PREMCHAND AND THE ARAB WORLD SHALU & DR JASIMUDDIN, 2022-10-08 The book

Premchand and The Arab World is an attempt that states that Munshi Premchand's literary work holds an exclusive position in Indian literature as well as in world literature. Even eighty six years of his death the discussions and research on Premchand and his achievements through his literary work are not only in the department of Hindi Urdu English and Arabic of Indian Universities but also in several universities of the Arab World. We have tried to ensure that the cultural political and social imports of his work are not neglected. We have attempted to bring out its cultural and moral significance. The primary stress in the rest of the study is on a close analysis of the individual short stories and novels respecting their integrity and autonomy as works of art owing to space limitations.

Writing the Arab-Israeli Conflict Jonathan B. Isacoff, 2006-01-01 In Writing the Arab Israeli Conflict Jonathan B Isacoff constructs the nature of historical knowledge by deftly examining the multiple histories of the Arab Israeli conflict written by generations of Israeli scholars. He also undertakes briefer analysis of literature drawn from both historians and political scientists of the Vietnam War demonstrating that historical revisionism is not unique to the study of the Middle East.

The New Arab Man Marcia C. Inhorn, 2012-03-25 Middle Eastern Muslim men have been widely vilified as terrorists religious zealots and brutal oppressors of women. The New Arab Man challenges these stereotypes with the stories of ordinary Middle Eastern men as they struggle to overcome infertility and childlessness through assisted reproduction. Drawing on two decades of ethnographic research across the Middle East with hundreds of men from a variety of social and religious backgrounds Marcia Inhorn shows how the new Arab man is self consciously rethinking the patriarchal masculinity of his forefathers and unseating received wisdoms. This is especially true in childless Middle Eastern marriages where contrary to popular belief infertility is more common among men than women. Inhorn captures the marital moral and material commitments of couples undergoing assisted reproduction revealing how new technologies are transforming their lives and religious sensibilities. And she looks at the changing manhood of husbands who undertake transnational egg quests set against the backdrop of war and economic uncertainty out of devotion to the infertile wives they love. Trenchant and emotionally gripping The New Arab Man traces the emergence of new masculinities in the Middle East in the era of biotechnology.

The Making of Arab News Noha Mellor, 2005-01-28 Since September 11 Arab and American journalists have been trading barbs accusing each other of bias and a lack of objectivity. But is news coverage in Arab countries all that different from American coverage? The Making of Arab News draws comparisons including examples of Arabic news language and their English translations to show how Arab news values have been Americanized and how these values are reflected in the language used in the Arab news. Noha Mellor further discusses claims that the current development in the Arab news media could be the first step toward democratization.
