Breaking a Rainbow, Building a Nation Rekgotsofetse Chikane, 2018-10-01 Breaking a Rainbow Building a Nation is a first hand account of the university protests that gripped South Africa between 2015 and 2017 widely better known as the FeesMustFall Chikane outlines the nature of student politics in the country before during and after the emergence of MustFall politics exploring the political dynamics that informed and drove the student protests and the effect that these MustFall movements have had on the nature of youth politics in the country Chikane looks at how the current nature of youth politics is different from previous youth upheavals that have defined South Africa specifically due to the fact that the protests were being led by so called coconuts who are part of the black elite Breaking a Rainbow Building a Nation poses the provocative question can coconuts be trusted with the revolution Utilisation of South African Research on Higher Education Jan Botha ,Gabriele Vilyte ,2021-10-26

The relationship between research on the one hand and policy practice on the other hand is complicated and collaboration between scholars in research on higher education RHE and institutional research IR practitioners is often lacking This book marks a collaborative effort of a diverse range of South African RHE and IR scholars and asks the overarching questions What do we know about the utilisation of South African research on higher education SARHE and its subset of research known as Institutional Research How and by whom is this research used The book begins by looking at the historical underpinnings of SARHE and delineating the shape and size of this body of research This is followed by a series of case studies on South African Higher Education institutions and governmental bodies investigating how when and by whom are research on higher education and institutional research used in the decision making of these organisations This book is the first of its kind in South Africa and sets out to lay the groundwork for further research into the use uptake and utilisation of RHE and IR in this country Biostimulants for Crops from Seed Germination to Plant Development Shubhpriya Gupta,Johannes Van Staden,2021-06-23

Biostimulants for crops from seed germination to plant development focuses on the effects and roles of natural biostimulants in every aspect of plant growth development to reduce the use of harmful chemical fertilizers and pesticides Biostimulants are a group of substances of natural origin that offer a potential to reduce the dependency on harmful chemical fertilizers causing environmental degradation While there is extensive literature on biostimulants there remains a gap in understanding how natural biostimulants work and their practical application This book fills that gap presenting the ways in which biostimulants enhance seed vigor and plant productivity by looking into their mode of action an area still being researched for deeper understanding Exploring the roles of seed germination pollen tube formation pollen pistil interaction flower and fruit setting to plant pigments rhizospheric and soil microorganisms the book also sheds light on the challenges and realistic opportunities for the use of natural biostimulants Approaches biostimulant research with the goal of transforming scientific research into practical application Includes real world examples from laboratory greenhouse and field experiments Presents the biochemical physiological and molecular mode of action of biostimulants Executive Engagement Strategies Bev Burgess,2020-03-03

Media in Postapartheid South Africa Sean Jacobs,2019-03-11 A study of mass media in twenty first century South Africa offering revelations about the nature of citizenship and public engagement in our media saturated age Daniel R Magaziner author of The Law and the Prophets Black Consciousness in South Africa 1968 1977 In Media in Postapartheid South Africa Sean Jacobs turns to media politics and the consumption of media as a way to understand recent political developments in South Africa and their relations with the African continent and the world Jacobs looks at how mass media define the physical and human geography of the society and what it means for comprehending changing notions of citizenship in postapartheid South Africa Jacobs claims that the media have unprecedented control over the distribution of public goods rights claims and South Africa s integration into the global political economy in ways that were impossible under the state controlled media that dominated the apartheid years Jacobs takes a probing look at television commercials and the representation of South Africans reality television shows and South African continental expansion soap operas and postapartheid identity politics and the internet as a space for reassertions and reconfigurations of identity As South Africa becomes more integrated into the global economy Jacobs argues that local media have more weight in shaping how consumers view these products in unexpected and consequential ways

First and Foremost Richard D. Cheshire Ph.D.,2019-12-20 America is under attack Foreign adversaries are working to undermine our way of life Domestic polarization is straining our community as a nation American unity is at a premium Americans urgently need to re member our first principles which are set forth in the Preamble of the Constitution the national purpose of the United States As we re member these principles and their purpose we are developing a dynamic Preamble 2 0 that is necessarily today s interpretations of yesterday s explanations for tomorrow s anticipations The American Experiment is centered around the creativity of native and naturalized citizens whose ancestries come from around the world America is the leading world nation on Earth and a model for the global future of all 195 countries in the United Nations This Model of America s Promise the MAP of meta civics for America is set forth here in the first principles and their foremost pursuits re membered as

Preamble 2 0 We have now begun our descent Justice Malala,2015-10-12 I am angry I am furious Because I never thought it would happen to us Not us the rainbow nation that defied doomsayers and suckled and nurtured a fragile democracy into life for its children I never thought it would happen to us this relentless decline the flirtation with a leap over the cliff In a searing honest paean to his country renowned political journalist and commentator Justice Malala forces South Africa to come face to face with the country it has become corrupt crime ridden compromised its institutions captured by a selfish political elite bent on enriching itself at the expense of everyone else In this deeply personal reflection Malala s diagnosis is devastating South Africa is on the brink of ruin He does not stop there Malala believes that we have the wherewithal to turn things around our lauded Constitution the wealth of talent that exists our history of activism and a democratic trajectory can all be used to stop the rot But he has a warning South Africans of all walks of life need to wake up and act or else they will soon find their country has been stolen Doctoral Education in South Africa Cloete,

Nico,Mouton, Johann,2015-12-08 Worldwide in Africa and in South Africa the importance of the doctorate has increased disproportionately in relation to its share of the overall graduate output over the past decade This heightened attention has not only been concerned with the traditional role of the PhD namely the provision of future academics rather it has focused on the increasingly important role that higher education and particularly high level skills is perceived to play in national development and the knowledge economy This book is unique in the area of research into doctoral studies because it draws on a large number of studies conducted by the Centre of Higher Education Trust CHET and the Centre for Research on Evaluation Science and Technology CREST as well as on studies from the rest of Africa and the world In addition to the historical studies new quantitative and qualitative research was undertaken to produce the evidence base for the analyses presented in the book The findings presented in Doctoral Education in South Africa pose anew at least six tough policy questions that the country has struggled with since 1994 and continues to struggle with if it wishes to gear up the system to meet the target of 5 000 new doctorates a year by 2030 Discourses framed around the single imperatives of growth efficiency transformation or quality will not however generate the kind of policy discourses required to resolve these tough policy questions effectively What is needed is a change in approach that accommodates multiple imperatives and allows for these to be addressed simultaneously A Dictionary of World History Thomas Edmund Farnsworth Wright,Edmund Wright,2015 As well as over 4000 clear and concise entries this dictionary also contains biographies of key figures in world history Other useful features include subject entries on religious and political movements maps and full international coverage
