Semiotics and its Masters.

Volume 1 Kristian Bankov, Paul Cobley, 2017-05-22 This volume presents a broad range of topics and current frontline research by leading semioticians The contributions are representative of the most cutting edge work in semiotics but project as well the developments in the near future of the field

Church, Market, and Media Marcus Moberg, 2017-07-13 Marcus Moberg offers a new model of religion and religious life in the post war era through focusing on the role of markets and media as vectors of contemporary social and cultural change and therefore institutional religious change While there is wide agreement among sociologists of religion that there this area is transforming on a global scale there is less agreement about how these changes should best be approached and conceptualized In a time of accelerating institutional religious decline institutional Churches have become ever more susceptible to market associated discourse and language and are ever more compelled to adapt to the demands of the present day media environment Using discourse analysis Marcus Moberg tracks how new media and marketing language and concepts have entered Christian thinking and discourse Church Market and Media develops a framework that approaches changes in the contemporary religious field in direct relation to the changing socioeconomic makeup of contemporary societies on the whole Through focusing on the impact of markets and media within the contemporary religious setting of mainline institutional Christian churches in the Western world the book outlines new avenues for further theorizing the study of religious change

The Questions of Jesus in John Douglas Charles Estes, 2012-10-19 Why do the New Testament gospels depict a Jesus who asks questions almost as often as he gives answers In The Questions of Jesus in John Douglas Estes crafts a highly interdisciplinary theory of question asking based on insights from ancient rhetoric and modern erotetics the study of interrogatives in order to investigate the logical and rhetorical purposes of Jesus questions in the Gospel of John While scholarly discussion about Jesus cares more for what he says and not what he asks Estes argues a better understanding of the rhetorical and dialectical roles of questions in ancient narratives sheds a more accurate light on both John s narrative art and Jesus message in the Fourth Gospel

Language Testing, Migration and Citizenship Guus Extra, Massimiliano Spotti, Piet Van Avermaet, 2011-10-27 What is required to achieve civic integration and citizenship in nation states across the world Should language testing be a part of it This book addresses the urgent need to develop a fuller conceptual and theoretical basis for language testing than is currently available to enable widespread discussion of this theme and the concomitant linguistic and cultural requirements The policy proposals for civic integration have so far been conducted almost entirely at a national level and with little regard for the experiences of a countries with long traditions of migration such as the USA Canada the UK or Australia At the same time EU enlargement and the ongoing rise in the rate of migration into and across Europe suggest that these issues will continue to grow in importance This book raises the level of discussion to take account of international developments and to promote a more coherent and soundly based debate It will appeal to researchers and academics working in sociolinguistics and language education as well as those working on language policy

Globalization and Language in Contact James Collins, Mike

Baynham, Stef Slembrouck, 2011-10-27 This book examines the impact of globalization on languages in contact including the study of linkages between the global and local and transnational and situated communication It engages with social theory and social processes while grappling with questions of language analysis raised by globalized language contact Drawing on case studies from North America Europe and Africa the volume makes three important contributions to contemporary sociolinguistics by arguing that concepts of scale and space are essential for understanding contemporary sociolinguistic phenomena showing that the transnational flows and movements of peoples highlight the problem and work of identity in relation to both place and time addressing methodological challenges raised by different approaches to the study of globalization and language contact This cutting edge monograph featuring research by renowned international contributors will be of interest to academics researching sociolinguistics and language and globalization The Language of Newspapers

Martin Conboy, 2010-02-18 This book charts the connections between the language of journalism in England and its social impact on audiences and social and political debates from the first emergence of periodical publications in the seventeenth century to the present day It extends work done on the language of the media to include an historical perspective adding to wider contemporary debates about the social impact of the media It draws upon the field of historical pragmatics while retaining a concentration on the development of a particular form of media language the newspaper and its role in refracting and contributing to social developments Dialogue is created between sociolinguistics and journalism studies It is ideally suited to advanced students in these areas and in linguistics and media studies in general Globalization of Language and Culture in Asia Vinita Vaish, 2010-05-13 The impact of globalization processes on language is an emergent field in sociolinguistics To date there has not been an in depth look at this in Asia although Asia includes the two most populous globalizing economies of the world India and China Covering the major themes in the field of globalization and language this book will take a look at topics such as English emerging as the medium of instruction for subjects like mathematics and science Another theme is the rise of Mandarin as a potentially global language networking the Chinese diaspora The cultural contexts of Asia specifically the Sinic Hindu and Islamic civilizations give the processes of globalization and language a unique dimension This book is suitable for researchers and postgraduate students in all fields of sociolinguistic enquiry

