of ever shifting demands Educators work as they have always done making the most of the resources at hand and dealing with constraints to provide experiences which foster growth This was John Dewey's ideal of education 80 years ago and it is still relevant today This view sees education as a practice that achieves its goals through creative processes involving both craft and design Craft is visible in the resources that educators produce and in their interactions with learners Design though is tacit and educators are often unaware of their own design practices The rapid pace of change is shifting the balance from craft to design requiring that educators design work become visible shareable and malleable The participatory patterns workshop is a method for doing this through engaging practitioners in collaborative reflection leading to the production of structured representations of design knowledge The editors have led many such workshops and this book is a record of that endeavour and its outcomes in the form of practical design narratives patterns and scenarios that can be used to address challenges in teaching and learning with technology The East African Geographical Review, 1973
