funded and shaped by major foundations but they work from the bottom up through charter school operators managing networks of schools This strategy has built grassroots political momentum and demand for reform in Los Angeles that is unmatched in New York City and other districts with mayoral control Reckhow s study of Los Angeles s education system shows how democratically responsive urban school reform could occur pairing foundation investment with broad grassroots involvement Bringing a sharp analytical eye and a wealth of evidence to one of the most politicized issues of our day Follow the Money will reshape our thinking about educational reform in America Sick Schools David V.
