Larry Sultan Rebecca Morse, 2014-11-11 This first comprehensive overview of celebrated photographer Larry Sultan's work accompanies a major retrospective and features work from every significant series including Homeland his most recent body of work This first comprehensive overview of celebrated photographer Larry Sultan's work accompanies a major retrospective and features work from every significant series including Evidence 1977 the conceptual project with Mike Mandel which broke ground by demonstrating how context and sequence directly influence our interpretation of photographs Pictures from Home 1982-92 a personal exploration of family and domesticity challenging larger notions of representation through use of contemporary pictures of Sultan's parents contrasted with movie stills from his childhood The Valley 1998-2003 a deliberate inquiry into the subversion of the suburban homes commonly used by the porn industry as sets for films and Homeland 2006-09 Sultan's most recent body of work depicting day laborers posed in evocative California settings suggesting both dislocation and longing Also featured are additional early collaborative works with Mandel selected later career editorial work and writings by and interviews with Sultan elucidating his creative process Before-and-After Photography Jordan Bear, Kate Palmer Albers, 2020-09-25 The before and after trope in photography has long paired images to represent change whether affirmatively as in the results of makeovers social reforms or medical interventions or negatively in the destruction of the environment by the impacts of war or natural disasters This interdisciplinary multi-authored volume examines the central but almost unspoken position of before and after photography found in a wide range of contexts from the 19th century through to the present Packed with case studies that explore the conceptual implications of these images the book's rich language of evidence documentation and persuasion present both historical material and the work of practicing photographers who have deployed and challenged the conventions of the before and after pairing Touching on issues including sexuality race environmental change and criminality Before and After Photography examines major topics of current debate in the critique of photography in an accessible way to allow students and scholars to explore the rich conceptual issues around photography's relationship with time and imagination Formulations Andrew Witt, 2022-01-11 An investigation of mathematics as it was drawn encoded imagined and interpreted by architects on the eve of digitization in the mid twentieth century In Formulations Andrew Witt examines the visual methodological and cultural intersections between architecture and mathematics The linkages Witt explores involve not the mystic transcendence of numbers invoked throughout architectural history but rather architecture's encounters with a range of calculational systems techniques that architects inventively retooled for design Witt offers a catalog of mid twentieth century practices of mathematical drawing and calculation in design that preceded and anticipated digitization as well as an account of the formal compendia that became a cultural currency shared between modern mathematicians and modern architects Witt presents a series of extensively illustrated biographies of method episodes that chart the myriad ways in which mathematics particularly the mathematical notion of modeling and drawing was spliced into the creative practice of design These include early drawing machines that mechanized curvature the incorporation of geometric maquettes theorems made flesh into the toolbox of design the virtualization of buildings and landscapes through surveyed triangulation and photogrammetry formal and functional topology stereoscopic drawing the economic implications of cubic matrices and a strange synthesis of the technological mineral and biological crystallographic design Trained in both architecture and mathematics Witt uses mathematics as a lens through which to understand the relationship between architecture and a much broader set of sciences and visual techniques Through an intercultural exchange with other disciplines he argues architecture adapted not only the shapes and surfaces of mathematics but also its values and epistemic ideals Lost Days, Endless Nights Andrew Witt, 2025-01-14 A critical study and artist's book on the history of photography and film from Los Angeles Lost Days Endless Nights tells a history from below an account of the lives of the forgotten and dispossessed of Los Angeles the unemployed the precariously employed the evicted the alienated the unhoused the anxious the exhausted Through an analysis of abandoned archival works experimental films and other projects Andrew Witt offers an expansive account of the artists who have lived or worked in Los Angeles delving into the region's history and geography highlighting its racial gender and class conflicts Presented as a series of nine case studies Witt explores how artists as diverse as Agnès Varda Dana Lixenberg Allan Sekula Catherine Opie John Divola Gregory Halpern Paul Sepuya and Guadalupe Rosales have reimaged and reshaped our understanding of contemporary Los Angeles The book features portraits of those who struggle and attempt to get by in the city dock workers students bus riders petty criminals office workers immigrants queer and trans activists Set against the landscape of economic turmoil and environmental crises that shadowed the 1970s Witt highlights the urgent