Language, Culture and Identity Philip Riley, 2007-06-23 How language shapes and is shaped by identity is a key topic within sociolinguistics An individual's identity is constituted through a variety of different factors including the social linguistic cultural and ethnic contexts In this book Philip Riley looks at these issues against the theoretical background of the sociology of knowledge and ethnolinguistics asking how we learn who we are and how social identities are negotiated The idea of the foreigner is central to this account yet traditional views of the role of being socially other largely neglect the role of language Riley bridges this gap by examining problematic aspects of multilingual identities with particular reference to the notions of ethos and the communicative virtues This engaging analysis of language and social identity will be essential reading for students of sociolinguistics at undergraduate and postgraduate levels Language in the Media Sally Johnson, Astrid Ensslin, 2007-11-19 This book examines the ways in which the media represents language related issues but also how the media's use of language is central to the construction of what people think language is could or ought to be like The chapters examine issues of identity gender youth citizenship politics and ideology across a range of media including television radio newspapers magazines and the internet The result is a multilingual survey of the construction of language in and by the media that will be essential reading for students and researchers of sociolinguistics or language and communication Reterritorializing Linguistic Landscapes David Malinowski, Stefania Tufi, 2020-01-23 A historically spatially and methodologically rich sub field of sociolinguistics Linguistic Landscapes LL is a rapidly evolving area of research and study With contributions by an international team of experts from the USA Europe the UK South Africa Israel Hong Kong and Colombia this volume is a cutting edge interdisciplinary account of the most recent theoretical and empirical developments in this area It covers both the conceptual tools and methodologies used to define and question and case studies of real world phenomena to showcase Linguistic Landscapes methods in action Divided into four parts chapters bring into dialogue themes relating to reterritorialization practices and the productive nature of boundaries and spaces This book considers the contemporary challenges facing the field the politics and processes of identifying and demarcating sites of research and the ethics and pedagogical applications of LL research With comprehensive lists of further reading extended discussion questions and suggestions for independent research at the end of each chapter this is an essential reference work for all LL scholars and students who wish to keep abreast of the current state of the art White Belongings Scott Burnett, 2022-07-21 White Belongings Race Land and Property in Post Apartheid South Africa deepens ongoing critical deconstruction of the role of whiteness in maintaining racial order Scott Burnett argues that the protection of white entitlement and cultural connection to the land are intimately interwoven using detailed discourse analysis of campaigns aimed at preventing rhino poaching stopping fracking in the Karoo and advocating for the existence of a poverty crisis which reveal how whites hold on to their belongings in everyday talk White Belongings goes beyond the preoccupation with identity in whiteness studies to elaborate how specific subject roles and institutions are motivated and rationalized in hegemonic discursive regimes The Chinese Chameleon Revisited Zheng Yangwen 郑阳文, 2014-09-01 By examining how the Middle Kingdom has been portrayed by foreigners and the Chinese themselves this volume advances a new perspective in our reading and interpretation of the Chinese past by placing these producers and presenters of China in the spotlight The chapters probe how these figures produced or presented the country cross examining their backgrounds and circumstances Their gaze upon the Middle Kingdom was dictated by religious and political conviction but also particularly by the consumers of that gaze Like invisible hands producers and consumers of China continue to constrain representations of the country looming larger than the literary artistic or journalistic works they produce This volume also addresses scholars of Europe and

America who have overlooked what Western writers on China reveal about their own contexts which is indeed often more than they reveal about their ostensible subject As such the Middle Kingdom serves as a convenient mirror to reflect European and American anxieties and ambitions

