Investigating Modern Art:

Investigating Modern Art Liz Dawtrey, Elizabeth Dawtrey, Toby Jackson, Mary Masterton, Pam Meecham, Paul Wood, 1996-01-01 Modern art sometimes seems difficult or even impossible to understand In this appealing book modern art becomes accessible through clear and informative discussions about modern artists art movements and art works Charting the development of modern art from the nineteenth century through the present day each chapter focuses on particular artists and works of art placing them in their artistic contexts and discussing them from a variety of viewpoints Issues of gender and ethnicity criticisms of the accepted canon of modern art and important social and political influences on the institutions of art are woven into the discussion of key artists such as Picasso Matisse Pollock and Warhol and movements such as Cubism Surrealism Abstract Impressionism and Minimal Art Modern Art Pam Meecham, Julie Sheldon, 2000 This textbook provides a comprehensive guide to modern and post modern art The authors bring together history theory and the art works themselves to help students understand how and why art has developed during the 20th century Midcentury Modern Art in Texas Katie Robinson Edwards, 2014-07-01 Before Abstract Expressionism of New York City was canonized as American postwar modernism the United States was filled with localized manifestations of modern art One such place where considerable modernist activity occurred was Texas where artists absorbed and interpreted the latest most radical formal lessons from Mexico the East Coast and Europe while still responding to the state s dramatic history and geography This barely known chapter in the story of American art is the focus of Midcentury Modern Art in Texas Presenting new research and artwork that has never before been published Katie Robinson Edwards examines the contributions of many modernist painters and sculptors in Texas with an emphasis on the era s most abstract and compelling artists Edwards looks first at the Dallas Nine and the 1936 Texas Centennial which offered local artists a chance to take stock of who they were and where they stood within the national artistic setting She then traces the modernist impulse through various manifestations including the foundations of early Texas modernism in Houston early practitioners of abstraction and non objectivity the Fort Worth Circle artists at the University of Texas at Austin Houston artists in the 1950s sculpture in and around an influential Fort Worth studio and to see how some Texas artists fared on a national scale the Museum of Modern Art s Americans exhibitions The first full length treatment of abstract art in Texas during this vital and canon defining period Midcentury Modern Art in Texas gives these artists their due place in American art while also valuing the quality of Texan ness that subtly undergirds much of their production Conceptual Revolutions in Twentieth-Century Art David W. Galenson, 2009-09-14 From Picasso s Cubism and Duchamp s readymades to Warhol s silkscreens and Smithson s earthworks the art of the twentieth century broke completely with earlier artistic traditions A basic change in the market for advanced art produced a heightened demand for innovation and young conceptual innovators from Picasso and Duchamp to Rauschenberg and Warhol to Cindy Sherman and Damien Hirst responded not only by creating dozens of new forms of art

but also by behaving in ways that would have been incomprehensible to their predecessors

Conceptual Revolutions in Twentieth Century Art presents the first systematic analysis of the reasons for this discontinuity David W Galenson whose earlier research has changed our understanding of creativity combines social scientific methods with qualitative analysis to produce a fundamentally new interpretation of modern art that will give readers a far deeper appreciation of the art of the past century and of today than is available elsewhere

Painting outside the Lines David W. Galenson, 2009-06-30 In a work that brings new insights and new dimensions to the history of modern art David Galenson examines the careers of more than 100 modern painters to disclose a fascinating relationship between age and artistic creativity

Art and the Academy in the Nineteenth Century Rafael Cardoso Denis, Colin Trodd, 2000 Throughout the nineteenth century academies functioned as the main venues for the teaching promotion and display of art Contemporary scholars have for the most part denigrated academic art calling it formulaic unoriginal and repetitious The contributors to Art and the Academy in the Nineteenth Century challenge this entrenched notion and consider how academies worldwide have represented an important system of artistic preservation and transmission Their essays eschew easy binaries that have reigned in academia for more than half a century and that simply oppose the avant garde to academicism

Artistic Capital David Galenson, 2006-05-02 David Galenson's work on the history of art is a unique fusion of econometrics and cultural analysis that is unprecedented in the literature on creativity in any discipline whether economics psychology literary studies or art history

