Tripp,2012-04-27 Low external input technology or LEIT is an increasingly prominent subject in discussions of sustainable agriculture There are growing calls for self sufficient agriculture in an era experiencing diminishing returns from reliance upon expensive synthetic pesticides and fertilizers There are many reasons to support strategies for low external input farming including a concern for environmental sustainability increased attention to resource poor farmers and marginal environments and the conviction that a better use of local resources in small scale agriculture can improve farm productivity and innovation But despite the increased attention to self sufficient agriculture there is little evidence available on the performance and impact of LEIT This book examines the contributions and limitations of low external input technology for addressing the needs of resource poor farmers For the first time a balanced analysis of LEIT is provided offering in depth case studies an analysis of the debates an extensive review of the literature and practical suggestions about the management and integration of low external input agriculture in rural development programmes Statistical Pocket Book of the Democratic Socialist Republic of Sri Lanka ,1991 International Books in Print, 1995 Barbara Hopkinson,[Anonymus AC01401231],1995 The Political Economy of NGOs Jude L. Fernando,2011-07-08 This book explores the paradoxical relationship between NGOs and capitalism showing that supposedly progressive organisations often promote essentially the same policies and ideas as existing governments It examines how a diverse group of NGOs have shaped state formation in Bangladesh and Sri Lanka It argues that rather than influencing state formation for the better NGOs have been integrated into the capitalist system and their language adopted to give traditional exploitative social relations a transformative appearance This enlightening study will give pause to those who see NGOs as drivers of true social change and will encourage students of development studies to make a deeper analysis of state formation Mass Media and Cultural Identity Anura Goonasekera,Youchi Ito,1999-06-15 An increase in ethnic violence in Asia in recent years has generated a wealth of publications conferences and recommendations on the subject This volume assesses the inter relation between the media and ethnic violence in Asia and is written by local authors Focusing on newspapers and television the contributors examine the role of communication media in the management of ethnic relations in India Indonesia Malaysia Pakistan the Philippines Singapore and Sri Lanka ANTIQUITY ,2000 The Book Review ,2002 The International Year Book and Statesmen's Who's who ,1991 Sociological Abstracts Leo P.
