These challenges require a variety of approaches to management, but I think you can see the general idea: get your hands dirty, or get offed (depending on the concept), always maintaining an awareness of those fundamental principles and how they apply to the situation. And, as always, always be honest. I think honesty is one of the most important qualities a leader can have, and it's the only way to build trust and credibility. I think honesty is also the only way to build a strong team, and it's the only way to build a strong organization. I think honesty is the only way to build a strong future.
