Conning Harvard Julie Zauzmer,Xi Yu,2013-09-03 In 2011 a 24 year old man pled guilty to falsifying his application to Harvard University bilking the world s most prestigious university out of more than 45 000 in prizes and scholarships Using forged SAT scores transcripts and letters of recommendation Adam Wheeler outsmarted Harvard s admissions office and then went even further Once accepted into the Ivy League he kept lying cheating and succeeding winning thousands of dollars in prizes and grants But then he shot too far During his senior year Wheeler applied for Rhodes and Fulbright scholarships a gamble that finally exposed his extensive tangle of lies Alerted that he was under suspicion Wheeler fled Harvard but did not stop He successfully filed more fraudulent applications at top tier schools across the country until some vigilant admissions officers Massachusetts police and even his own parents forced him off his computer and into court As reporters for The Harvard Crimson Julie Zauzmer and Xi Yu covered the case from the moment the news of Wheeler's indictment broke. In the course of their reporting they interviewed dozens of friends, roommates, teachers and advisors who knew Wheeler at the many phases of his suspect academic career. Their fascinating account reveals how one serial scammer took on the competitive world of the Ivy League and almost won. Report of Consolidated Application Programs, 1986

Human rights in diverse education contexts J.P. Rossouw, Elda de Waal, Johan Beckmann, Johan Botha, Franciska Bothma, André du Plessis, Elize Küng, Nicholas Mollo, Ewelina Niemczyk, Louise Postma, Erika Serfontein, Marius Smit, Charl C. Wolhuter, 2019-12-12. The focus of this publication is on answering the central research question: How can Human Rights be advanced with regard to different kinds of diversities and in different educational settings? The publication pays special attention to the advancement of human rights in a variety of education-related contexts in keeping with human rights as a declared national priority for both society at large and the education system. One strategic priority of the Faculty of Education is research based on market requirements and needs. This book strives towards meeting this expectation by directly aiming at building human rights and social justice in the South African society: public schools and higher education institutions. Adjudication in the education context of the constitutional values of dignity, equality and freedom focusses regularly on learners. The book highlights the value of education for full-fledged citizenship by delineating what schooling should entail to inspire learners towards both claiming equal freedoms and rights and taking accountability for the responsibilities attached to citizenship.