Negotiating and Contesting Identities in Linguistic Landscapes Robert Blackwood, 2016-02-25 This collection represents contemporary perspectives on important aspects of research into the language in the public space known as the Linguistic Landscape LL with the focus on the negotiation and contestation of identities From four continents and examining vital issues across North America Africa Europe and Asia scholars with notable experience in LL research are drawn together in this the latest collection to be produced by core researchers in this field Building on the growing published body of research into LL work the fifteen data chapters test challenge and advance this sub field of sociolinguistics through their close examination of languages as they appear on the walls and in the public spaces of sites from South Korea to South Africa from Italy to Israel from Addis Ababa to Zanzibar The geographic coverage is matched by the depth of engagement with developments in this burgeoning field of scholarship As such this volume is an up to date collection of research chapters each of which addresses pertinent and important issues within their respective geographic spaces

The Languages of Urban Africa Fiona Mc Laughlin, 2011-10-27 The Languages of Urban Africa consists of a series of case studies that address four main themes The first is the history of African urban languages The second set focus on theoretical issues in the study of African urban languages exploring the outcomes of intense multilingualism and also the ways in which urban dwellers form their speech communities The volume then moves on to explore the relationship between language and identity in the urban setting The final two case studies in the volume address the evolution of urban languages in Africa This rich set of chapters examine languages and speech communities in ten geographically diverse African urban centres covering almost all regions of the continent Half involve Francophone cities the other half Anglophone This exciting volume shows us what the study of urban African languages can tell us about language and about African societies in general It is essential reading for upper level undergraduates postgraduates and researchers in sociolinguistics especially those interested in the language of Africa

Semiotic Landscapes Adam Jaworski, Crispin Thurlow, 2010-06-10 Landscapes generate meaning and impact on three major areas of scholarly interest language and visual discourse spatial practices and global capitalism

Intercultural Contact, Language Learning and Migration Barbara Geraghty, Jean Conacher, 2014-09-25 At the heart of this volume lies an exploration of what actually happens to languages and their users when cultures come into contact What actions do supra national institutions nation states communities and individuals take in response to questions raised by the increasingly diverse forms of migration experienced in a globalized world The volume reveals the profound impact that decisions made at national and international level can have on the lives of the individual migrant language student or speech community Equally it evaluates the broader ramifications of actions taken by migrant communities and individual language learners around issues of language learning language maintenance and intercultural contact Reflecting Jan Blommaert's assertion that in a world shaped by globalization what is needed is a theory of language in society of changing language in a changing society this volume argues that researchers must increasingly seek diverse methodological approaches if they are to do justice to the diversity of experience and response they encounter

Multilingual Memories Robert Blackwood, John Macalister, 2019-10-17 Drawing on a range of disciplines from within the humanities and social sciences Multilingual Memories addresses questions of remembering and forgetting from an explicitly multilingual perspective From a museum at Victoria Falls in Zambia to a Japanese American internment in Arkansas this book probes how the medium of the communication of memories affirms social orders across the globe Applying linguistic landscape approaches to a wide variety of monuments and memorials from around the world this book identifies how multilingualism and its absence contributes to the inevitable partiality of public memorials Using a number of different methods including multimodal discourse analysis code preferences interaction orders and indexicality the chapters explore how memorials have the potential to erase linguistic diversity as much as they can entextualize multilingualism With examples from Africa Asia Australasia Europe and North and South America this volume also examines the extent to which multilingual memories legitimize not only specific discourses but also individuals particular communities and ethno linguistic groups often to the detriment of others

Becoming a Citizen Kamran Khan, 2019-01-24 This book explores the process of acquiring UK citizenship and investigates how the naturalisation process is experienced with an explicit focus on language practices This ethnographically informed study focuses on W a Yemeni immigrant in the UK during the final phase of the citizenship process In this time he encounters linguistic trials and tests involving the Life in the UK citizenship test community life ESOL English for Speakers of Other Languages adult education and the citizenship ceremony The richness of linguistic data featured in this book allows for a nuanced portrayal of the complexities of becoming a citizen This is especially so in the context of the UK's assimilationist form of citizenship which is reflected in the introduction of a citizenship test within a broader socio political climate Becoming a Citizen offers a detailed analysis of the linguistic process of naturalisation in the the UK and is relevant to scholars working in sociolinguistics language policy migration studies and ethnographic research
