Intimacy on the Internet Lauren Rosewarne, 2016-04-14 The focus of this book is on the media representations of the use of the Internet in seeking intimate connections be it a committed relationship a hook up or a community in which to dabble in fringe sexual practices Popular culture film narrative television the news media and advertising present two very distinct pictures of the use of the Internet as related to intimacy From news reports about victims of online dating to the presentation of the desperate and dateless the perverts and the deviants a distinct frame for the intimacy Internet connection is negativity In some examples however a changing picture is emerging The ubiquitousness of Internet use today has meant a slow increase in comparatively more positive representations of successful online romances in the news resulting in more positive spin advertising and a more even handed presence of such liaisons in narrative television and film Both the positive and the negative media representations are categorised and analysed in this book to explore what they reveal about the intersection of gender sexuality technology and the changing mores regarding intimacy
