Compete, Play, Win David Apostolico, 2009-10-13 Told from the viewpoint of a self-described competition junkie Compete Play Win is a look at the psychology behind the competitive drive a look at the sociological ramifications of acting on competitive impulses and a book of advice on how to channel those impulses for personal gain in business sport and in life In a chapter called Sperm Wars author David Apostolico pinpoints conception as the beginning of our competitive nature and discusses the competition for a mate that precedes that setting up the idea that competition is a biological necessity and evolution has embraced and modified that drive In a later chapter called Competitive Nation Apostolico uses himself as a test subject entering a far flung variety of contests including competitive eating contests dog shows and drag races in order to test how far he as a competitive junkie is willing to go for victory At the end of each event he answers a list of ten questions concluding with Can a competitive junkie ever feel truly satisfied Along this personal journey Apostolico draws parallels between personal competition and competition in the business world and imparts his firsthand knowledge of how to use the competitive drive to win at everything you do

The Physician's Guide to Investing Robert M. Doroghazi, Dan Wright French, 2007-11-03 I met Bob Doroghazi when he dropped the first draft of his manuscript of The Physician's Guide to Investing A Practical Approach to Building Wealth at my office I will have to admit I was a bit skeptical a physician writing a book on investments During that first meeting with Bob it became evident that he had been a successful physician and a successful investor so I agreed to take a look at the book I was in for a pleasant surprise Bob's manuscript was easy to read and had specific advice useful to physicians interspersed with lots of practical tidbits for any investor Having written three college level finance and investment texts I was excited to be in on a project aimed at offering practical investment advice to a more general yet specialized audience I had high expectations for the book and am pleased to say that I believe Bob has delivered a book that every physician interested in building wealth and protecting assets should read Bob is a straight shooter he tells it like he sees it in his book Some doctors might be indignant on reading his statements such as Physicians sometimes have no idea of their limitations This type of arrogance and ego can result in investing disaster However if you do have these limitations and most professionals even college professors do then reading Bob's book will help you recognize situations in which they can lead to poor investment decisions
