emphasizes analytics as part of a process that supports decision making within organizations. It wants to debunk overblown expectations that somehow analytics outputs or analytics as applied to other concepts such as Big Data are the be all and end all of the analytics process. They are instead only a step within a holistic and critical approach to management thinking that can create real value for an organization. To develop this holistic approach, the book is divided into two sections that examine concepts and applications. The first section makes the case for executive management taking a holistic approach to analytics. It draws on rich research in operations and management science that form the context in which analytics tools are to be applied. There is a strong emphasis on knowledge management concepts and techniques as well as risk management concepts and techniques. The second section focuses on both the use of the analytics process and organizational issues that are required to make the analytics process relevant and impactful.

Contemporary Research Methods and Data Analytics in the News Industry Gibbs, William J., McKendrick, Joseph, 2015-07-01 The advent of digital technologies has changed the news and publishing industries drastically. While shrinking newsrooms may be a concern for many journalists and publishing professionals are working to reorient their skills and capabilities to employ technology for the purpose of better understanding and engaging with their audiences. Contemporary Research Methods and Data Analytics in the News Industry highlights the research behind the innovations and emerging practices being implemented within the journalism industry. This crucial industry shattering publication focuses on key topics in social media and video streaming as a new form of media communication as well the application of big data and data analytics for collecting information and drawing conclusions about the current and future state of print and digital news. Due to significant insight surrounding the latest applications and technologies affecting the news industry, this publication is a must-have resource for journalists, analysts, news media professionals, social media strategists, researchers, television news producers, and upper-level students in journalism and media studies. This timely industry resource includes key topics on the changing scope of the news and publishing industries including but not limited to big data, broadcast journalism, computational journalism, computer-mediated communication, data scraping, digital media, news media, social media, text mining, and user experience.

Managing Today's News Media Samir Husni, Debora Halpern Wenger, Hank Price, 2015-07-29 The business of journalism is in the midst of massive change. Managing Today's News Media Audience First offers practical solutions on how to cope with and adapt to the evolving media landscape. News media experts Samir Husni, Debora Halpern Wenger, and Hank Price introduce a forward-looking framework for understanding why change is occurring and what it means to the business of journalism. Central to this new paradigm is a focus on the audience. The authors introduce The 4Cs Strategy to describe how customers, choice, and change are all part of a strategy for successful media organizations. Real-world case studies, important theoretical grounding, and a focus on understanding rather than resisting the customer's desire for choice and control make this an unbeatable resource for students and managers alike who want to succeed in this changed media business landscape.

The Complete Guide to

Using Google in Libraries Carol Smallwood, 2015-02-26 Carol Smallwood's The Complete Guide to Using Google in Libraries Volume 1: Instruction Administration and Staff Productivity explores how Google's suite of tools from Google Docs now Google Drive Google Scholar Hangout Forms and others made freely available to the Internet Community can be used by libraries to expand the role of digital operations in the management of library materials to communicate with their patrons and collaborators to exploit the resources on the Web and many others. The book has 29 chapters organized into sections that focus on ways that Google's suite of tools can be applied to address problems in a specific area of library concern. The section headings are Library Instruction for Users Collaboration within and among libraries Library Administration Collection Management and Library Productivity.
