Accelerated Learning for Breakthrough Results Debbie Craig, 2014-10-30 This book focuses on the shift from training to learning to collaborative learning in the modern socially networked age. It also covers how to accelerate talent engagement, development and organisational change for Breakthrough Results. It outlines key principles, processes and tools to accelerate learning in organisations using the latest research in Neuroscience and practical case studies which bring learning to life. The book covers paradigm shifts in learning, whole brain, whole person approaches to learning, creating learning cultures and designing Accelerated Learning programmes which are relevant to individuals, business leaders and learning specialists. Accelerated Learning for Breakthrough Results covers the following topics and ends with two case studies that will show how all of the various aspects of accelerated learning can be pulled together to create real high impact learning for breakthrough results.

PART 1 Paradigm Shift for Accelerated Learning
PART 2 Whole Brain Whole Person Approach to Learning
PART 3 Creating a Learning Culture
PART 4 Designing Accelerated Learning Programmes
PART 5 Making it Real Case Studies of Accelerated Learning

The authors invite readers to engage with the topic and accelerate their learning through various gamification mechanics and brain break activities in the book and online. There is a rabbit warren of resources, tools and rewards available through opting in to an online process and ways of interacting with other readers and learners through social media.

Contributing Authors: Natalie Cunningham, John Gatherer, Darryn van den Berge. In many ways, this book reminded me of Peter Senge's The Fifth Discipline, which similarly inspired me a few years back. This book is very detailed and discusses new approaches, techniques and methods to achieve liberating yet learning-centred breakthrough results at individual, team and organisational level. Chief Human Resource Officers as well as their peers and Chief Learning Officers and their associated practitioners will all benefit from not just reading this very compelling text but studying and applying all its valuable lessons in their quest both to accelerate learning and achieve tangible results.

e Johan Ludike, Head of Talent Management, Yum University, Yum Brands Africa. Congratulations to Debbie and Kerryn who have captured the essence of accelerated learning, a process which particularly in a dynamic markets context is so important to change the status quo where so many people have potential for greatness but have often lacked opportunities and mentorship.

e Shaun Rozyn, Executive Director, Corporate Education, Gordon Institute of Business Science. e What an amazing read! It is truly a book that keeps on giving. It stimulates thinking about accelerated learning and is full of modern and practical content presented in an easily accessible and understandable manner. The gamification throughout the book places the reader in the milieu of an active learner through the experience of reading the book and accelerating one's own learning.

e Liza Govender, Executive Manager, Talent, Transnet. Both Kerryn and Debbie bring their valuable practical lessons learnt, their passion for this subject and their deep expertise in this field to us in a practical and useful manner. I have had the good fortune of working in organisations and in consulting for organisations in this field for over 20 years and I wish I had had this book 20

The Schenley Experiment Jake Oresick,2017-04-14 The Schenley Experiment is the story of Pittsburgh's first public high school a social incubator in a largely segregated city that was highly even improbably successful throughout its 156 year existence Established in 1855 as Central High School and reorganized in 1916 Schenley High School was a model of innovative public education and an ongoing experiment in diversity Its graduates include Andy Warhol actor Bill Nunn and jazz virtuoso Earl Hines and its prestigious academic program and pensions lured such teachers as future Pulitzer Prize winner Willa Cather The subject of investment as well as destructive neglect the school reflects the history of the city of Pittsburgh and provides a study in both the best and worst of urban public education practices there and across the Rust Belt Integrated decades before Brown v Board of Education Schenley succumbed to default segregation during the white flight of the 1970s it rose again to prominence in the late 1980s when parents camped out in six day long lines to enroll their children in visionary superintendent Richard C Wallace's reinvigorated school Although the historic triangular building was a cornerstone of its North Oakland neighborhood and a showpiece for the city of Pittsburgh officials closed the school in 2008 citing over 50 million in necessary renovations a controversial event that captured national attention Schenley alumnus Jake Oresick tells this story through interviews historical documents and hundreds of first person accounts drawn from a community indelibly tied to the school A memorable important work of local and educational history his book is a case study of desegregation magnet education and the changing nature and legacies of America s oldest public schools *Revista de educación nº 370.