Ford Madox Brown Colin Trodd,2022-07-19 This book argues that Ford Madox Brown s murals in the Great Hall of Manchester Town Hall 1878 93 were the most important public art works of their day Brown s twelve designs on the history of Manchester remarkable exercises in the making of historical vision were semi forgotten by academics until the 1980s partly because of Brown's unusually muscular conception of what history painting should set out to achieve. This ground-breaking book explains the thinking behind the programme and indicates how each mural contributes to a radical vision of social and cultural life. It shows the important link between Brown and Thomas Carlyle, the most iconoclastic of Victorian intellectuals, and reveals how Brown set about questioning the verities of British liberalism.

ArtSpeak: A Guide to Contemporary Ideas, Movements, and Buzzwords, 1945 to the Present (Third Edition) Robert Atkins, 2013-11-26. Interdisciplinary Unsettlings of Place and Space Sarah Pinto, Shelley Hannigan, Bernadette Walker-Gibbs, Emma Charlton, 2019-04-25. This book brings together researchers from different fields, traditions, and perspectives to examine the ways in which place and space might be unsettled. Researchers from across the humanities and social sciences have been drawn to the study of place and space since the 1970s, and the term 'unsettled' has been an occasional but recurring presence in this body of scholarship. Though it has been used to invoke a range of meanings, from the dangerous to the liberating, the term itself has rarely been at the centre of sustained examination. This collection highlights the idea of the unsettled in the scholarly investigation of place and space. The respective chapters offer a dialogue between a diverse and eclectic group of researchers crossing significant disciplinary and interdisciplinary boundaries in the process. The purpose of the collection is to juxtapose a range of different approaches to, and perspectives on, the unsettling of place and space. In doing so, Interdisciplinary Unsettlings of Place and Space makes an important contribution and offers new insights into how scholarship and research into different fields and practices may help us re-envision place and space.

Art, Elitism, Authenticity and Liberty Paul Clements, 2024-08-20. This book excavates the depths of creative purpose and meaning-making and the extent to which artist autonomy and authenticity in art is a struggle against psychological conditioning, controlling cultural institutions, and markets, key to which is representation. The chapters are underpinned by examples from the arts, and the narrative weaves a trail through a range of conceptualizations that are applied to various aspects of visual culture, from mainstream canonical arts to avant-garde, community and public art, social and political art, to commercial art and ethereal art, to the popular, edgy, and kitsch. The book is wide-ranging and employs various aesthetic, cultural, philosophical, political, psycho-social, and sociological debates to highlight the problems and contradictions that an encounter with the arts and creativity engenders The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history museum studies arts management cultural policy cultural studies and cultural theory The Social Construction of Management Nancy Harding, 2004-06-01 What is management and how do the people who become managers take on a managerial identity How does text inform the manager's identity From cultural studies we understand that the relationship between text and reader is not passive but that each one works upon the other and that text is active in forming the identity of the reader This book is the first to analyse how many management textbooks construct their readers It analyses management textbooks published since the 1950s and shows they construct a world in which chaos is kept at bay only by strong management and in which strong management is based upon the rationality of modernity This book exposes and analyses such claims to truths and theorizes their arguments using the work of Butler and Foucault the sociology of scientific knowledge critical legal studies art history and queer theory By revealing a postmodern turn in management textbooks The Social Construction of Management is both a critical and empirical study that explores the constitution of managerial identities in the age of mass education in management An exciting contribution to the growing body of knowledge within critical management studies this book challenges the way we think about organizations and their management and about management education as a whole This is thought provoking reading for anyone studying management or working in the managerial organization Ben Enwonwu Sylvester Okwunodu Ogbechie, 2008 An intellectual biography of a modern African artist and his immense contribution to twentieth century art history Sublime Economy Jack Amariglio, Joseph W. Childers, Stephen E. Cullenberg, 2008-11-25 Bringing together economists literary and art critics philosophers sociologists and others this book fosters the emergence of a rich set of concerns about the intersections of art aesthetics and economics
