Participation in Impact Assessment Tanya Burdett, A. John Sinclair, 2024-06-05 This Handbook provides a clear overview of how to achieve meaningful public participation in impact assessment IA It explores conceptual elements including the democratic core of public participation in IA as well as practical challenges such as data sharing with diverse perspectives from 39 leading academics and practitioners Occupational noise-induced hearing loss Katijah

Khoza-Shangase, 2023-03-01 Within the well documented understanding of occupational noise induced hearing loss ONIHL being a complex occupational health condition requiring the adoption of the complex interventions approach to management challenges confronting hearing conservation programmes HCPs within the African context need clear characterisation and insightful deliberation Guided by the systems theory to be realistic about the implementation monitoring as well as evaluation of outcomes of HCPs within the African mining context this book is a call for a paradigm shift in the assessment and management of ONIHL and HCPs in African mines This book Occupational Noise Induced Hearing Loss An African Perspective equips researchers involved in the management of ONIHL and implementation of HCPs with evidence that allows for contextually relevant best practices in mine settings particularly those located in low and middle income countries LMICs This best practice is multidisciplinary in nature and engages all stakeholders in all relevant sectors with the goal of adopting a preventive audiology approach to ONIHL rather than the compensation oriented approach that is currently prevailing This book is a research driven contribution to the occupational health and safety OHS space with ONIHL as a focus case study and it provides contemporary contextually relevant and responsive evidence related to ONIHL and HCPs in LMICs with a very specific focus on the South African context This book expansively addresses all aspects of ONIHL and HCPs in one volume with careful considerations of complexities and challenges to HCPs implementation applicable specifically to LMICs although useful globally The book offers potential solutions and recommendations for all challenges identified having carefully and deliberately engaged with local evidence local context and local policies and regulations to ensure an Afrocentric contribution to the world of evidence The Routledge Handbook on Global Community Corrections Ioan

Durnescu, James M. Byrne, Benjamin J. Mackey, Faye S. Taxman, 2024-06-25 The Routledge Handbook on Global Community Corrections assesses and analyzes the status of community corrections systems around the world highlighting inter regional and intra regional variations in their design implementation and impact on policy and practice Covering both probation and parole this handbook brings together leading international experts to examine the myriad of systems developed under the broad heading of community corrections to manage community corrections populations at the pre adjudication adjudication and post release stages Chapters are designed to consider the following questions How many offenders are placed in community corrections systems around the globe What are the key design features of these community corrections systems What do we know about the effectiveness of community corrections within and across global regions This is an essential reference text for all those engaged with community corrections probation and post release policy in criminal justice

Global Trends in Mediation Nadja Marie Alexander, 2006-01-01 In its first edition Global Trends in Mediation was the first book to concentrate on mediation from a comparative perspective reaching beyond the all too familiar Anglo American view and as such has enjoyed wide practical use among alternative dispute resolution ADR practitioners worldwide This new edition has not only been updated throughout it has also added two new jurisdictions France and Quebec and a very useful comparative table summarising the salient points from each of the fourteen jurisdictional chapters Each jurisdictional chapter addresses critical structural and process issues in alternative dispute resolution such as the institutionalisation of mediation mediation case law and legislation the range and nature of disputes where mediation is utilised court related mediation mediation practice standards education training and accreditation of mediators the role of lawyers in mediation online dispute resolution and future trends All the contributors are senior dispute resolution academics or practitioners with vast knowledge and experience of dispute resolution developments in their countries and abroad Resources in Education
