Kellogg, 2014 The Roman philosophy of life as mirrored in the literature of ten outstanding representative authors Though Rome conquered much of the world and established an empire that lasted more than a millennium its citizens sometimes expressed a sense of inferiority to the intellectual accomplishments of ancient Greece The notion that Roman philosophers thinkers and writers were just pale imitations of Greek originals has persisted to this day Even the great Roman poet Horace wrote Captive Greece took its Roman captor captive Invading uncouth Latium with its arts Michael K Kellogg puts this notion to rest in this lively very readable overview of Roman literature The author uncovers many examples of Roman wisdom showing that the Roman contribution to intellectual history is considerable and need not take second place to ancient Greek literature Kellogg offers fresh and engaging portraits of poets Lucretius Virgil Horace Ovid dramatists Plautus Terence Seneca biographers Plutarch Suetonius historians Livy Tacitus and philosophers Cicero Marcus Aurelius against the background of Roman history The contemporary reader will come away from this excellent survey with the realization that even today our culture still bears the lasting imprint of ancient Rome

The Outlook Lyman Abbott, Hamilton Wright Mabie, Ernest Hamlin Abbott, Francis Rufus Bellamy, 1923 Just Like Heaven Marc Levy, 2005 Arthur a young San Francisco architect falls in love with a young woman he found in his closet one morning who explained to him that her body was actually in a coma in a hospital on the other side of town

The Academy and Literature , 1903 Expert Systems for Scanner Data Environments John M. McCann, John P. Gallagher, 2012-12-06 This book is about the role of expert systems in marketing particularly in the consumer goods industry Section I describes the changing nature of consumer marketing and presents the rationale and need for expert systems The remainder of the book combines a tutorial on expert systems with a series of expert system prototypes The tutorial material is presented in three places First section II is devoted to introducing expert systems in general Chapter 3 provides a general introduction to the topic which is continued in chapter 4 where a small expert system the Promotion Advisor is used to illustrate the important features of a backward chaining rule based system The promotion theme is extended in chapter 5 where a larger system is presented The material in all three of these chapters was designed as an introduction and tutorial on the most common technology for building applied expert systems the backward chaining rule based inference engine Tutorial material is also contained in the body of the chapters that describe the prototypes This material is usually in the form of sample rules and a description of the process for applying the rules The third location of the expert system material is in chapters that follow discussions of the prototypes Chapter 7 is a technical chapter on the coupling of expert systems to traditional systems
