Hunter's Death Michelle West,1996-06-01 Averalaan the most ancient of cities had long been the home of magics both dark and bright For the site where this most civilized city of mortals now stood had once been a dread place indeed a citadel of evil ruled by the Lord of the Hells Only through the greatest of sacrifices had he been contained and cast back into his own dimension And though the passing centuries had all but obliterated the memories of that terrible time trouble was once again stirring in the hidden byways of Averalaan The first warning that the Dark Lord s minions were at work came from a pack of street rats led by a young woman gifted with the ability to see the truth even when it was hidden behind carefully spell crafted illusions And as she carried her warning to The Terafin head of one of the most powerful families in the land others too were rallying to Averalaan s aid Blessed or cursed by their Hunter God and gifted with his most unique creation the Hunter Lord Gilliam and his huntbrother Stephen were about to do the unthinkable Guided by the seer Evayne they would journey beyond the borders of their kingdom something no Hunter Lord had ever done For only in Averalaan could they find their true destiny even if it meant facing the Dark Lord himself

The book's topics can be divided into three broad categories: basic doctrine for new believers, confession of sin, the nature of worship, assurance of salvation, and more basic wisdom for living in community relationships, conversation, the meaning of masculinity and femininity, etc., and cultural criticism for beginners, authenticity, the cool and competition, and ambition for starters. Each bite-size chapter contains a worksheet of questions from relevant portions of the Bible along with a full answer key. Hunters Oath: When the covenant was made with the Hunter God, all who dwelt in Breodanir swore to abide by it. The Hunter Lords and the hunting dogs to which their minds were specially attuned would seek out game in the God's woods to provide food for their people, and the Hunter God would ensure that the Hunters, the land, and the people prospered. But in payment, once a year, the Sacred Hunt must be called: the God's own Hunt, in which the prey became one of the Lords or his huntbrother. This was the Hunter's Oath, sworn by each Lord and his huntbrother, the companion chosen from the common folk to remind each Lord of his own ties to humanity. It was the Oath pledged in blood by Gilliam of Elseth and the orphan boy Stepehn, and the fulfillment of that Oath would lead them to the kind of destiny from which legends were made.
