Empowering Students Through Multilingual and Content Discourse Finley, Stacie Lynn,Correll, Pamela,Pearman, Cathy,Huffman, Stephanie,2023-07-25 Empowering Students Through Multilingual and Content Discourse is a peer reviewed research book that challenges the traditional monolingual classroom approach where the teacher s voice dominates and only the dominant culture s language is considered the path to success The book aims to empower students by creating classroom spaces where all voices are heard valued and empowered It draws on research from scholars who study discourse and offers insights into how discourse can be used to promote language and literacy development honor all students voices and empower them This book also provides guidance on culturally and linguistically sustaining discourse practices and encourages educators to incorporate students home languages and discourse practices in classroom instruction It challenges educators to move away from centering White English and represent language more responsibly within the classroom This research is a valuable resource for academic scholars and a useful tool for teachers looking to cultivate student centered classroom practices By encouraging discourse among students educators can create a space where human life holds meaning and students feel empowered to act and use their voices

The Handbook of Communication Training J Wallace,Dennis Becker,2018-09-03 Communication remains a significant topic for job acquisition development and advancement As such there are no shortage of classes seminars and books written on the subject However there are few designed for the corporate consultant that are not aligned with some proprietary system traditional academic classrooms or author's speculation. These tend to be either inaccessible/questionable in their content or specifically aligned with the producers' interests. So where can the Communication trainers and consultants go to focus on fundamental touchstone research and practices? The Handbook of Communication Training is a powerful template and first of its kind for communication practitioners and academicians who wish to strengthen their professional capabilities. It also acts as a guide and standard for consumers and clients of these services. The chapters within are an outgrowth of the National Communication Association's Training Development Division's desire to provide guidance, structure, and support for members and non-members alike. It is specifically targeted at those pursuing best practices regarding communication consulting, coaching, teaching, and training. The 7 Best Practices presented in this book represent capabilities that are foundational to the effective transfer of communication promotion and skill enhancement. As such, these practices and supporting chapters should appeal to novice and experts alike.

Bishop, Susanna W. Pflaum, 2005-04-20. Enhance classroom practice by promoting an open and shared process with your students. Middle school students have much to say about the quality of their schooling experiences and can provide rich insight into what works for them and what doesn't. Educators Penny A. Bishop and Susanna W. Pflaum demonstrate how to enhance classroom practice by inviting students to offer feedback on pedagogy, learning styles, and their individual preferences and needs. Written for new and veteran teachers of grades 4-8, the unique framework of this book takes its cue from the students themselves by using their own words and drawings, combined with the authors' action research, insightful analysis, and shared experiences. Highlights of this powerful resource include: instructional strategies and content area learning; social interactions within the classroom that promote or inhibit learning; learner insights into their own engagement and disengagement in the classroom; student drawings; reflective questions for teachers; mini-lessons and frequently asked questions about consulting students and honoring their insights. Reaching and Teaching Middle School Learners focuses on the learning needs of adolescents as identified by the students themselves. By promoting an open and shared process with your students, you can meet the unique challenges of working with middle school learners and create a positive schooling experience for all.