need for a historical perspective of cultural retrieval and counternarrative Extending into the present Lost Days Endless Nights advocates for an approach that actively embraces the works and projects that have been overlooked and evicted from the historical imaginary The Mysteries Of Light: Illumination, Intention and Desire In Photobooks Robert Dunn, 2023-05-01 The Mysteries of Light is an original literary meditation on the significance and meaning of photobooks Written by a photographer and novelist the book brings a strong new light to the photobook phenomenon It's a mix of personal stories and examinations of such great artists as Robert Frank Daido Moriyama Saul Leiter Alec Soth Masahisa Fukase and Christer Strömholm as well as newcomers Daisuke Yokota Laura El Tantawy and Jason Eskenazi The Mysteries of Light is personal and passionate fun lively informative inspiring and will help you understand photobooks and get you jazzed about them in a whole new way Mapping Jewish Identities Laurence J. Silberstein, 2000-07 In his opening remarks Silberstein Jewish studies Lehigh U reflects on the current trend of viewing identity as a mapping process of becoming rather than a fixed construct to be traced Essays by 13 other US and Israeli contributors further advance this non essentialist perspective in regard to Jewish identity viewed through personal narratives photographs Spiegelman's Holocaust Maus

American Jewish Loss After the Holocaust Laura Levitt, 2007-11 Many of us belong to communities that have been scarred by terrible calamities And many of us come from families that have suffered grievous losses How we reflect on these legacies of loss and the ways they inform each other are the questions Laura Levitt takes up in this provocative and passionate book An American Jew whose family was not directly affected by the Holocaust Levitt grapples with the challenges of contending with ordinary Jewish loss She suggests that although the memory of the Holocaust may seem to overshadow all other kinds of loss for American Jews it can also open up possibilities for engaging these more personal and everyday legacies Weaving in discussions of her own family stories and writing in a manner that is both deeply personal and erudite Levitt shows what happens when public and private losses are seen next to each other and what happens when difficult works of art or commemoration such as museum exhibits or films are seen alongside ordinary family stories about more intimate losses In so doing she illuminates how through these ordinary stories we may create an alternative model for confronting Holocaust memory in Jewish culture Who's Looking at the Family? Ageing and Popular Culture Andrew Blaikie, 1999-03-04 As the grey market perpetuates the quest for eternal youth the biological realities of deep old age are increasingly denied Ageing and Popular Culture traces the historical emergence of stereotypes of retirement and documents their recent demise arguing that although modernisation marginalisation and medicalisation created rigid age classifications the rise of consumer culture has coincided with a postmodern broadening of options for those in the Third Age With an adroit use of photographs and other visual sources Andrew Blaikie demonstrates that an expanded leisure phase is breaking down barriers between mid and later life At the same time positive ageing also creates new imperatives and new norms with attendant forms of deviance While baby boomers may anticipate a fulfilling retirement none relish decline Has deep old age replaced death as the taboo subject of the late twentieth century If so what might be the consequences

Not Here, Not Now Anthony Dunne, Fiona Raby, 2025-05-06 What it means to design at a time when for many people the future seems to have become an impossibility When reality fails us what can designers do Question design's relationship to reality as Anthony Dunne and Fiona Raby do in this exhilarating yet thoughtful journey to the edges of science philosophy and literature to find new ways of thinking about the possible and about the meaning function and place of design in that speculative world of not here not now A conceptual travelogue of sorts Not Here Not Now brings together words images and objects that capture in design form some of the ideas encountered along the way Itself a design experiment the richly illustrated book explores ways to bring these ideas into conversation with objects through imagined archives libraries glossaries taxonomies lists tales and essays The design responses in Not Here Not Now to a stone raft for example or a vegetable lamb swatches of imaginary colors a pocket universe in the home objects undergoing space time collapse are like the most compelling utopias impossible by design aiming instead to nourish the creative intellectual and imaginative ground from which new possibilities still unknown might begin to emerge

