Turgenev's 'Spring Torrents' Ivan Sergeevich Turgenev, Leonard Schapiro, 1972 Returning to Russia from Italy twenty three year old Dmitry Sanin breaks his journey in Frankfurt There he encounters the beautiful Gemma Roselli and falls in love He decides to begin a new life and sell his Russian estates But when he meets the potential buyer Madame Polozov his vulnerability makes him prey for a destructive infatuation Write it Right John Peck, Martin Coyle, 2012-07-31 Shows students how to make their writing effective and grammatically correct Organised into mini units and easy to read it deals with everyday tasks and problems This second edition adds further guidance on common questions raised by students for example When does one use italics and or underlining The Library of Literary Criticism of English and American Authors: 1855-1874 Charles Wells Moulton, 1904 Essays and Essay-writing William Maddux Tanner, 1917 The Annual Register, Or, A View of the History, Politics, and Literature for the Year ... , 1800 The Annual Register of World Events Edmund Burke, 1800 Annual Register , 1800 The Scholarship of Creative Writing Practice Marshall Moore, Sam Meekings, 2024-01-25 The first study to explore deeply and intimately the complex and multifaceted nature of creative writing practice The Scholarship of Creative Writing and Practice offers a new route in scholarly inquiry for creative writing studies probing beyond pedagogical methods with which most of the field's scholarship is occupied to explore the writing life as it is experienced by a wealth of international writer academics. With academic creative writing programs beginning to adopt a more pragmatic industry focused stance, students of writing increasingly need and expect to complete their degrees moderately prepared to monetize the skills they have learned, so there is now more than ever a great responsibility to present studies, methodologies, and experience that can inform students and instructors. In response, Sam Meekings and Marshall Moore have pulled together academic investigations from some of the most prominent names in creative writing studies to take stock of the diverse definitions and pluralities of creative practice, to examine how they have carved out a writing life, what work habits they have adopted to achieve this, how these practitioners work as creatives both within and outside of the academy, and to put forward strategies for a viable writing life. Offering intelligent philosophical, pragmatic, and actionable methods for robust writing practice, this book provides a multi-national perspective on the various aspects of practice and process. Essays explore what writing practice means for individuals and how this can be modeled for students; how the mythic nature of creativity can be channeled through practical working habits; practice through the lenses of social responsibility, sensitivity, empathy, and imagination; writing during times of duress and the barriers writers encounter in their craft; the demand of author platforms; the role of the creative writing academic; writer and the process of learning from published and practicing authors. Wide-ranging in its investigations and generous in insight, The Scholarship of Creative Writing and Practice presents creative, imaginative, and transdisciplinary approaches to this under-researched area.

Colonial Taiwan Pei-yin Lin, 2017-04-03 This book offers a thorough and thought-provoking study on the impact of Japanese colonialism on Taiwan's literary production from the 1920s to 1945. It redresses the previous nationalist and Japan-centric interpretations of works from Taiwan's Japanese period and eschews a colonizer/colonized dichotomy. Through a highly sensitive textual analysis and contextual reading, this chronologically structured book paints a multi-layered picture of colonial Taiwan's literature, particularly its multi-styled articulations of identities and diverse visions of modernity. By engaging critically with current scholarship, Lin has written with great sentiment the most complete history of the colonial Taiwanese literary development in English. The Literary World, 1877 Philosophical Writing A.
