sports magazine celebrates the outdoor experience with great stories compelling photography and sound advice while honoring the traditions hunters and fishermen have passed down for generations Grizzlyville Jake Macdonald, 2010-06-22

More than ever before bears and human beings are living closer together as climate change deforestation and community encroachment diminish bear territory Once considered romantic creatures living in rural surroundings bears are now becoming as common in some places as raccoons Some experts believe that the animals should be left entirely alone others argue that responsible hunting will best serve both bears and human beings In Grizzlyville award winning writer Jake MacDonald gives weight to both sides as he examines the history and behaviour of the three species of bears in North America grizzlies black bears and polar bears Part memoir part natural history Grizzlyville is MacDonald s fascinating meditation on North America s largest predators and on the people who live alongside them As he skillfully interweaves their stories he delivers a message for all to consider as bear habitat shrinks and our worlds come ever closer together Field & Stream , 2002-02