Dwell, 2006-04 At Dwell we're staging a minor revolution We think that it's possible to live in a house or apartment by a bold modern architect to own furniture and products that are exceptionally well designed and still be a regular human being We think that good design is an integral part of real life And that real life has been conspicuous by its absence in most design and architecture magazines American Photo - ND ,1993-05 Performing Archives/Archives of Performance Gunhild Borggreen,Rune Gade,2013-07-12 Performing Archives Archives of Performance contributes to the ongoing critical discussions of performance and its disappearance of the ephemeral and its reproduction of archives and mediatized recordings of liveness The many contributions by excellent scholars and artists from a broad range of interdisciplinary fields as well as from various locations in research geographies demonstrate that despite the extensive discourse on the relationship between performance and the archive inquiry into the productive tensions between ephemerality and permanence is by no means outdated or exhausted New ways of understanding archives history and memory emerge and address theories of enactment and intervention while concepts of performance constantly proliferate and enable a critical focus on archival residue The contributions in Performing Archives Archives of Performance cover philosophical inquiries as well as discussions of specific art works performances and archives Contributions by Heike Roms Amelia Jones Julie Louise Bacon Peter van der Meijden Emma Willis Rivka Syd Eisner Rachel Fensham Sarah Whatley Tracy C Davis Barnaby King Laura Luise Schultz Malene Vest Hansen Mette Sandbye Bodil Marie Stavning Thomsen Margeritha Sprio Annelis Kuhlmann Morten S ndergaard Martha Wilson Catherine Bagnall Paul Clarke Solveig Gade Gunhild Borggreen Rune Gade Louise Wolthers Mathias Danbolt Marco Pustianaz Gunhild Borggreen is Associate Professor at the Department of Arts and Cultural Studies at the University of Copenhagen Rune Gade is Associate Professor at the Department of Arts and Cultural Studies at the University of Copenhagen Photography Barbara London,John Upton,1993 Text covering material for basic photography courses and many advanced techniques with sample photos that illustrate techniques discussed EBOOK: Using Visual Evidence Richard Howells,Robert Matson,2009-05-16 What do we mean by visual evidence How should we interpret visual texts and what can they tell us Why is visual literacy so important and what benefits does it offer Visual evidence encompasses a diverse range of media from painting cartoons and photography to film television and documentary The central argument of this book is that visual evidence is a key to understanding both history and the present day and should not be relegated to a supporting role as merely illustrating the written word The book shows students scholars and researchers how to read the visual media to elicit meaning As primary sources visual texts can be studied not only for what is directly depicted in the painting or film but also for what it tells us about the people cultures and societies that made them Each chapter features fascinating case studies and examples which situate theory in real life A major appeal of the book is the wealth of illustrations and photographs of visual texts which are included throughout The authors make detailed reference to these examples to illustrate the theory surrounding visual evidence An intriguing case study of an unknown girl s photo album is just one of many examples offered showing how we can analyze and learn from the visual text This comprehensive and insightful edited collection brings together international media and cultural theorists historians and art historians to demonstrate the value of visual evidence not only to media and cultural studies but also to history the general humanities and the social sciences Photographic Realism Kieran Cashell,2020-10-15 One of the most captivating and provocative artists of the Sensation generation Richard Billingham b 1970 came to prominence in the late 1990s with his visceral photobook Ray s a Laugh a slice of everyday life in a high rise sink estate in the British West Midlands This book is the first comprehensive discussion of Billingham s art practice Articulating the socio historical aesthetic geographical as well as anthropological aspects of Billingham s art the book situates his work within the British neorealist tradition in visual art cinema and televisual culture Beginning with the first photographic studies of his father in the early 1990s Cashell argues that these sympathetic haunting images prefigure the later development of his thematic concerns Significant consideration is also given to Billingham s cinematic oeuvre including his recent feature length autobiographical film Ray Liz which substantially clarifies the complex continuity of his developing aesthetic vision Illustrated throughout with colour and black and white reproductions Photographic Realism The Art of Richard Billingham combines investigative research with interviews and studio conversations providing a subtle and sophisticated critical evaluation of the artist s key photographic and film based works from the 1990s to the present The Photographic Image in Digital Culture Martin Lister,2013-11-05 What does a new technology of images mean for the ways in which we encounter and use images in everyday life in advertising entertainment news evidence And within our domestic and private worlds for our sense of self and identity our view of the body and our sexuality The Photographic Image in Digital Culture explores the technological transformation of the image and its implications for photography Contributors investigate such issues as the relationship of technological change to visual culture the new discourses of techno culture medicine s new vision of the body and interactive pornography They also examine the cultural meanings of new surveillance images shifts in the domestic consumption of images and their relationship to memory history and biography the social uses of video and computer games and the changing role of photography as document and as art
